

THE OFFICERS CHOSEN

FOR A SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHURCH AND A SECRET ORGANIZATION.

St. John's Lutheran Church Decide to Extend School to Rev. E. B. Brown, of Philadelphia. These Who Came into the Law's Office—A Race in the Ring.

Correspondence of Intelligence.

COLUMBIA, March 27.—The Sunday school association of St. John's Lutheran church have elected the following officers for the coming year: Superintendent, F. E. Miller; assistant superintendent, Harry F. Zarger; principal of the infant department, Mrs. E. E. Loeman; assistant, Mrs. William Balglt, Mrs. S. B. Clepper; secretary, J. Tyson; treasurer, Maurice L. Knapp; Henry Fager; assistant treasurer, Harry Cooper; librarian, L. C. Gilt; assistant chorister, E. F. Fager; directors, George A. Dea, Frank Findley, Ralph Sweney; organist, Miss Kate Smith; assistant organist, Miss Lucy Herr and Clara Leaman.

A congregational meeting of the Church of God was held last evening, when the following officers were elected: Elders, William Bettei, Adam K. Snyder, George O. Seiple; deacons, Simon Brown, Simon Hall, Samson Snyder; organist, Miss Susie Rupp. The treasurer's report was read, showing the church to be in a flourishing condition financially. The officers organized by electing Samson Snyder secretary and Wm. H. Bettei treasurer.

A meeting of the Samaritan Lodge, No. 25, of Odd Fellows, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the coming term: Noble Grand, Daniel Stape, Jr.; vice grand, Elmer Beacham; secretary, E. J. M. Little; assistant secretary, E. M. Moyer; treasurer, John S. Muser, trustee for 15 months, M. S. Shuman.

A Pastor Called.

A congregational meeting was held in St. John's Lutheran church, when the members decided to give Rev. E. B. Brown, minister, now located at Ephrata, a unanimous call to become their pastor. It is expected that the gentleman will accept the call.

In the Police Court.

Charles Hoffer and wife were arrested and given a hearing before Squire Evans, charged with keeping a disorderly house on Ferry street, near Second. The accused denied that he had a dance and a keg of beer on Saturday night, and promised not to repeat the offense. The squire released the pair.

Emmanuel Berkenheiser, employed at the Columbia rolling mill, was arrested last evening by the sergeant named Murphy, from York county, on a charge of being a vagrant. The warrant was issued over a year ago and in the meantime the case had been settled by Berkenheiser. Then Officer Wittick arrested the constable on a charge of receiving goods under false pretenses, the charge preferred by Jerome Long. Murphy will be given a hearing before Squire Evans and the case of Berkenheiser fully settled.

The Race in the Ring.

A fair crowd was in the rink last evening to witness the commencement of the bicyclic-pedestrian contest, lasting for four weeks each night. The race was a good one and settled down to their work. Sackworth and Tonny gained the lead on the rider and kept it during the night. Abinger had very hard riding, as the track is not suited for his wheel. The sawdust was cut through, and three very nearly falls during the night. The track will be put in better condition for to night. The first night's score was:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Score. Backworth 25, 5; Tonny 53, 5; Ashinger 53, 5.

The Metropolitan company will appear in the opera house on Wednesday evening, April 18.

The "Alvin Jolin" company will appear in the opera house on Wednesday night.

Services will be held on Wednesday in St. Paul's R. church as follows: 10:30 a. m., "One offered to wear the line of may"; 4:30 p. m., "The kiss of betrayal"; 7:30 p. m., "Why sleep ye?"

The "Early Birds" Could Not Come.

Yesterday an effort was made to have the "Early Birds," a large variety combination, who were to have been at the Central, Philadelphia, this week, come to Lancaster and play in the King street theatre, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. They had made arrangements to go to Frankford, however, and could not come here. Frank Conly, the humorist, will likely fill in the dates with a company from Philadelphia. Manager Gilmore, of the Central, has arranged to take the South Broad street theatre for the remainder of the season, after next Monday.

He Will Go Home.

Mrs. Hager, the mother of Charles Hager, who has been under arrest for several days, arrived in this city from Massena, Ontario, on Monday night. She saw her son at the station house and had him released from custody. The son agreed to go home with his mother and the suit she brought will then be pressed. The reason she wants him home is because he became tired supplying him with money in Lancaster. He formerly worked at the Welch factory, but has not been there for some months.

Heardings Dealed.

The court to-day declined re-hearings to the following applicants for license: H. C. Albert, Elizabeth Deaver, George Sheets, Conrad Shearer and A. K. Hoffmeyer, city; Conrad Blinger, Isaac Leopold, Blitner, Columbia; A. W. Shuman and W. C. Smealier, Manheim borough; Isaac Albright, Sadebury; George Weber, Elizabethtown, and John A. Geiz, Ephrata.

The Red Rose Fair.

There was a large attendance at the Red Rose fair last evening and the Liberty band made things lively in the musical line. Blue Cross Commandery was present in a body. A large foot ball was won by Charles Dommet, pair of slippers by Miss Sallie Keller, fancy box by W. H. Smealier and wax flowers and frame by Miss Mable McCashton, of Coatesville. This evening Hiram Crooms furnishes the entertainment.

After Many Years.

On January 15, 1873, Rhoda Swails filed her petition for divorce from her husband, Charles A. Swails. This morning on application of Wm. E. Givler, etc. she was decreed a divorce. During all these years the petition was on file nothing was done towards the suit to a finish until a few weeks ago.
