THE PRESBYTERIAN RECITAL. Honoring the Centenary Sabbath School Day

In Spirited Fashion. Special exercises for the Presbyterian Centenary Sabbath School Day were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, March 11, and notwithstanding the rain storm which deluged the streets the attend ance was large, and over $75 was realized for the centenary fund. The exercises con sisted of music, reading in concert, questi as and answers on the history of the el uro , the doctrine of the call to the minint T and ministerial relief.

A brief summary of the history of the Presbyterian church was thus presented: The first permanent Presbyterian church in this country, it is generally believed was organized by the Rev. Richard Denton at Hempstead, Long Island, in 1644. It is probable that the first presbytery was organized by several ministers at Philadelphia in 1705 or 1706. The first synod was organized in 1716 by the original presbytery dividing itself into four presby teries and constituting itself the synod. The general assembly was organized on the fourth Thursday of May, 1788. In that year the synod of New York and Philadelphia divided itself into four synods namely, the synods of New York and New Jersey, of Philadelphia, of Virginia and of the Carolinas. 1t then ordered a general

This synod, before its final adjournment in 1788, amended and adopted the Westminster confession of faith and the larger and shorter catechisms, with the forms of government and discipline and the directory for worship, and ordered all these books to be published as the constitution of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America.

On the 24th of May of this year (1888) the general assembly. The special day of colebration is the fourth Thursday, being the anniversary of the passage of the reso lutions adopting the constitution of the church, erecting the four synods and creating the general assembly. The principal teatures of this centennial elebration are the collection of the histories of the churches, the pres-byteries, the synods, the general assembly, the boards and the theological seminaries, and on the anniversary Thursday the delivery of orations at public meeting bearing upon the work, influence, duty and future of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America.

The total amount contributed by the church for religious purposes last year was $11,098 622, of which $785,070 were for home missions and $669,891 for foreign mis-

Jacob Gerlach, of Mulberry street, has been prosecuted by Franklin Sellers, for disorderly conduct, surety of the peace and assault, before Alderman Pinkerton. Returned From Piorida.

Samuel M. Myers, John J. Hartman, William Eiddle and H. S. Williamson, who with their wives have been in Florida or the past three weeks, returned home on Saturday evening. They were delighted with their trip, as the weather was so pleasant in that land of oranges. They arived in time to witness last night's storm and are so disgusted with the weather of o-day that they wish they had deferred their trip home a few weeks later.

The Last Seatons of the Literary Societies Active Democrata. MILLERSVILLE, March 10 .- Last evening and this evening the literary societies con-nected with the school held their last meeting for the present session. The Page society on Friday evening had a successful neeting, and thus closed a series of weekly meetings noted for the advantage taken by the students of the valuable opportunit offered for improvement in the arts of composition and public speaking. The society is active and has a bright future before it. The Normal society met this evening and is in every respect equal to her sister soci-ety. The honorable rivalry which exists between them tends to make both energetic

All the Democrats among the students met last evening in one of the class root and organized a school club. Mr. Fred. Dietz, of York county, is president, and K. O. Fink secretary. The Republican stu-dents also met, but for some reason did not organize a club. 'The Republicans have the larger number, but the Democrats the greater enthusiasm. Prof. H. Justin Roddy, the popular ornithologist from Perry county, visited the Normal to-day. He will probably be engaged to prepare a number of specimens of native birds for the school. The present school session closes Thursday next, March 15, and the summer seasion begins Monday, March 26. The prof pects for a large school are very good. The Stack-D'Hara Case Settled.

The famous Stack-O'Hara case is at length settled, after sixteen years of littgation. Father M. P. Stack, who was paror of the Church of the Annunciation, in Williamsport, Pa., was removed from his position in 1871 by Bishop O'Hars, of Scranon. Claiming that the removal was illegal and in opposition to the canons of the church, Father Stack carried the matter into the civil courts. He was suc cessful in the lower couts, but on Bishop O'Hara's appeal the su preme court of Pennsylvania reversed the judgment. Father Stack recently made a three months' retreat at S. Bonaventure' college, N. Y., and then sent in to his bishop an humble letter of submission and regret for his contumacy. Bishop O'Harr accepted the submission, restored the priest's faculties, and then gave him letters limissorial, or an exeat, recommending him to the kind consideration of any righ reverend bishop who might be pleased to receive him into his diocese. It is under stood that Bishop O'Connor, of Omahs Neb., will accept the services of Fathe Stack in the event of certain required conditions being fulfilled.

Fall of S ones. On Saturday evening about 9 o'clock i great crowd gathered in front of Stamu Brother's new store building, in which alterations are being made. A few stones had fallen from the wall which is being torn out to be replaced by a large do leading from the main store room to the private counting room. The noise was heard by some one who raised the cry that a man fell.

Funeral of James C. Bigg t. The funeral of James C. Biggs took place from the residence of his brother, Joseph, on West Vine street, yesterday afternoon. Among these who attended were members of Post 81, G. A. R. and the Veterans Legion, to which deceased belonged. The interment was made in Lancaster comotery.

In it she introduces all of her taking specialties, such as songs, dances, &c. Of the actress and play The Louisville Commercial Gazette says: "Miss Mattic Vickers, the charming soubrette, appeared last night for the first time in E. A. Locke's three-act comedy-drams, 'Cherub, the Pearl of Serpent Mountain.' The play and the star made a hit. Miss Vickers' company is a good one, and it is safe to predict that business for the balance of week will be good."

The Female Company.—On Wednesday evening Lilly Clay's large galety company, under the management of Sam T. Jack and led by Alice Townsend, the dashing burlesque star, will appear at the opera house. The company includes the La Porte Sisters, singers; Arline Beno, the great trapezs purformers; the Metropolitan Four, and many others. The performance concludes with the great sensation, entitled "The Little Devil's Revel." Modjeska To-morrow Evening - Alarge num-ber of seats for Modjeska have already been sold, and the isdications are that the talent of and popular actress will have a large and fashionable audience as she usually has here. There seems to be an impression that reserved soats can only be had for $1.00 and $1.50. This is not the case, however, as excellent seats in the circle can yet be purchased for 75 cents. Persons desiring to see the actress in the great play "As You Like It," would do well to purchase their tickets in advance. This may be the last opportunity to see Modjeska for some time. She has a large and strong com-
