VIEWS OF THE RESELLION.

Part of the Collection of Photographer Brady Exhibited Last Evening.

rly every seat in Fulton opera house was filled last evening when the Brady war views were exhibited. At 8 o'clock A. explained the character of the pictures to C. Leonard introduced Col. Grover, who be shown. The photographic scenes of forts, battle-fisids, battles, prisons, slave pens and other buildings, Union officers, armed vessels and monster cannon were thrown in rapid succession upon the canvas placed upon the stage. faded, but they were very interesting and served to show numerous features of the civil war that were not collected by painters with a pointer, designated the principal objects of every scene. His descriptions ere amply instructive; and his humorous treatment of many of the views created roars of laughter.

While the scene of Gen. Phil. Sheridan, who was seated upon a sleek-looking steed, was displayed, the colonel recited with the closest regard for elecutionary effect Buchanan Read's poem on "Sheridan's Ride." The loud applause following the recital was fully merited. The second part of the exhibition was devoted to colored scenes from paintings, and them the most thrilling situations of soldiers in battle were depicted. There were several comic pictures shown, and the last one was a bunch of blackberries. The fruit slowly ripened, and each berry was turned into the head of a darkey.

This evening the second series of the pictures will be shown ; on Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee, and the last exhibi tion will be on Saturday evening. The exhibitions are given for the benefit of Admir able Reynolds Post 405, G. A. R.

This evening Washington Potts will render all the army calls on the bugle.

Before the Mayor. Last evening Officers Roerich, Merringer, Oreamer and Stormfeltz, in response to a elephone message, went to Peacock's fur nace, in the lower part of town, and arrested lour men who were loating there. This rning they were before the mayor, when morning they were before the mayor, when they gave their names as Mark Torney, as Arnold, John Hopkins and John Rone. They were each given 30 days in fall. Rone was the only man who did not look like a tramp. He said he lived in esville and begged to be let go, but the mayor would not listen to him. Lewis Steiner, who was drunk, got 30 days also. A M natrel's Marriage.

Milt Barlow, the negro minstrel, was married in Jersey City yesterday to Lillie Hall, the buriesquer. It will be remembered that Barlow was but recently relessed from prison, where he had been for a long time for failure to provide for his wife and family. When he was put there it was said that the Hall woman was the cause of his trouble. A divorce separated his former wife from him.

Want More Wages. The hod-carriers of this city held a meet ing last evening at the house of James Waters, colored, in the Seventh ward, and they resolved to ask $2 per day for their services after April 1st. At present they are receiving $1 75.

Could Not Get Coal. The Penn iron works were obliged to suspend operations on Thursday night be-cause they did not get a supply of coal on secount of the anow blockade.

Three Suits Settled. The suits of surety of the peace, assault and battery and disorderly conduct brought were settled before Alderman Pinkerton last evening by Gariach paying the costs.

From the Little Record. Mr. F. P. Har: will remove to Strasburg in the spring, where he will engage in bust-

SUPPOSED TO BE STOLEN. A Tramp Has a Lot of Valuable Papers

Officer Merringer arrested a tramp on Middle street on Thursday night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was found in the yard of a house on that street and refused to leave when ordered out. He was taken to the station house, but declined giving his name. This morning he first eald his name was James Bard, and after. wards James Moss. In a pocket book taken from him was $1.06 in money and some valuable papers. Among his papers, all in the name of Sam'i Martin, was a certificate of deposit for $500, in the name of Samuel Martin, on Reed & Henderson's bank, dated March, 24, 1884; a notice of seases. ment for a farm of 101 scree in Salisbury township; an insurance notice of The Men-nonite Mutual Aid society of Lancaster county, and a number of other receipts. For the drunkenness and disorderly con duct Alderman A. F. Donnelly committee him for five days. The supposition i that he stole the valuable papers above noted. Inquiry will be made while he is in jail to ascertain how he became possesse of them.

Batter Again Down. The report of butter and other produce being so scarce in this city on Tuesday s:on spread over the county and in a greatly exaggerated form. It was said in some sec tions that butter could readily be sold here for 75 cents. The stories had a good of fect and when the Eastern market opened yesterday it was found that there was large quantity of butter on hand. Farmers had gone to the greatest trouble to get to town and some of them had even to A number of town dealers, who had provided themselves with butter in the hopes of making a big profit were on the market. The result of all this was that good butter could be purchased at 25 cents per pound. One farmer, who disposed of all of his sixes, bought that of a neighbor, which was left on his hands.

Jimmy Outon Again to Trouble Jimmy Quinn stumbled into Alderman Barr's office on Thursday evening, very much under the influence of liquor. He proceeded to seat himself on the hot stove n the office, and finding it uncomfortably warm, he soon got away from the stove but in his efforts he knocked the stove over, and the hot coals fell to the floor. Fortunately the alderman came to the office from supper about the time the stove fell over and with a few buckets of water s serious fire was prevented. Jimmy was locked up for a hearing on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Sudden Desth in Volton. Patterson McCardle, residing in Fulton ownship, died suddenly on Thursday Deputy Coroner Wakeman Wesley held an inquest and the verdict of the jury was that death resulted from congestion of the Admitted His Guilt. Oliver White, who claims Lebanon county as his home, stole a revolver from Asron Diehm, of Unionville, Penn township, and when taken before Justice

Weber he admitted his guilt, and was committed to the county jail for trial at the April court. THE Young People's association of St. Paul's Bef. r.med church will give a free entertainment this evening. Cecil Harner, a professor in the School of Oratory, Philadelphia, will read several selections. Mrs. Hunter will sing. There will be music by the orchestra, choir and quartette.]

Emmett in "Frits"-On Monday evening next Joe Emmett makes his first appearance in Lancaster in several years, and he will play "Friiz, Our Cousin German," in which he was first seen in Lancaster. People who expect to see the eminent comedian will be left if they do not have seats reserved, as they are selling very rapidly now. The Cincinnati Enquire mys: "It is quite evident that J. K. Emmet has lost none of his drawing powers. The standing room only sign at the Grand was hanging in the lobby at $30 last evering and several hundred people were turned away, unable to guin admission." A Western Drama .- "Ranch 10." which is a good type of Western drama, will be played in this city on Tuesday evening next. The Pittsburg Leader says: "There was standing room only at the Grand opera house last even ing, and very little of that, when the curtain rose on the first act of 'Ranch 10,' one of the prettlest of spectacular productions.
