THE OLD TRAMP PRINTER

Here's a rhyme to the old tramp printer that as long as he lives will roam,
Whose "beard" is his principal treasure, and where night overtakes him, home;
Whose shoes are run over and twisty, whose garments are shiny and thin,
And who takes a bunk in the basement when the pressman lets him in.

It is true there are some of the trampers that only the Angel of Death,
When he touches them with his sickle, can cure of the "spirituous breath;"
And that some by their fellow trampers are shunned as unwholesome scamps;
And that some are just aimless, homeless, restless typographical tramps.

But the most of them surely are worthy of something akin to praise,
And have drifted down to the present out of wholesomer, happier days;
And where (though his looks be as seedy as ever a mortal wore)
Will you find the old tramper minus his marvelous funds of lore?

What paper hasn't he worked on? Whose manuscript hasn't he set?
What story worthy remembrance was he ever known to forget?
What topics rise for discussion in letters, science or art
That the genuine old tramp printer cannot grapple and play his part?

It is true you will sometimes see him when the hue that adorns his nose
Outrivals the crimson flushes that the peony flaunts at the rose;
It is true that much grime he gathers in the course of each trip he takes,
Inasmuch as he boards all freight trains between the gulf and the lakes.

Yet his knowledge grows more abundant than many much-titled men
Who travel as scholarly tourists and are classed with the upper ten;
And few are the contributions these scholarly ones have penned
That the seediest, shabbiest tramper could not readily cut and mend.

He has little in life to bind him in one place more than the rest,
And his hopes in the past lie buried with the ones that he loved the best;
He has little to hope from Fortune and has little to fear from Fate,
And little his dreams are troubled over the public's love or hate.

So a rhyme to the old tramp printers—to the hopes they have cherished and wept—
To the loves and the old home voices that still in their hearts are kept;
A rhyme to the old tramp printers whose garments are shiny and thin,
And who take a bunk in the basement when the pressman lets them in.

Trouble in the Chautauqua Camp.

The fight between the Chautauqua Assembly management and the cottage owners at Chautauqua, New York, reached a climax on Saturday in the arrest of President Lewis Miller and Policemen Taylor and Bemus, charged by A. C. Wade, attorney for the cottagers, with false imprisonment. Wade claims $10,000 damages. Bail was fixed at $3,000 each. There has been growing dissatisfaction with the management among the cottagers for some time. Dr. Vincent announced from the Chautauqua platform on Saturday night that, unless the cottage owners stopped the row at once, no programme would be issued for next year, and that the Assembly gates would not be open during 1888.

An Eleven Year-Old Murderer.

Saturday evening in Lebanon, H. Boeshore, aged 11 years, deliberately and without cause shot Jimmy Wilson, aged five years, causing his death Sunday morning. Boeshore says he didn't know his revolver was loaded. The boys were playing and the affair happened on the street.

STIMULATE THE BLOOD.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative sudorific and diuretic medicine. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prove an infallible remedy.

A Healthy Stomach

Is a blessing for which thousands of our dyspeptic countrymen and women sigh in vain, and to obtain which swallow much medicine unavailingly. For no ailment—probably—are there so many alleged remedies as for dyspepsia. The man of humbug is constantly glutted with the dollars and dimes of those who resort to one nostrum after another in the vain hope of obtaining relief, at least, from this vexatious and obstinate malady. Experience indicates Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a means of eradicating dyspepsia, in which a firm reliance can be placed. No remedy has in three decades and over, established such a reputation; none has received such unqualified professional sanction. It is an admirable invigorant, because it enriches the blood, and not only this, but it thoroughly regulates the bowels, kidneys and bladder. The nervous symptoms are usually relieved by the medicine.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Sowing Wild Oats.

How many waste their time and resources in fooli-h experiments, with nasty and worthless medicines that can never do them a whit of good. If you are sick and want help get a reputable remedy of established merit. The curative virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters have never been questioned. For an enfeebled circulation or a weak stomach they are splendid. For sale by H B Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it, twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and earache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eclectric Oil." Dr. E F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

What We Can Cure. Let's Not Endure.

If we can cure an ache, or a sprain, or a pain, or a lameness, or a burn, or a bite, by using Thomas' Eclectric Oil, let's do it. "Thomas' Eclectric Oil" is known to be good. Let's try it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North queen street, Lancaster.

A Rope About Our Neck.

A weak stomach or enfeebled circulation is like a rope about our necks. We are strung up and unstrung alternately till existence becomes unbearable. Burdock Blood Bitters will arrest all this misery. "Burdock Blood Bitters" are a boon to the sick. Let us remember this fact. For sale by H B Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Glad to Hear It.

"For several months I endured a dull pain through my lungs and shoulders; lost my spirits appetite and color, and could with difficulty remain from my bed. My present healthful condition is due to Burdock Blood Bitters." Mrs. E. A. Hall, Binghamton, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Mr. George Dodge Speaks.

This gentleman lives in Emporium, Pa., and says, "One of my men, Sam. Lewis, while working in the woods sprained his ankle so bad he could hardly hobble to the house. Used Thomas' Eclectric Oil and was ready for work the next morning. I have never yet seen so good a medicine." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Hay Fever.

I have suffered greatly from periodical returns of hay fever. At the suggestion of Covert & Chesver, druggists, I obtained Ely's Cream Balm, and used a portion of it during a severe attack. I can cheerfully testify as to the immediate and continued relief obtained by its use. I have fully recommended it to those suffering from this or kindred complaints.—(Rev.) H. A. MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

ALL WE ASK

Of any one suffering from scrofula, salt rheum, dyspepsia, headache, kidney and liver complaints, that tired feeling, or any disease caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, is that you give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial. We are confident that the medicinal value of this peculiar preparation will soon make itself felt through the system in restoring health, strength and energy. Do not take other articles claimed to be "just as good," but be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"My wife had Dyspepsia. She could not keep her food down, and had that oppressed feeling after eating. She had no appetite, and was tired all the time. She tried numerous medicines without being relieved, but the first bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla did her a great deal of good. She has now taken two bottles, and can eat anything she wants without having that distress, and has no trouble in retaining her food." JOHN BATTENFIELD, Marion, Ohio.

Build Up the System

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me an immense amount of good. My whole system has been built up and strengthened, my digestion improved, my head relieved of the severe irritation. I consider it the best medicine I have ever used, and am glad to speak in its praise." MARY L. PIERCE, 22 Turner street, Salem, Mass.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC.

S. S. S.

The Theatrical Profession.

Merit will win and receive public recognition and praise. Facts, which are the outcome of general experience, growing through years of critical and practical test, become as rooted and immovable as the rock of Gibraltar in public opinion, and henceforth need no further guarantee as to their genuineness. The indisputable fact that Swift's Specific is the best blood purifier in the world, is one of these immovable Gibraltar facts of which we have spoken, and every day's experience roots this conviction deeper and deeper in public opinion. Every class of our people in America and in Europe, every trade, calling and profession, including the medical profession, have borne voluntary testimony to the remarkable virtues of S. S. S. and its infallible efficacy in curing all diseases of the blood. These testimonials are on file by the thousand, and open to the inspection of all. Now come, unsolicited, two distinguished members of the theatrical profession, who gratefully testify to the wonderful curative qualities of the Specific in their individual cases. Their testimonials are herewith submitted to the public without further comment—let them speak for themselves. The lady is a member of the famous Thalia Theatre Company, of New York, and formerly of the Residence Theatre, Berlin, Germany, and of McVicker's Stock Company, of Chicago. The gentleman is a well known member of the New York Thalia Theatre Company. Both are well known in theatrical circles in this country and in Europe.

Charlotte Randow's Testimony.

NEW YORK, May 3, 1887.

Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.:

Gentlemen—Having been annoyed with pimples, eruptions and roughness of the skin, from bad condition of my blood, for more than a year, I used a leading preparation of sarsaparilla and other advertised remedies to no effect. Then I consulted a prominent physician, and from his treatment received no benefit. I then concluded to try the S. S. S. remedy for the blood, and five or six bottles, by a thorough eradication of my trouble and restoring smoothness to my skin, have made me happy, and I cheerfully give you this testimonial for such use and publicity as you wish to make of it.

CHARLOTTE RANDOW,
452 Bowery, near Canal street.

Hugo Hasskerl's Testimony.

The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.:

Gentlemen—For two years I had a severe case of eczema. I used tar soaps, sulphur soaps, and various other remedies, and was prescribed for by numbers of physicians, but found no relief. At last I determined to try the S. S. S. remedy, and seven or eight bottles have thoroughly relieved me, and you can use this certificate in any manner you wish.

MT. GRETNA PARK

—FOR—

EXCURSIONS AND PICNICS.

This Park is located in the heart of the Mountains on the line of the

Cornwall & Lebanon Railroad,

FREE TO ALL.

THE CONVENIENCES ARE

A LARGE DANCING PAVILION,
A SPACIOUS DINING HALL,
TWO KITCHENS,
BAGGAGE AND COAT ROOM,

While the arrangements for amusement consist of

CROQUET and BALL GROUNDS,
BOWLING ALLEY,
SHOOTING GALLERY,
QUOITS, &c., &c., &c.

Tables for Luncheon, Rustic Seats and Benches are scattered throughout the grounds. A new attraction is covering nearly twenty acres, on which are placed a number of elegant New Boats, and along the banks of which are pleasant walks and lovely scenery.

LAKE CONEWAGO,

Observation Cars

will be run on the line of the Cornwall & Lebanon Railroad, or will be sent to different points, when practicable, for the accommodation of excursion parties. These summer excursion cars have been built especially for this purpose, and are so constructed that they will enable the excursionist to enjoy fully the beautiful scenery of the Lebanon Valley on the one side or the Conewago Valley on the other. They are safe, pleasant and convenient.

Parties desiring it can procure Meals at the Park, as the Dining Hall will be under the supervision of H. M. BOLTZ, of the Lebanon Valley House. Those who wish to spend A DAY IN THE MOUNTAINS can find no place so beautiful or affording so much pleasure as MOUNT GRETNA.

No Intoxicating Drinks Allowed on the Premises.

☞ For excursion rates and general information apply to

New Spring Neckties

AT ERISMAN'S.

There is no garment considering the fit to which a man is more particular than a shirt. Shirt Cutting is a Fine Art. To fit a man into a shirt must be cut with the proper position for the various parts of the body. Our shirt-makers have had us entrusted with their goods, but wishing to have the satisfaction of handling, best material and best workmanship, we claim to have the best
