The license is for the " mle " of liquor in quantities not exceeding one quart.' The interesting question is what is a sale"! and to avoid trouble, our been frinking friends, who want more than t quart, will need to be careful to have a bill made of each quartette of glasses purbased ; and to go out of the saloon before stract a fresh one. Maybe they son thus get ahead of the court.

Tariff Declarations.

The Ohio declaration upon the tariff and al revenue questions is a very good and will have the great recomme on to the Allentown convention of being an expression of the Democracy of a neighog state; and likewise an expression of the president. It is a simple and plain ration, which demands that the needed duction in the revenue shall be made sh a reduction of the tariff and interal revenue, but denounces the abolition of the tax on liquors for the sake of saving the present duties on imports.

The Chicago declaration of 1884 is a very good one also and the Allentown contion may be content to repeat it, with such supplementary declaration as is demanded by the changed condition of the ional treasury, which calls for a large duction of the revenue. Since the Chigo convention made its resolution, the on has been agitated as to whether seded reduction of the revenue shall set be made by the abolition of the internal time of the Chicago declaration, as ident Cleveland said in his letter of resident Cleveland said in his letter of continuous, that "it needed no supplement regularation," It is not so now; and especially is it incumbent on a Pennsylvania benegratic convention to make a declaration upon the question of the abolition of the laboration revenue taxes since it was Marchael revenue taxes since nal revenue taxes, since it was Mr. sall and the majority of its dele Congress who pronounced this heresy hat the great majority of the Democratic approximatives in Congress favored. The Philadelphia Times is urgent that a Allestown convention shall commit test to no further declaration upon the self and internal revenue taxation than Chicago convention did; but it is not this for the Alientown convention to over his price of the Allentown convention to iron away from its responsibilities. It Judge Boyen's grave in Norristown, was notable because all new earth was concealed from view, and the grave was embowered in trailing vines complessly concealing its earth sides, leaving the impression, as the casket was lowered to its resting place, that the department of the Demogratic representatives in the unity, in establishing a late unity, in establishing a late unity, in establishing a late that it needs now a support of the Demogratic from an authority in instructive congruence. nission of the duty on liquors, save on alcohol used in medicine and the arts." Or, it may reaffirm the Chicago declaration, adding its opposition to the reducmy whether or no it approves the action of its congressmen upon the issue, at the last session of Congress.

They Are Uneany.

It seems that the Republican leaders are very uneasy over the position in which their party is placed by the failure of the evenue bill, which was so mysteriously laughtered after it had passed both houses The delegates to the Republican convention are said to have impressed Beaver with the conviction that an extra session will be needed to repair the effects of the blunder, that is believed to have been a crime, which killed the bill that would have given this year, according to Auditor General Norris' estimate, $1,164,500 to the several county treasureis in the common wealth. Mr. Quay is reported to have stopped at Cresson on his way home, to hurry up the revenue commission in its work, that the governor may have an early opportunity of calling an extra session to

An extra session will not help him in this ampaign unless he gets it very soon, because the people are not going to believe in the sincerity of the Republican desire for a new revenue bill that will make the corporations pay more heavily than they do, until they see the bill passed and signed. There are wonderful slips between Republican promise and performance.

MR. POWDERLY desires to have it known that he is in no way connected with the American party, which is to be organized in Philadelphia next month, and whose principal object is to keep foreigners out of the country. This action is very sagretous. The vigorous labor leader in explaining his post tion, says : " While I am an American I am sted in reviving 'purely American ideas,' I am not anxious to see the tom hawk and scalping knife flourish again in this country. I have no desire to rekindle the camp fires of the purely Americans, nor do I wish to see the re-establishment of the ducking pond or the burning of witches, I am content to devote my time to the revival of an interest in the Declaration of American Independence and the re-establishment o the rule of American people, independent of party or monopoly. I am of the opinion that I can work out these ends as a member of the Knights of Labor."

THE Prohibitionists will not carry bottles to Harriaburg, but they will unbottle much eloquence of a Jersey lightning description.

GOV. BEAVER deserves credit for respiting ohnson, the convicted murderer of Sharp less, under the testimony creating a doubt as to his guilt. Probably he is guilty; but he should be clearly proved so before he is hung. It is too much the fashion nowadays to hang on suspicion. Such imitation of lynch law is unworthy of the administration of justice.

REAR ADMIRAL CRAVEN, United State navy (retired), of Washington, died at the navy (retired), of Washington, died at the Charleston navy yard, near Boston, Tuesday of heart disease. He was on a visit to his son, who is attached to this yard as a civil engineer. He was about 80 years old. EDWIN ARNOLD, author of "The Light of EDWIN ARROLD, author of "The Light of Asis," heard an American regretfully say: "I've seen 'The Light of Asis' sold for five cauta, and I knew you would never have sixpence for any of the thousands that were sold of it. I resent it for you." "On no," said Mr. Arnold. "Don't resent it. I know what a five-cent edition means, and I dearly love to be five-cented!"

Roswell Beardsley, of North Lansing, New York state, has been a fourth-class post-master for a longer period than any other postmesters who received their commissions fity years ago, but Mr. Beardsley's appointment dates back to June 28, 1828, which was over fity nine years ago. He was commissioned when John Molane, of Ohio, was postmaster general.

if a bank officer wants to put a large amount of money into his pockets before leaving the bank in the evening, take the night train for Montreal and appear there sent morning insteading at his deak, there is nothing in the banking system of to-day to prevent him from doing en. In Canada the fugitive is beyond the resolo of our criminal law. Hence the only baleguard which banks have against being plundered is the honesty of those in whom they put trust. The Three Congressional Candidates, from the Philadelphia Times. Jolly Jack Hiestand would get away with Broaius and his sentimental politics without half trying unless some machine demi-semiquaver knocked the pine out from Jack footing by a popular revoit; but Eahleman is no more sentimental in politics than is Hiestand and no less up in all the ways and methods by which nominations are best attrined. The machine tomfoolery that knocked Landis off the state committee is just the sort of blunder that may bounce Hiestand and fling Brosius on top; but the machine has craw fished on itself by opening the door for Landis to get on the state committee and that is bad for Brosius. Eahleman's canditacy against Hiestand means all day and straight along solid business in the contest, and he will have the enthusiasm of the boys to help him along, while his admitted ability and good party standing will hold a good hand with the steady elements of the Old Guard. ting by a popular revolt ; but Eshleman is What le a Boy ?

Joe Howard, What is a boy ? Well, that depends who is called on to make the definition. There are little boys, big boys, old boys. I met a man this morn big boys, old boys. I met a man this morning whom I haven't seen in twenty-five years. Then he was a stripling; now he is a portly, not to say pudgy, middle-aged man. After a few moments' personal conversation he asked me: "Have you seen any of the boys lately?" referring to men of affairs, merchants, lawyers, priests, who twenty-five years ago were youths.

On one cocasion many years ago I met a distinguished preacher who asked me if my mother and father were to be at home in the evening. I replied that I thought they would be, to which he rejoined: "Tell them I will come around and bring the boys after dinner."

Sure enough after dinner he came and with him were his four brothers neither of them under 60 and one considerably over
