MITTE CARTBURIAL CLOSED.

Determed Seturday and Sunday. LITITE, Aug. 15 — The contennial services of the Moravian church which were brought of the Moravian courch which were brought to a close less evening were of such a charac-ter that no one who had the pleasure of being present at any time will ever forget the im pressions received. The town was filled with visitors from far and near and everything presented a truly festive appearance. The introductory services of Saturday morning was followed by the rededication of the church building in the afternoon, at which Bishop E. De Schweinitz was to have presided but being prevented from attending by illness the ceremony was performed by Bishop A. A. Reinks, of New York. The anthems by the choir "Behold the Heaven of Heavens," by Boyce, and "Praise the Lord for He is Gracious," from Mcsart's XII Mass for He is Gracious," from Mczart's XII Mass were beautifully rendered. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Reinke, preached an eloquent ser-mon from the same text used by Rev. Kiings Onr at the dedication of the church 100 years ago. Unfortunately the original sermon has been lost, but the three beads into which it was divided were preserved, and in the centennial discourse the pastor very appropriately confined his remarks to those divisions. They are lat, Ressors for joy; 2, High significance of the day; 3, Holy uses for which the church is to be devoted. The programme of the first day's services was brought to a close by a praise meeting at 7:30 p. m., led by Rev. J. Max Hars, D. D., of Lancaster, The chot torical sketch of the congregation co sang the beautiful anthem "How lovely are thy dwellings fair," by Spohr, at the openpiled by Rev. H. A. Brickenstein. After the inging of "I will magnify Thee" (Calkin), by the choir, Dr. Hark delivered a beautifu address. The speaker drew a parallel be old to give the metal the proper consistency for working, but which upon the breath of a ertain acid disappeared entirely, leaving the gold in all its virgin purity, and the Chrisan alloy by means of which the spiritual and moulded, but which on the last would be rolled away, leaving nothing but that which is absolutely pure and heavenly. This address was followed by beautiful solo, "My Heart Ever Faithful (Bach) by Miss Wolle, after which Rev. n, of Lebanon, made a few very intereating remarks.

Though the weather on Sunday was threat ening and there was an occasional shower of rain, yet a large number of people arrived in the morning train, and many came in con veyances from Lancaster and the surround ing country. The festivities of the day were opened by the playing of the trombone choir from the church steeple at 8:30. The festival service at 10:30 a m , was opened by the choir rendering "O Praise Him all ye Nations" (Beethoven.) Rev. E. T. Kluge of Nazareth, Pa., presched the sermon from Peter: 25, "Ye also as living stones are ouilt up a spiritual house." The areake brought forth in a most eloquent manner the on that it was not only necessary for all to be well trimmed and fitted stones in the temple of Christ, but also necessary to be living stones, well comented together through the blood of Christ, and strengthening and supporting one another.

The love feast, at 2 p. m., Rev. Chas

Nagel presiding, was opened with music by the trombone choir, followed by a pasim of praise and thanksgiving, composed by Rev C. L. Reinke, and sung, during the serving o the least, alternately by congregation and choir. This pealm was arranged especially for the occasion, the anthems by the choir being as follows: "Praise, Thanks and Adoration" (Beckler), "God of Mercy, God of (Weber), and 'Freuen und Freihlich" (Herbet). At 3:30 p. m. the holy secrament was administered to the largest congregation ever Rev. E. T. Kiuge, assisted by the Rava C. L. Reinke and Chas. Nagel. This was a most solemn and impressive occasion. The meet-ing was opened with solemn music by the hoir followed by the peculiarly mpressive Moravian communion service. The children meeting at 7:3) a. m , the last of the festival services, was indeed a great treat to all present. The anthem, "Glorious Be Thy Name" from Mozart's XII. mass, was beautifully rendered by the choir. After the reading of the scripture lessons for the day, by Rev. Chas. Nagel, the pastor introduced Bishop A. A. Reinke to the Sunday school children, who were seated in a body in the front part of the church. After a few remarks to the older part of the congregation, the bishop at once secured the attention and good will of the children by asking them to ing one of their hymns for him, which they did most heartily. In his ad iress he taught in a most beautiful manner the necessity of becoming a true "Child of God," and filustrated each point with an interesting story to fix the lesson more firmly in the minds of each one. At the conclusion of the address the children sang another beautiful hymn. The superintendent of the Sunday school Mr. N. Wolle was then called upon to make a low remarks, at the conclusion of which he took the opportunity to thank each and every one who had contributed in any manner to the suncess of the celebration.

The choir and orchestra, under the efficient leadership of Prof. S. Fred Van Vieck, amisted by Prof. A. R. Beck, deserve more than a passing word of praise for the fine rendering of all the anthems, many of which were very difficult.

Death of Sister M. Camillus Sister M. Camillus, of St. Mary's orphar saylum, died on Sunday morning at 2 o'clock after a lingering illiness, from consumption, aged about 29 years. Nearly three years ago ecessed was sent to this city from the Mother house at Mount St. Vincent, N. Y., in the hope that this climate would be beneficial to her health. For a time she did improve, bu the seeds of consumption were too deeply planted. She gradually grew weaker and had been confined to bed for the past six nonths. In the world she was a Miss Garvey, and entered the sisterhood some years ago, from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where her parents resided. The funeral will take place to morrow morning, with interment at St.

Mary's cemetery. An Artist With the Pencil. Prof. J. Aug. Beck, of Harrisburg, brother of Prof. John Beck, Littitz, took forty sketches of the Lower Susquebanna river. His pen oil was used to good effect on a waterfall in ravine near Fite's Eddy.

This morning the new Den committee met in Kepler's building for the purpose of organising. The attendance was not large.

It will be remembered that at the county convention there was a discussion over the Sporting Hill (Rsphe) district. Henry Nau-man and John Shenk, each of whom claimed to be the county committemen, had each es. The convention, after investigat ing the case, decided to recognize the Nau man delegates. This morning the question came up in the committee whether Nauman or Shenk should be recognized as the mem ber from the district. After a vote had been taken Nauman was admitted.

The committee proceeded to elect a chairman. The only candidate was John E. Malone, eeq., who has filled the position so creditable for a year past. He was re-elected unanimously. The following gentlemen were elected secretaries Henry G. Keiler, city, Isaac F. Homberger, Warwick, B. S.

The following assessments were levied upon the candidates: Commissioner, $100; auditors, $20; delegates to state convention and sheriff $10 each : all other officers on county ticked

JOHR A. MIDSTAND A CANDIDATE. He is Willing to Serve His Constitutents for Third Term in Congress.

As will be seen by the advertisement elsewhere, Hon. John A. Hiestand announces himself as a Republican candidate for renom ination for Congress. Mr. Hiestand has served one full term, has been elected to the Fiftieth Congress, and now announces his readiness to become a member of the Fiftyfirst Congress. A reporter of the INTELLI-OENCER had a chat this morning with the Commodors about his card, which has caused no little sensation among the local Republican politicians.
"The card means exactly what it says, was Mr. Hiestand's reply to an inquiry. have discovered that unfounded statement were being made in the interest of prospec tive candidates as to my position in the ma ter, and I thought it proper to let my triends know my exact status at this early date. The fact of the matter is that a new congressman don't get to know much about congressional routine until after he has served some time and I think I can make myself more useful v constituents if allowed a third term. It is believed that this news will not be appreciated by Dr J. P. Wickersham, Marriot Brosius, B. Frank Eshleman and Dr. P. J. It is probable that Congressman Hiestand has no fear of being retired at the end of his present term.

CONTACTODO DISBASES. Report of Those Affecting Cattle, Horse

Dr. S. E. Weber is about to prepare for the use of the committee on contagious disease of the United States Veterinary Medical asso cistion a report containing the statistics as nearly as they can be ascertained, of contagt. ous disease among cattle, horses, hogs and chickens in this county. The diseases are throx pleuro-paeumonia, tuberculosis, throx glanders, rabies, hog cholers and chicken cholers. Farmers, horse and cattle dealers, poultry dealers and others who may have had their stock affected by any of these diseases, or who may have knowledge of losses suffered by their neighbors, can greatly aid Dr. Weber in making his report con plete by sending him all the facts in their possession as to the number of cases of the above enumerated diseases and the number of animals or fowls lost by them. A full report of this kind would be of great value to agriculturists and stock dealers of the county.

A Successful Festival. Winfield Fcott Byerly post of the Grand Army of the Republic held a very successful festival at Quarryville on Saturday evening.
