CHRISTIAN SIPLE DEAD.

ULT OPBIS INJURIES AT THE SUSQUE HANNA BOLLING MILL.

Was Native of Germany and Leaves a Wife and Four Children-The Dam to Be Repaired-Rev. A. R. Steck Accepts the l'astorate of a Local Church.

COLUMBIA, March 23.—Oa Wedneeday on Christian Siple, an employe Jarod about his head by being thrown class wall. He was standing near a which was blown against him by a sof wind. He was removed to h s home secon, and his condition was not thought to be serious. About 2 o'clock yesterday abernoon he suddenly became worse and the attending physician stated that he was in a dying condition. He remained con-scious until 4:30 o'clock when he expired. Mr. Siple was born in Hersfeld, Germany, over 64 years ago, and left that country in 1854 for the United States, coming di-rectly to Columbis. He was employed at the turnsces about here for a number of ers, and then found employment at the banna rolling mill, where he has been employed for the past eighteen years.

A wife and four children survive. His children are Henry, William, Maggle and Barah Siple, all living in town. The uneral will be held on Sunday afternoon M 2 o'clock; services in St. Paul's Luther. The Dam to He Repaired.

The damage to the Columbia dam by the recent ice gorge has been the sutject of much newspaper comment, especially in the Harrisburg papers. It has been said hat the dam is doomed and will not be repaired. This gave the up-river people much joy, but they are very much mistaken. The damage is not as great as many people would desire. It has been injured in the portion known as the old dam, where the break is about one hundred and birty-ave feet in length. The water has ed out the cinder ballast, but it is ought that the wood work is uninjured. ra. E Iward N. Smith, chief engineer of the Reading company's canals, and D. F. Shure, superintendent of the Susquehann nd Tide Water canal, have been in town to look about the damage and stated that the dam will be put in good order. They de a tour of inspection and found the m from the fishways to the Columbia while the cam from the fishways to the York county shore remains intact. The work of repair will commence a con as possible and Mr. Smith stated that nder. If will require about 50,000 tons of stone to complete the work. The good news of the action of the Resaing company is a source of great satisfaction in town. Accepted a Call.

The members of the Second street Lutheran church extended a unanimous call to Rev. A. R. Stock, of Stewartsville, N. J. to become their pastor. Messre. H. F. Yergey and John Sterline, ar., visited the genan and received a favorable answer. It is rumored that a daily paper will be started here very soon. It will be printed at the Courant effice and will be started by

Arrival of John St. Clair's Hody. The body of John St. Clair, who died in New Brighton, arrived in Lancaster this morning at 6 o'clock. It was taken by Undertaker A. C. Rote to the residence of the brother of deceased, on Mulberry street, from which place the funeral will be held on Monday afternoon. Mr. St. Clair was a member of the Cigarmakers' Union and the members in this city are in vited to attend the funeral. The deceased leaves two children, a boy and a girl, in-stead of one, as mentioned yesterday.

The following is from a new Brighton paper in regard to the death of Mr. St. Clair: Deceased was better known in this community as Alex. St. Clair. He had been engaged with Mr. Wm. Boyle, at his occu-pation as eigarmaker, for almost five years, and his employer speaks of him in warm terms of praise. Ho was a genial, clever gentleman, and had a host of friends in this section, who will hear with regret of hisdeath. He was conscious until twenty minutes of his demise, and informed the friends around his bedelde that he was enduring no suffering; indeed, he expired so quietly and calmly that those in the room were unaware of the exact moments when his spirit took flight."

The Red Rose Fair. At the fair of Red Rose Commandery there was snother large attendance last evening. The mammoth jumbo eigar was won by William Warner, and a gold-nesded silk umbrella by William Dommett.
