FOUND DEAD IN BED.

FREDERICK MUMMA, AGED 64, DIES FROM HEART DISEASE

Until Recently An Employe at the Chestnut Hill Ore Banks—Four Disorderly Peeps Sent to Jail for Ten Days—Rev. Ludwick Taken Ill in Church.

Regular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCER.

COLUMBIA, March 26.—Frederick Mumma was found dead in bed on Sunday afternoon, about 5:30 o'clock, at the home of his son, Peter Mumma, on Walnut street, above Third. During the afternoon he had gone up stairs to lie down and was in apparently good health. The man was found by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mumma, and had died some time during the afternoon. Deputy Coroner Hershey was summoned to hold an inquest and empanelled the following jury: William U. Barr, William McDivitt, S. W. McKinley, John A. Gilbert, William Hardy, E. E. McDivitt. The jury examined the following witnesses: Mrs. M. Mumma, Peter Mumma, Mrs. Harriet Reese, Dr. W. G. Taylor, Dr. A. Craig. The verdict was that the deceased came to his death from organic heart disease.

Mr. Mumma was born at Chestnut Hill about 64 years ago and had been living at that place until about one year ago. He was employed about the ore banks. For the past year he has been living with his son in town. Four children, two sons and two daughters, survive. His children are Frederick and Peter Mumma and Mrs. David Reese, of town, and Mrs. Philip Bard, of Chestnut Hill. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and interment will be made at Ironville.

All Sent to Jail.

Officers Wittick and Gilbert made a raid on Sunday morning, about 3:30 o'clock, on a disorderly house on Perry street, below Second, kept by Charles Hoffer. They captured John Leppold, Harry Zell, Jefferson Lawrence and his sister Ella, inmates, who were placed in the lockup. All were very drunk when arrested, and were disturbing the neighborhood by their conduct. They were given a hearing before 'Squire Evans and sent to jail for ten days each. Lawrence and Zell have just come from jail after serving a term of twelve months. Lawrence for assault and battery, and Zell for false pretense. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Charles Hoffer and wife, charged with keeping a disorderly house.

Railroad Relief.

The Pennsylvania railroad voluntary relief department has issued the statement for February which shows the following amount of benefits paid to employes living in Columbia: Twelve men for accidents, $194; thirty-one men for sickness, $405 60; total $599 60.

Various Amusements.

The glass-blowers closed their show on Saturday night to a very large audience.

On Wednesday night [illegible] will appear in the opera house.

The Wesleyan University Glee club will appear in the opera house on Thursday evening, April 5th, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The entertainment will be very fine.

The contest between a bicyclist and pedestrian will commence in the rink this evening at 7 o'clock. C. W. Ashinger, rider, will endeavor to beat the combined scores of Odin Beckworth and A. D. Tonlay, runners. The race will be for four hours every night.

A Minister Ill.

Rev. E. Ludwick, of the Salome U. B church, was taken ill on Sunday morning while preaching and compelled to leave his pulpit. He was confined to his bed during the day and did not fill the pulpit in the evening.

Palm Sunday was appropriately observed in the Catholic churches. The congregation were given palm branches to commemorate Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

The Keeley stove works have shut down for a week or ten days. Repairs will be made during the suspension.

Winfield Young had his left hand caught in some iron on Saturday afternoon at the P. R. R. freight warehouse. The hand was badly injured and given attention by a physician.

Services will be held on Tuesday in St. Paul's P. E. church as follows: 10:30 a. m., "The Patient Sufferer"; 4:30 p. m., "The Cross Bearer"; 7:30 p. m., "Golgotha."

Wm. H. Hougendobler, contractor, commenced work this morning at the Swartz property for the Central National bank. The property will have an entire new front and another story added to the building.

Died in Elkton, Md.

From the Cecil Democrat.

Mrs. Julia A. Michael, mother of Mrs. David L. Sloan, of this town, died on Sunday night last of the infirmities incident to old age, in her 83d year. Mrs. Michael was a native of Marietta, Pa., where her early life was spent. Subsequently she removed to Harrisburg, and for many years was assistant matron of the Insane asylum of that place. The last six years of her life were spent with her son-in-law, Mr. Sloan, in this town. For the past two years she has been totally blind. Her funeral was on Wednesday afternoon.

Millersville State Normal School.

The spring and summer session of the State Normal school at Millersville opened this morning. The exceedingly bad weather prevented the arrival of many of the students. Usually the passenger depot of the Pennsylvania railroad is piled up with trunks and gripsacks belonging to students. To-day there were not more than thirty trunks forwarded from the depot to the school, and nearly all these belonged to male students.

License Granted.

The court on Saturday afternoon granted license to Enos Marsh, Strasburg borough; Rebecca Weller and G. J. Hildebrand, Eden township. Disposition of the applications had been postponed to give the parties an opportunity of perfecting their petitions and bonds, and having done so the court granted the licenses.

A Horse With the Lockjaw.

Some time ago a valuable horse belonging to Wise Brothers, brick manufacturers of Manor street, ran a corn fodder splinter into his shoulder. It was not thought that the injury was serious, but yesterday morning the animal was found lying in the stable, and suffering from lockjaw.

Death of John Stanton.

John Stanton, aged 70 years, a well-known and highly respected citizen of the lower end of the county, died at his home, in Quarryville, this morning. He was a farmer, and besides his wife four children—two sons and two daughters—survive him. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Early Services.

On account of Rev. Dr. McCullagh's presence in Harrisburg on Thursday morning next, the Maundy Thursday services at St. Mary's Catholic church will be held at 5 a. m.

In Town.

Mrs. Clara M. Evans, of Frewsburg, New York, who claims to be a mental healer, arrived in town to-day and is stopping at the Stevens house.

A Big Egg.

Philip Hatter, of St. Joseph street, has a monster chicken egg. It measures 6x7½ inches, and weighs 3½ ounces.

Rafting Begun.

The first timber rafts of the season arrived at Lock Haven on Sunday.

Prison Inspectors Meet.

On account of the press of business incident to April settlements on Monday next, the April meeting of the board of prison inspectors was held to-day. Those present at the meeting were Messrs. Carter, Eaby, Eshleman and Nissley.

The bonds of J. Milton Hershey, watchman, and Isaac N. Eaby, underkeeper, were approved.

Bids were received for supplying meat to the prison, but the contract was not awarded or the prices made known. The bidders are Rutt & Co. and Trissler. The contract will be awarded at an adjourned meeting to be held on Saturday.

The Reading's Mails.

Two weeks ago the men at the King street station began weighing the mail which arrives and is shipped from here over the Reading railroad. In fourteen days the matter weighed 14,000 pounds, or exactly seven tons. This seems like a large quantity, but it is correct.

Pleasant Entertainment.

A very pleasant entertainment was given at the school of Miss Gusie Burger, at Oreville, on Thursday last. Miss Echternach rendered fine music at the organ. Riley's orchestra, of Lancaster, was present. All enjoyed themselves.

The Road Roller.

Jesse Martin, engineer, came to this city this morning with the new road roller which he will put together in Best & Son's yard.

To Reside in Maytown.

Mrs. May, widow of the late Simon C. May, cashier of the Columbia National bank, intends to leave Columbia and make her home with her father, Mr. Joseph Green, of Maytown. The failing health of her parents is the cause of her making this change.

In Argument Court.

The court heard argument of cases in all the courts this morning. The common pleas and orphans' court list are now finished, and there yet remains a few in the quarter sessions to be disposed of.

Still Under Arrest.

Charles Hager, who was locked up on Saturday on a telegram received from his mother in Massachusetts, is still at the station house. She is expected here to-night.

Christian Science—Mental Healing.

Mrs. Clara M. Evans, C. S. B., a mental healer, who has been in successful practice for years, is located at the Stevens house, where she will be pleased to receive patients for treatment and arrange for teaching classes in mental science. Diseases healed without the use of drugs. Chronic cases a specialty. Those interested in this wonderful and satisfactory subject are invited to call. 1td

In New Quarters.

J. W. Johnson, attorney-at-law, has rented one of the offices in Eshleman's law building, No. 45 North Duke street.

DEATHS.

HENSEL.—In this city, on the 24th inst., William Hensel, in the 76th year of his age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from his late residence, No. 134 East Chestnut street, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Lancaster cemetery. 2t

A Word For The Boys.

Much is said of the way Boys tear their Clothing. We believe much fault lies with the Clothing. Cutting up is harder wear than work. We don't believe in choking off the levity of boys, but in making Clothing stronger. "Make it as strong as possible" is our speech to our workpeople.

See our $3.50, $4.50 and $5.00 Short Pant Suits. The newest in cloth and make.

Boys of larger growth or youth, they're most inquisitive about the style. We give that close attention. Suits at $7.00, $9.00 and $12.00; a stylish, as strong as they are now.
