IOW HILL COONS AT WAR DUR MEN HAVE A LIVELY FIGHT OVER A GAME OF CARDS.

A Boy Sertously Injured by a Stone Hurled by men Brohardron-Several Crimical Suits Messis From the France -- William Giest Breaks His Right Leg.

Segular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCES COLUMBIA, March 17 .- Tow Hill was full of excitement yesterday afternoon, caused by a tree fight between four colored resi-dents of that locality. Ike Shorter, Sam Buith and Frank Richardson had been king on the Reading railroad during the late snow-storm, and bad carned sor the men went to a resort on the "hill" there they commenced a game of carda, taking the money carned on the railroad. Frank Richardson was the winner, which camed the other pisyers to become angry and hot words passed. Before very long the men engaged in a desperate fight, which was continued until the men ar-rived in alley J, in the rear of the school buildings. In the fight at that place Frank Richardson picked up a large atone which was thrown at one of the fighters, but truck a young colored boy named Robert Walker. The missile hit the boy on the right ear, cutting it entirely through and trushing the bones behind the ear. This ident stopped the fight, and the toughs red in every direction, while the boy was carried to his home in the same alley. Dr. Markingttended to the injury, but found it too much swollen to make a thorough exation. The wound is very serious

During the progress of the fight Wash Cole, a reputable colored man, attempted to take Frank Richardson to his home en Sam. Richardson attacked Cole with a ranor. Bult was entered by Cole for feine assault and battery. Richardson given a bearing before 'Squire Evans, nd sent to jail for a trial at court, The other men in the fight have not yet gured very often in police circles, but the n have always conducted themelves in a good manner. hel Richardson, wife of Sam, sued Weah. Cole for carrying concealed deadly weapons before 'Squire Hershey. Cole was held at $300 ball for a trial. Officer Wittick arrested John Van Ness, ed, for drunkenness and disorderly duct on complaint of Conrad Weimer. Ben. Duck was arrested on the same charge. 'Squire Evans gave Duck 10 days and Van Ness 20 days in fall.

FIRE IN MOUNT JOY. the Dwelling and Store of George Carpenter

Damaged by Flames.

'This forencon a rather destructive fire occurred in the town of Mt. Joy. It broke out about 10 o'clock in the attic of the building of George Carpenter, which he occupies as a dwelling and store. The roof and sec-ond story were burned from the house before the fire could be extinguished. For a time the confusion was very great and the whole neighbrhood was alarmed. Furniture and other household goods were thrown from the windows of the burning building.
The house next to Carpenter's is occupied by the Misses Boyce. It was on fire several times and was somewhat damaged. The household goods were thrown from the house also. During the fire F. G. Pennell, one of the men who was working to extinguish the flames, received an 'ngly wound on the head by being struck by a nezzle that slipped from the edge of the roof. The fire was discovered by William Deroif, who has a shoe store opposite Mr. Carpenter, and he gave the alarm.

The building that was burned is altusted on Main street. Although occupied by Mr. Carpenter it is owned by Mrs. Joseph Ra-ber. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue.

Romance In High Life. From the San Francisco Chronicle.

She was remantic. Her father was a millionaire whose life had been devoted to sausage raising. He was practical naturally, but all the poetry of her family was right in her. She was beloved by another millionaire's son, but she had been reading romances and stuff, and when he proposed to her she declared he must do something poetical for her.

" Dearest, what can I do ?" " Become a poor artist ?"

"I couldn't be any other kind of an ar-"I mean you must pretend to be a poor artist. Pa does not know you. You must come and make love to me, and I will fall in love with you. Pa will object and make a row. We will elope and get married, and when it is all over we'll tell him, and it will be delightful."

it will be delightful."

And so be became a poor artist and took a poor studio, and daubed on canvas and pretended to paint pictures. And there was another millionstre's daughter got to coming to his studio and sitting for her picture. In those delightful little tete-a-tetes he forgot all about the romantic maiden, and when the romantic maiden came one night in peasant costume as a sweet surprise to run away with him she found he was married to the other girl, and had gone off on his honeymoon. She thinks that romances are all lies now, and that nothing happens in real life as it happens in books. She's about right.

Children of Powhatan

The Pamunkey Indians, in forwarding to the governor of Virginia their annual tribute of fish and game, say they have dwindled from a population of 1,000,000 ouls to 120 braves, squaws and papooses. "We," they say, in a petition which they want transmitted to the president, "take no part in politics, but acknowledge the laws passed by the pale faces, and are ever ready to go forth in defense of the great government of the United States when alled upon to protect and shield the squaws and papooses of the pale faces. We would humbly pray and importune you, great and good chief of the pale faces, sitting around your council fire in the great City of Washington and smoking your pipe of of washington and sinesting your pipe of peace, that you would enact and pass suitable laws which would allow us, the last remnant of the great Chief Powhatan, living in the county of King William, Virginia, that we may send and have educated, free of cost to us, the children of our tribe to that great and good school known as the Hamulen Normal school." stop. An' I creeped down stairs an' peeped through the keyhole, an' he was just givin' it to her. Then they quieted down an' I see him kiss her." "This is terrible. Has Hattle said any-thing to you ?" said father to mother. " Not a word."

Just then Hattle made her appearance, languid and tired looking.
"What's this trouble between you and George? Has he been insulting you? Why didn't you tell me about it?" said the father.

"About what?"
Then they told her the small boy's story. She took the small boy by the ear.
"You little imp? Why, pa, George is going to play Othello at the amateur theatrigoing to play Othello at the amateur theatri-cals, and we were rehearing the jealousy

SCRQFULA

BONE CURED!

LITHONIA, Ga., August 11, 1867.

THE SWIFF SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.:

Gentlemen—I have been afflicted with ulceration of the legs ever afflicted with a child, the disease undoubtedly being hereditary, as my mother suffered from scrofulous symptoms. As I advanced to manhood my affliction increased until the malady became harrassing and painful beyond the power of words to describe. My right leg particularly became fearfully involved, the left leg being less painfully affected. Finally, about fourieen years ago, the ulcers on my right leg had easen through the less into the bone. In order to savemy 12 state down to see a flat of the control of the less of my right leg had easen through the less into the bone. In order to savemy 12 state down to see. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. H. Y. M. Miller, of Atlanta, and Dr. W. P. Bond, of Lithonia. But the loss of my leg, gave me only temporary relief. The poleon was still in my system and soon began to show itself again. In a short time after large ulcers appeared on my left leg, covering it from the knee to the instep. Frequently while at work I could be tracked by the blood which oosed from the huge ulcers, and the sores and rottening holes were so offensive that my fellow-workmen could not stand the steach and would move away from me.

Last winter I was persuaded to try S. S. & As a last effort I consented to do so, and about seven months ago I began taking the Specific. I soon began to feel the good effects of the medicine, the offensive running began to grow less and less and finally cessed, the ulcers healed, my fiesh became firm and solid, and to day after using twenty-one bottles, I am as hale and stout a man of my age as there is in Georgia. I am seventy-one years eld, but feel now younger and stronger than I did when I was twenty-fre. I weigh age as there is in Georgia. I am seventy one years old, but feel now younger and stronger than I did when I was twenty-five. I weigh about 170 pounds. Nothing is to be seen of the terrible disease, or to remind me of the torture I suffered for so many years, except the scars of the perfectly healed ulcers.

I want the world to know of the almost miraculous cure effected on me by S. S. and I call upon those who wish to Zeow the particulars directly from me to write, and I will consider it a pleasure as well as a duty to answer their letter. I refor to Dr. W. P. lond, of Lithouia, as to the truth of my statement.

Yery gratefully yours.
