BUCKNER'S MAJORITY.

RETURNS ENOUGH TO SHOW THAT IT WILL BE AS CLOSE AS A SHOT.

The greatest interest is still manifested in the Kentucky election returns. Judge Sharp, chairman of the Democratic central committee, claims that Gen. Buckner's majority, judging from information received up to this time, will not be less than 18,000, and probably over 20,000.

The official vote for the counties named, received, is as follows: In Jessamine—Buckner, 1,349; Bradley, 128. In Kenton county, the Buckner received a majority of 1,377. In Fleming—Buckner, 110. Bullitt county gives Buckner 708; Bradley, 424. A Democratic majority of 25. Hancock county has a 50 majority. Hudson (Rep.) was elected representative in Fleming county by a majority of 630. Madison (Rep.) has a majority of 560, 700 in Knox, and 900 in Harlan.

D. G. Colson (Rep.) is elected to the legislature by a narrow margin from the district composed of Bell, Harlan, Perry, and Leslie counties. Loy (Ind. Rep.) is elected from Knox and Whitley by about 25 over Golden, (Rep.)

The race between Culliton (Dem.) and Paul (Rep.) for the Senate in the Seventh district is very close, with the contest in favor of Culliton. His majority is about 250, with Jackson county to hear from. Culliton's friends claim that he will receive a small majority in this county.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.

TOM COCHRAN TO BE OPPOSED BY ROBERT COOK, JR., OF COVINGTON.

The Republican county committee will meet on Monday for organization. Up to ten days ago it was believed that Chairman Tom Cochran would not have any opposition for re-election. The control of the committee for presidential election next year means something, if a Republican should be elected, and the Hog Ring faction come to the conclusion that as they acted in the past, they would not do so again.

GOVERNOR WHARTON'S OATH.

IT IS TO BE MARKED BY A TABLET IN TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Some time last May it was ascertained that Gov. Thomas Wharton, Jr., who had died on May 23, 1778, interred in the vault of the Trinity Lutheran church, and that his grave was not marked with a tombstone. A resolution was adopted by the vestry of the church to place a suitable tablet to commemorate his services. The tablet was given to the church by the trustees of the National Camp for the promotion of Scriptural holidays, and Rev. J. H. Seaman preached a historical sermon on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the church on the 10th of July, 1887.
