AGRICULTURE

Several weeks ago Henry Taylor, a son of Edward Taylor, colored, ran away from home and his whereabouts has not been learned. The boy is about sixteen years of age, well built and of a light brown color. He has a scar above his right eye caused by a burn. When he left home he wore a light flannel shirt and a pair of dark trousers. The only cause for leaving was a threat of a whipping made by the father. His parents are very much worried about the whereabouts of their son.

Harvest Home Services were held on Sunday in the Trinity Reformed church, which were well attended. The church was handsomely decorated with fruits and flowers, and two eloquent sermons delivered by Rev. Pannebocker.

Rev. C. D. Ristel, of the Church of God, delivered a temperance sermon last night to a large congregation. His subject was "The Bottle and the Home," and was illustrated by light scenes with a teetotal. The influence of the bottle in the family circle was shown in a very good manner.

The census enumerators, Messrs. Slade and Rhodes, commenced work this morning in taking the census of the borough. The Columbia Rod and Gun club will leave on Tuesday morning for a camp of ten days in Union county.

A large audience witnessed "Our Jonathan" in the opera house last Saturday evening, by the Moore & Vivian company. The acting was greeted with roars of laughter from the beginning to the end of the play. The funeral of the late David F. Fisher will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, services to be held in the Trinity Reformed church.

JOHN HOOPER'S HORSE-STEALING. He and his brother George Took a Big Drive With a Farmer's Team. It will be remembered by the readers of the Intelligencer that the late John Hoover, a boy about 13 years old, of this city, has been arrested for stealing horses. Once he took a team from the Berri Hotel and after driving all around town, and hauling people to a picnic at Rocky Spring, he was taken to the police in his possession. The next time he took a horse and phaeton from the Franklin home and was arrested with them.

Complaint has been made against the two boys charging them with horse-stealing before Alderman Barr, and it is not likely that they will get bail, as they seem to be too fond of this kind of amusement. This is the first case of the kind for some time. The relative and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from his late residence (his son James Montgomery, at Mountainville) services at the house on Wednesday, August 17th, at 10 o'clock, at the church, Mount Joy, at 1 p. m. in the morning.

The bookellers and publishers to whom were awarded the contracts for furnishing books and stationery for the Lancaster school district have delivered thousands of volumes of school books at the high school building on West Orange street. City Superintendent Bechtel and a corps of school boys have been busily engaged for several days past in unpacking, stamping, and shelving the books, as they are received. Two large closets, one on either side of the superintendent's room, have been lined with double rows of books, and his business office is piled full of books, slates, &c., not yet arranged. Before the books are shelved each volume is stamped at page 25 with the words: "The property of the Lancaster School Board." The school yard, and the street in front of it, are lined with boxes, and the building itself looks more like a wholesale book store than a school house.

Miss Beatie King, who had been the guest of Mrs. J. C. Dewiler, in Harrisburg, has returned to her home in Lancaster. Miss E. L. B. Dewiler is visiting at E. B. Brady and family, in Harrisburg. Miss Maggie Dillow left Reading on a 30-day's visit to this city, from whence she will go to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Mrs. Charles Basing and children, of Reading, are visiting relatives at Mountainville. J. Frank Bush, editor of the Little Record, spent Sunday and to day at Atlantic City. Mrs. William Bester, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting friends in this city.

They Won't Go Together. This is the season for the men with the straw hat and overcoat. Quite a number with these very opposite articles of attire on their heads and feet were seen on the streets last night. Several were chased by the police but they were left upon promising to leave town or change their style of dress.

GENERAL NEWS

The funeral of Rev. Christian Rupp, a bishop of the Dunkard church, took place from his late residence near Karrisville Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, and was attended by a great concourse of neighbors. There were over 400 carriages on the grounds, and many neighbors stood about. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Jacob Hackman, who was assisted by Rev. John Grubill, Rev. Hershey Groat and Rev. Snyder. The interment was made in the Rupp burying ground, not far from the residence of deceased, where have been buried several generations of the Rupp family.

Rev. Rupp was over 81 years old and had been in the ministry nearly half a century. He was a most exemplary Christian, an able expounder of the gospel and was beloved by all who knew him. After the funeral, as is the custom with the Dunkards and other German religious sects, the friends of the family, to the family mansion and partook of a funeral feast which lasted for several hours.

The funeral of Jacob Spangler, of Ephrata, was also largely attended. The services were held at the U. B. church, and the interment was made at Bowman's burying ground.

The First Pennsylvania Reserve. The recruiting sergeant named Otto, residing next this afternoon in this city and effected a permanent organization, by the election of the following named officers: President, ex-Mayor Wm. D. Stauffer; vice president, Capt. J. R. Dobson and David Litgow; treasurer, Lewis S. Hartman; secretary, Lewis A. Hanch.

A committee was appointed from the different companies throughout the state to perfect arrangements for a reunion at Lancaster this fall, and to select a site for the memorial stone at Gettysburg.

A Boy Kilt a Horse. A horrible tale of youthful depravity and cruelty to animals comes from the Eighth ward. A boy named Otto, residing on Dorward street, who is but thirteen years of age, was playing around the stable of Abraham Speddie, on Carolina street. In the stable was a very valuable horse belonging to Mr. Speddie. For some unaccountable reason, the boy was provoked and he picked up a rake and plunged the handle into the anus of the horse to the depth of all most two feet. The poor animal lingered until evening, when it died in terrible agony. The horse was valued at over $200, and was sold to the butcher for a few dollars. The boy caused his death will be proceeded against criminally.

From "Way Down in Dixie." William Beckler, a graduate of the Intelligencer job room, but now connected with the Savannah Morning News, is in this city, having come here from Christmas, where he has been visiting his mother and old acquaintances. Billy Beckler, who was North and after the constitution was adopted, this being his first trip since he left here in 1855 he is looking very well and reports very favorably for Cleveland in the state whose motto is "Wisdom, Justice and Moderation," notwithstanding Forsaker's horrid nightmarish.

First services as Registrar Pastor. Rev. J. W. Meninger preached his first regular sermon in St. Paul's Reformed church on Sunday afternoon. The sermon was last night delivered. The sermon was from Acts x. 29. In the evening the sermon was from the 21st, 22d and 23d verses of the 2d chapter of Corinthians. Both services were crowded.

A Fine Line of Advertising and Opening Cards. Just received, at the INTELLIGENCER, a fine line of Advertising and Opening Cards. They are the handsomest and cheapest in the city. Call and see them.
