The Correspondence of Invitations of the Collect Aug. 14.—A very unfortunate that happened on Monday evening the happened on Monday evening the happened on Monday evening the two of the Collect to John Welf, a switch-a in the cost end of the cent yards of the mylvenin relivent. At this place the inflict freight trains are run on the different than of the yard, Welf being employed to a the switches for that purpose. After the train drawn by engine No. 643, was to trusted Welf mounted the cabin car, this was started down the main track, miding on the rear steps talking to one of the train did at day the main track and when the cabin results and when the cabin results and the main track and when the cabin results the main track. He was given at the fact an examination it was found at me bones were broken, but he had resided a terrible gual in the back part of his land, which bled very profusely. He also restained a number of serious bruises about his body and right leg. Welf was afterwards and to his home on Walnut street above s body and right leg. Wolf was afterwards moved to his home on Walnut street above earth, and his condition is much improved this morning. A few years ago Wolf met with an accident on the railroad, losing his

Lest night the family of Lewis Parkes, proprietor of the Railroad hotel, were nearly inflocated by coal gas. A new stove had been purchased by Mr. Parkes and placed in position yesterday. Upon rising his morn-ing Mr. Parkes had a peculiar sensation in his head and a peculiar feeling about his stomach. He at once called his wife and had great difficulty in arousing her, who also complained of the same peculiar feeling. Dr. W. G. Taylor was sent for and when he arrived detected the fumes of coal gas. The children were in a serious condition and are restored after considerable difficulty. The Wagon Broken, Considerable damage was done to the ragon belonging to John Yeager, butcher, resterday by the running away of a colt beeging to Joseph Hinkle. The team had on driven out the Marietta pike for a load of sheep, and the colt was tied to a lead of sheep, and the colt was tied to a lence while the sheep were put in the wagon. The animal became frightened and ran in the turnpike at a rapid rate, tearing loose from the wagon. The horse was caught near Third street and was not injured.

A petition is being circulated among the miness men and others which will be prebusiness men and others which will be pre-mented to the Pennsylvania railroad company. The petition saks for the reduction of bridge tell, from Wrightsville and return to one-haif the present rate. The reduction is to apply only to people of York county who de-sire to attend the Columbia weekly markets. The petition has been signed by 10% business men and a large number of private citizens. It is believed that the reduction of the toll will increase travel and justify the same, and will also be a mutual benefit to the merchants and citizens of Columbia A New Deputy Coroner

Tom Cummings Before the Mayor. es Reilly, an old offender, was com mitted to jail for five days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct by the mayor this Thomas Cummings, the weak-minded Serus county peddler, who frequently perades our streets in a gorgeous uniform, was arrested last evening by Officer Barnhold for disorderly conduct. It appears that Tom was at the Pennsylvania railroad station last night and a number of young bloods were scope at his termentors. Instead of injuring any of them, the stone struck George W. Huffnegle, the night baggage master. Officer Barnhold happened along at this time, arrested Tom and took him to the station house. This morning he was arraigned before the mayor and his honor dis-charged Tom and advised him to stay out of city, at the same remarking that the officer should have arrested the young men who were tessing him. Tom said he would leave the city at once, that he had no businot entitled to protection, but was a taxpayer in Berks county. Going South by Wheel, G. W. and D. R. Barlow, two young men of Mahanoy City, arrived in town last evening

He Never Shirked. In his talks on the recent encampment of the National Guards at Mt. Gretna, "By-The discipline of the City Troop I can best illustrate by what I saw of B. Frank Eshleman, of Lancaster, who is a private in the Troop. A few years ago he was a lieutenant-colonel on Governor Hoyt's staff. Some of those who were then his comrades are now on Governor Beaver's staff; Surgeon-General Reed, who is justly proud of enjoying the exceptional but deserved honor of having been in commission in his present position for fifteen consecutive years ; Colo net North and Colonel Green and perhaps some others. Twice or thrice during the week Private Eshieman, with three other Troopers, was ordered to report for duty se an orderly at division headquarters. Gallantly and strictly did he perform his duty. It meant that with a salute he to report to his old friend North for duty; it meant that he could not join his many friends who were scated n front of the governor's headquarters chatting merrily; it meant that he had to act as measenger from division headquarters to all parts of the camp : it meant that he had to distribut he daily mail among the colonels, lieutenan colonels and majors of the governor's and najor general's staffs; it meant, in fact, that be was a mounted servant at division bead-

On Sunday evening as E. T. Ferguson, o Little Britain, was driving with his wife and two children on a visit to his father-in-law, he had a frightful runaway. His borse, a young one, became fractious and on pulling him up the bit broke, and immediately the horse dashed away. Mr. Ferguson sprang from the carriage to try to stop him, but was thrown to the ground, and the horse went on at the top of his speed with his wife and two children in the carriage. The horse made a turn at one corner of the road, but in turning at another corner he ran against the fence, tearing off two wheels from the car-riage, but still dashed on. At the residence of Wm. Hart, Jacob Shade, of Oakshade, saw him coming and just had time to spring into the road when he came up. He sprang for his head and succeeded in getting a firm grip on his nose, and though jerked from his feet and carried some distance, he held on manually and finally succeeded in throwing the horse and rescuing Mrs. Ferguson The carriage was badly wrecked, but Mr. Ferguson is very thankful that his family was rescued in so timely a manner.

Drawers at 25c. Remnant Sale

J. B. MARTIN & CO.'8.

You can imagine how many Remnants of Dry Goods and Odds and Ends of Notions, etc., collect in a store of this kind during the busy season. No time then to get them into shape, plenty of them now. All Remnants, Odds and Ends and goods soiled in display window and store have been collected together, assorted, marked, on separate counters, and are now ready for sale.

Linens, Towels, Napkins, Toweling, Furniture Linens, Stair Linens, etc., are on the Linen Counter. Remnant Silks, Satins, Velvets, Surah Silks, Woolens and Tricots are on the Dress Goods Counter. Curtain Scrims, Curtain Laces, Chenille Fringes, Chenille Balls, Raw Silks, Jutes, Gimps, etc., in Upholstery Department. Fiannels, Ginghams, Sheetings, Pfilow Case Muslins, Calicoes, Sheetings, Percales, etc., on the Domestic Counter. Laces, Ladies' Collars, Embroideries, Ruchings, Handkerchiefs, Underwear, Ribbons, etc., in Notion Department. Shirts, Collars, Hosiery, Flannel Shirts, Percale Shirts, etc., on the Gent's Furnishing Counter. One counter holds the Dress Patterns containing 10 to 12 yards in each pattern, consisting of Sateens, Seersuckers, Dress Ginghams, Batistes and Woolen Fabrics.

So much for the description of the goods. Now for the prices. Impossible to give you a complete price list, but we will quote a few picked out of the many. About 25 dozen Men's and Boys' Linen Collars at 3c. apiece ; were 20c. and 25c. Any quality of Towels. slightly soiled; about 10 doz. of one number, all linen. Barnsley Towels, size 22 by 42 inches, for 11c. apiece. One lot of White Shirts, reinforced bosom, at 31c.; were 50c. Remnants of Sections, 5c. up. Crazy Crepe, 7c., etc.
