A Party of Young Men Indulge to a Fight.
Pleasy of Once Recent.
At a late hour on Saturday night several parties of young men came together on Water street, just below West King. The majority of them had been drinking and they at once began quarreling. There were numerous knock-downs, and several of the participants received bloody noses, black ever participants received bloody noses, black eyes and cut heads. James Hart, one of the men, was badly pounded and considerably injured. The crowd was very noisy and the majority of them seemed anxious to have a fight of some kind. One young fellow, who was some-thing of a pugilist, knocked down everybody that came in his way. The result of this fun is that quite a number of suits have been brought before Alderman Hershey. The accused are charged with affray and disrested thus far and have given ball are as tolows: William Burke, William Eckert, John Cherry, Edward Faegley, James Hart Jacob Johns, Edward Hartman, Frank Samson. Others whose names have not been learned will be likely arrested before the week in over. Thomas Tilbrook, arrested for drunken and disorderly conduct and crueity to a horse, was given a hearing on Saturday evening, and was discharged on payment of costs by Alderman Deen.

Andrew Zeer, arrested for drunken and disorderly conduct, and Mary Clark, for disorderly conduct, were discharged on paynent of costs by the same alderman. Margaret Wright, arrested for disorderly onduct, was held for a hearing on Tuesday

Henry Effen, who is charged with defraud ing L. A. Peterman out of a board bill, bas been held by Alderman A. F. Donnelly for hearing. Thomas Taylor, for being drunk and disorderly, has been sent to jail for five days by Alderman McConomy.

George Kirk, colored, was heard before A!derman Hershey, on Saturday evening on the charge of drunk and disorderly conduct and surety of the peace. The case was settled in the alderman's office upon payment of costs. Kirk and his wife before leav ing agreed to separate and not live together in the future.

On complaint of John Metzger, E. Gerlitzki was arrested for larceny as bailee, for obtaining a suit of clothee in an unfair way. Alderman Spurrier held the accused for trial at Ciara Zell has brought suit before Alderman Barr against Mary Washington, charging her with surety of the peace and carry ing concealed deadly weapons. She is held for a hearing.

Jacob Hubley was complained against before Alderman A. F. Donnelly on Saturday for false pretense. The allegation is that he procured a team from Brimmer's livery by representing that George Weaver had sent him for it. Before the bearing in the case the parties interested compromised the case and the prosecution was withrawn.

Jacob Heney has been beld by Alderman Deen to answer the charges of surety of the peace and drunken and disorderly conduct. The complainant is Jacob Huber. Before Alderman Deen Mrs. Albon Ingram has brought suit against Mary Washngton, charging her with larceny. Mra.

Ingram claims that the accused stole $3 50 of money some time ago, after which she skipped the town. She recently returned and has just been arrested. There are several other charges against Miss Washington be-fore other aldermen.

FRLL BRIWARN THE UARS. A Terrible Accident to Daniel Rose, of Mount

Joy-retally Injured. A terrible accident occurred at Ciark's Ferry, a station on the Northern Central railroad, about 12 miles above Harrisburg, this forenoon, in which a Laucaster county man was probably fatally injured. name of the unfortunate man was Daniel Rose, son of Jacob Rose, of Mount Joy. He attempted to board the Seashore Express east about half-past ten o'clock, and in doing so fell between the cars, the wheels of which passed over his legs. One foot was cut completely off at the ankle and the other leg was crushed to the knee. The injured man was taken to Harrisburg and placed in a hospital. There is little hope of his recovery. Rose is about 21 years of age Citizens' Hand Cheap Excursion to Atlantic Ct and a blacksmith by trade. He had I working with his brother, Washington Rose, at the Cross Roads, Mt. Joy township, up to Saturday, when he left for Duncannon to get married. His friends in Mount Joy do not know whether he was married or not. Chief of Police Smith, of this city, was a passenger on the train on which the accident occurred.

THE BOOT TO BE SAUMAD.

Steps Taken to Investigate the Causes of Jame Markey's Death. Coroner Honoman went to Nine Points, Bart township, on Sunday to assist his deputy, Captain Keen in the investigation going on as to the death of Mrs. Jane Markey who it is alleged was poisoned. The coroner saw his deputy and Justice Trout, and after a consultation it was decided that there was but one way to satisfy the community, and that was to have the body exhumed and a post mortem examination made.

The body is interred near Steelville, on the ancester county side of the creek, and to day was named for the disinterment. The deputy coroner has designated Dr. Keen as his physician. After the body is exhumed the stomach will be removed and analyzed for poison. The result of the analysis will not be known for a few days. The residents of Nine Points and vicinity are greatly exercised over the rumors of poisoning.

Work For the Street Commissio The policemen this morning made report of the following bad places in the streets: Bad pavement corner Columbia and Orange ; bad gutter, Lafayette street, between Strawberry and Filbert streets; bad gutter Lafayette street above Strawberry ; bad gutter Green street between Duke and Rockland ; bad gutter on Low street between Duke and Rockland; bad gutter on Duke street between North and Low; pile of dirt corner East King and Lime, (has been there since Thursday) ; inlet stopped up northeast and southeast corner Orange and Ann ; bad cross ng corner Orange and Charlotte ; pile of dirt corner Caroline and Manor streets.

There seems to be some trouble in the card room of the Stevens cotton mill. On Thursday J. W. Park, the overseer, after having ome trouble with the management, left. Soon afterwards four men employed in the room also left. Seven girls, of the same room, saked for an increase of wages of from 70 to o cents per day. This was refused, and this norning the females went out on a strike.

He Will Move to Virginia, Where He Has Bought a Form. Frank Griest, commissioners' clerk, Saturday tendered his resignation, and it was accepted. His brother, Will W. Griest, was elected cierk for the unexpired term, which will end on the first Monday of Janu ary. The late cierk will remove to Virginia in a couple of weeks and engage in farming. He has bought a farm of two bundred scree in the Shenandoah valley in Warren county, near Port Royal.

Mr. Griest has been the commissioners' plerk for a number of years, has filled the office with great satisfaction, and his friends in the city and county, while regretting his departure from Lancaster, wish him success in his new ventura.

Mr. G. is also a member of councils and his resignation as a member will be presented to that body at the September meeting.

They Paid the Costs John Have and John Fritz were arrested on Sunday by Officer Beechier, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They with a number of friends congregated at a house a where several kegs of beer were drunk. In the afternoon the two defendants above named went to the house of a colored man in the neighborhood, and threatened to kill him and his family. The mayor discharged the accused on payment of costs, after lecturing them for their bad conduct. Warrants will be issued for the other parties engaged in the disorder. The mayor says he is determined to break up the disorder incident to gange of men meeting in houses on the outskirts, getting drunk, and then appearing on the streets and insulting whoever they may meet.
