...Damage by the Rain Storm.

A very heavy rain storm passed over ... town last night, commencing about ... o'clock and lasting for over an hour. The lightning was very sharp and the rain fell in torrents, and was the heaviest storm that has visited this section for many years. At times the lightning was very vivid, and the electric lights were put out. The rain has caused considerable damage, and its effects can be seen in every street. The earth has been washed from the streets, leaving the large stones exposed. In front of the property of F. A. Bennett, on Walnut street, below Third, the gutter and pavement have been washed out to the depth of about five feet and nearly ten feet in length. Across the street, in front of Jesse Wolfe's house, the walnut is nearly as bad and the bricks, etc., carried down the street. In front of the Fremont house several washouts have occurred, the pavement being badly torn up. The greatest damage caused by the rain has been at Ailey E. and Second street. A large soils pipe which has been put along the alley from Second to Third streets to carry off the water from the latter above Third street. There has been no provision for the water draining from the fields of the Heise estate, and the water formed into a big pond, at some places being 15 feet deep. The water went through the foundation walls of the houses along North Second street, doing considerable damage. In the house occupied by C. W. Bartley the water was within two feet of the joists. His coal pile has been covered with yellow mud, the cupboards, etc., have been overturned, and the place presents an awful appearance. A. J. Meisling lives in the adjoining house, and the water was four feet deep in his cellar. Several wagon loads of wood is scattered in all directions, and six bushels of potatoes were covered with water. In other houses the water also entered the cellars, but the damage was not as bad as in the houses nearer the alley. The borough had men working at this place this morning trying to repair the damage. The Pennsylvania railroad company had placed a new pavement on North Second street, near the stove works, but the damage has been so great that the pavement will have to be re laid. Fifth street has suffered in a considerable manner, and a large washout has been caused on Perry street. The storm was very severe at the Columbia rolling mill, a pile of pig iron being struck by lightning. The men had to stop work while the storm lasted. Tools were knocked from the hands of the puddlers and heaters, and several were thrown to the ground. A puddler named James Cavanaugh was thrown with such force that he was insensible for nearly five minutes.

Lightning struck the telephone in the dispatcher's office of the east yards of the Pennsylvania railroad last night. The instrument is unfit for use.

A Brakeman Injured.

Boyd H. Anschua, brakeman on train No. 60, of the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad, was coupling cars in the west yards at 5:30 this morning, when he was caught between the dead-woods and badly squeezed. He was sent to his home at Wrightsville.

Thomas Gucker and party of the Pennsylvania railroad, were in town yesterday.

Six carloads of people from Oxford passed through town this morning on an excursion to Gettysburg.

Council will meet in adjourned session to-night.

The funeral of the late J. Clayton Landis was held on Tuesday afternoon.

C. C. Kauffman, esq., has the Rohrerstown rolling mill for sale.

The Shawnee fire company will not hold their picnic in Heise's woods on Saturday. No beer can be sold under the new license law.

A horse belonging to Weaver & Brother ran away yesterday afternoon on Fourth street. The wagon was completely demolished by striking against a telephone pole.

A horse belonging to Samuel Campbell was going along the Washington turnpike yesterday afternoon and became frightened at a passing engine. The wagon had one wheel torn off, but the driver escaped uninjured.

Captain F. A. Bennett has received the pay roll of Company C for their services at the encampment at Mount Gretna. The pay roll amounts to $800 48 and the members will receive the amounts due them at the armory on Thursday evening.

An Excursion From Quarryville to Penryn.

The Helicon band, of Quarryville, ran an excursion to Penryn to day, but owing to the unpleasant weather the number of persons that went upon it was not as large as it otherwise would have been; as it was, the crowd numbered about 300. The train carrying the party did not reach the King street station until half past nine o'clock, owing to the damage on the railroad, so the excursionists did not have a full day at the park.

Preached a Sermon.

From the Reading Eagle.

Rev. Geo. S. Gearan, of Lancaster, preached a visiting sermon for the Lutheran congregation of the St. Michael's church, at Bern, this county. The attendance was large and the sermon was highly appreciated. Mr. Gearan was a graduate of Muhlenberg college. He was born and raised in Upper Bern, and is a true type of northern Berks' ...

THE LAW OF CAMPMEETINGS.

The Question of Allowing Hucksters to Sell Their Merchandise.

An esteemed correspondent at Lincoln asks this small boon: "Please print in today's paper the law relating to campmeeting, whether hucksters are allowed or not."

In reply we furnish these sections from Purdon's digest under the head of "Religious Societies." They are from the act of May 8, 1878:

SECTION 16.—It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to erect, place or have any booth, stall, tent, shed, carriage, boat or vessel, or any other place or vehicle whatever, for the purpose or use of selling, giving or otherwise disposing of all or any kinds of articles of traffic or merchandise (except as hereinafter excepted), within one mile of any campmeeting held for religious worship in this commonwealth.

SECTION 17.—Any person or persons violating the provisions of the first section of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or an imprisonment of not more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SECTION 18.—Nothing in this act shall be taken or construed so as to affect any licensed tavern or hotel-keeper, merchant, mechanic, farmer or shop keeper, in his, her or their lawful or ordinary business, at his, her or their usual place of business or residence, nor of any person or persons who shall have procured a permit in writing from the trustees or managers having the charge or management of such campmeeting, specifying the name of the party to whom issued and the kind of articles to be offered for sale, and the rules and regulations of such trustees or managers; provided, that any farmer living within one mile of any such campmeeting shall have the privileges of disposing, on his premises, of his own products or vegetables, without such permit.

Baltimore Joe Gets 90 Days

Joe Haley, better known as Baltimore Joe, whose arrest was noted on Tuesday, was taken before the mayor for a hearing this morning. Joe's story was that he was hired to take a car load of horses to New York today and the stablemen induced him to drink some alcohol and soon afterwards he became unconscious. He pleaded hard for his liberty, and promised to leave the city at once, but the mayor said he had heard that story too often. Joe's sentence was 90 days in the workhouse, where he can earn his board by breaking stone.

A second drunk, the son of a respectable citizen of Mt. Joy, was discharged with a reprimand, it being his first appearance.

A sick traveler was sent to the hospital.

Buried in Reading.

The remains of the late William J. Brandt, senior member of the firm of Brandt & Co., ... street, were interred from ... residence in Reading at 10:30 a. m., on Tuesday. They were attired in a handsome ... and were encased in an elegant walnut ... with silver mounting and ... lid inscribed, "Rest in peace." The floral tributes were very elegant, and included a handsome wreath by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin G. Boas; a handsome wheel, inscribed "Father," and a beautiful pillow of natural flowers inscribed "Father," by the children of the deceased. Rev. J. B. Sabey, of Immanuel Evangelical church, conducted services at the house, and interment was at Charles Evans cemetery.

He Is Off His Base.

A man who is said to be a drummer and seems to be suffering from the "monkeys" or something else, furnished considerable fun for the small boys in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania railroad to-day. He umpired several imaginary games of base ball, fought imaginary prize fights and acted two ... besides shying at monkeys and ... which he thought were ... vent him from being ... A friend finally took him to a hotel.

...r Trade Dollars.

There appears to be some misunderstanding as to the ... tion of trade dollars. The ... anks are that Saturday ... last day on which the government will receive them. At the Farmers' and some of the other local banks trade dollars will be received until the close of business on Thursday September 1. That will give them time to forward them to the treasury department for redemption before the close of business on September 3d.

Arrested in Richmond, Va.

Chief of Police Smith left for Richmond, Virginia, at 1 o'clock this morning, to bring back G. J. H. Weller, who is wanted here to answer a charge of larceny. Weller was in the music business in this city when he was prosecuted for the larceny of a music box. Kirk Johnson became his security for trial at court, but before court Weller skipped out. Having learned that he was in Richmond, Mr. Johnson caused his arrest. Chief Smith is expected home to-morrow.

Sold By the Sheriff

The sheriff this morning began the sale of the stock of Wm. B. Heleine, the North Queen street grocer, against whom execution was issued some days ago.

An immense exhibit of live stock, far exceeding that of any previous year, is already assured as in addition to the 150 stalls on the fair grounds the management have already built 140 extra stalls, and were obliged this morning to refuse an exhibit of 25 head from Lehigh county for want of space to hold more stalls. The entries for implements are coming in rapidly, the last being A. S. Farquhar, of York.
