FREIZ PRESS" PUBLISHING CORPANY

Purchase of Lancaster's German Daily and Weekly by a New Organization. Mr. J.H. Schneider, editor and proprietor of the German dally, the Lancaster Freie Presse, and the German weeklies, Die Laterne, and Sountags Journal, has sold all his right, title and in-terest in these publications to the Freie Presse Publishing company of Lancaster, Pa. The new management of these sterling German newspapers purpose to conduct them as especial exponents of the progressive German citizenship that abounds in Lancaster city, county and vi-cinity, and they hope to still further extend throughout the state the new well estab-lished repute of these journals. Mr. George Rohr will be the managing editor under the new arrangement. He has been for many years identified with these journals, and his more important connection with them now gives assurance that they will be conducted with an eye single to the Ger man interests of this locality.

Mr. Schneider has not determined upon his plans for the future. In a short time ha will depart for Fiorida to remain there until May.

WANTED TO TAKE HIS LIPE. James M. Ritchie Quarrels With His Wife and

Saturday evening James M. Ritchle, who esides at Beaver and Hager streets, atempted to commit suicide. It seems that he and his wife have been quarrelling of late and on Saturday they had words be-cause she desired to go to Columbis. He opposed her going, but she went just the ne. He went on a spree and when his wife returned in the evening they had row - James procured a razer, which he brow around carlessly and told his wife that he intended to use it to cut his throat. She was so slarmed that she called in the neighbors and they succeeded in getting the weapon away from him. He then disappeared from the house and as he did not eturn for a time search was made for him. He was found lying on the track of the Quarryville railroad, near the dye house, with his head on the rail. He refused to get up and police were sent for. Officers Shertz and Reilly went to the place and they had a big job with him. His hands were almost frozen to the cold rail and he refused to let go, saying that he wanted to be killed. The 8:20 train was almost due and the officers at last succeeded in getting him loose just in time to prevent his death. The officers carried him home and after he thawed out and sobered up he was not so anxicus to be killed.

Mary, daughter of George H. Darmstetter, the East King street butcher, met with painful accident on Saturday afternoon. While playing, with Clara Henry, a neighbor, a target rifle in the hands of Clara was accidentally discharged, and the ball enered the flashy part of the left arm. The ball has been extracted and the girl is doing

Mrs. Phoebe A. Bright, wife of Mr. Benjamin Bright, residing on North 6th street, Lebanon, fell over dead on Saturday noon while engaged in her house hold duties in scrubbing the porch. The cause of her death was heart disease. She was aged about 45 years and leaves a hus band and son to survive. Deceased has relations in this city.

Released on Hall. Annie Klinger, of Columbia, charged with concealing the death of her illegitimate child was before Judge Patterson this afternoon. After hearing the testimony of Dr. Robrer, the prison physician, the court decided to admit her to ball. She furnished security in the sum of $700 and was discharged from custody.

N. F. Hall represented the prisoner and District Attorney Weaver the common-

Cut By a Stone, Saturday afternoon, while William Sny-der, son of Bernard Snyder, of 552 Manor street, was in his father's yard penning up chickens, a neighbor boy threw a stone over the fence at him. The missile struck young Snyder between the eyes, cutting an ugly gash and stunning him somewhat. It was found necessary to have Dr. McCormick attend the boy.

Han Away From Home. Mary Gilbert, a pretty 16-year-old girl, ran away from her home in Harrisburg s short time ago, and her parents did not know where she was. Saturday her father came here and secured the service o Officer Merringer, who found the girl at Miliard Rees' on Middle street. She was taken home at an early hour yesterday morning by her father.

Telephone Connection. Martin N. Brubaker, surveyor and scrivingr. Mount Joy. is connected with the telephone.

Amusements. " In the Swim " To-morrow Evening - George C. Brotherton's company, which will be here to morrow evening, produced "In the Swim" to a large audience in Norristown on Saturday evening, where the piece made a hit. The company has that funry comedian, R. K. Graham, who, as Lancaster folks will remember, always made a big hit in "The Little Tycoon." Miss Elma Delaro, the charming actress and singer, Miss Ailee Harrison, Miss Lucilia Meredith, and other equally premi-nent people are members of the troupe. They carry their own orchestra of ten pieces and introduce much new music.
"The Little Nugget!"—The Sisson-Cawthorn

comedy company appear in the opera bouse on Thursday evening in "The Little Nugget." They have some of the best and funniest adve: tising paper ever seen in the city, and the company is said to be just as funny.

To-morrow at 15:30, at 562 South Queen street W. D. Weaver, executor of the c tate of Ben-jamin Bauman, will sell household and kitchen furniture, together with a valuable lot of old

MUSICAL. SUPERIOR QUALITY MUSICAL BOXES.

HENRY GAUTSCHI & SONS, No. 1630 Chestnut Street, - Philadelphia. Examination will prove our Instruments far superior to any other make, not speaking of the worthless trash that abounds in the market, soon being of more annoyance than pleasure to their owners. Old and imperfectly made Music Boxes carefully repaired by experienced workmen from the manufactory in Switzerland. Correspondence solicited. Send stamp for catalogue and price list.
