There will be no factional fight at Allentown; but there will be a most earnest and vigorous endorsement of the president.

but in case of failure in the performance of duty to the company, or in the event of the loss of company property, the offender is very easily found and punished.

The people are getting very tired of this sort of thing and patience in this case is not a virtue.

A Partisan Order. A certain element in the Grand Army seems intent upon demonstrating that it is a political organization.

No doubt it is trying to the constitution of an ardent Republican to behave respectfully to a Democratic president of the United States, but this may be demanded from him as a member of a non-partisan organization...

There are 4,000,000 farmers in the United States, and the world would be in a sorry way if they all struck for higher wages.
