Inneaster County Debaters.

In Oxford hall on Friday night was one of the most interesting discussions the citizens have ever listened to, on the subject of "tariff reform." It was held under the suspices of Hopewell Iyosum, who had been tendered the town hall for the purpose of accommodating the large crowd assembled to hear the debate. George Westcott opened in favor of tariff reform weembled to hear the debate. George Westcott opened in favor of tariff reform and was seconded by two citizens of Lancaster county, D. F. Mages, esq., of White Rock, and Jas. G. McSparran, of Fairneld, who champloned the cause of tariff reform so ably and handled their subject in such masterly style that all opposition was demollahed. Dr. J. W. Huston, Granville Coates, esq., and Jas. B. Keech did some good talking for protection, but could make no headway against the convincing arguments of the opposition.

A BANK ROBBER'S DEEDS.

BATHER THAN BE CAUGHT HE SHOOTS AND KILLS HIMSELF, After Firing Ballets Into a Bank Cashier and a Bulcher in Bradford He Is Purened

by Two Thousand People Who Would Have Lynched Him. BRADFORD, Pa., March 6 .- A stranger

wearing a mask or tered the National bank about M o'clock this morning for the pur-pose of robbery. Cashier Tomlinson stepped forward to the counter, when the stranger drew a revolver and shot Tomlin-Attracted by the pistol shot, about 2,000 people quickly gathered and, learning of the shooting, started in pursuit of the as-saliant, who was making his escape.

After running about a block the stranger fired a second shot at a butcher named Blisch, the ball taking effect in his left side. The stranger then threw away his mask and a rubber coat he had been wearing and continued his flight Men mounted on horses gave chase and gained rapidly on the fugitive. The latter seeing that escape was hopeless, turned his platel upon himself and sent a bullet crashing through his brain, dying instantly. The crowd were so infuristed that they would certainly have lynched him if they had caught him alive.

The man's name is said to be Kimball, but that is all that is known of him a present. Cashler Tomlinson's condition is maldered critical. Doctors are probing for the balls in both bim and Blisch. The latter is not seriously wounded. Bank officials decline to give any infor-mation just now as to what transpired in the bank before the shooting.
