COLUMBIA, April 5.—A public meeting was held last evening in the council chamber, when a large number of citizens were present. John D. Forry, president of the committee, called the meeting to order, stating that the meeting was called to make arrangements for the celebration of the centennial of the city of Columbia.

On motion of C. W. Stevenson it was unanimously decided to hold a centennial. On motion of W. J. Young, the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of five to select a committee of arrangements and report at a future meeting.

On Tuesday morning a man using two crutches, having his left leg below the knee, arrived in town and went to see Major J. W. Young.

The Wesleyan University Club will give concert in the opera house this evening for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The club has the reputation of being an excellent musical organization.

Henry Mellinger, sr., a well known resident of Washington borough, died last evening of consumption. Mr. Mellinger was very well known here.

A congregational meeting was held last night in the Presbyterian church, to decide upon building a new church.

Vesta Furnace, at Wall's street, owned by the Columbia rolling mill company, was blown down to-day.

A list of those anxious to serve their party on Wednesday was the last day on which announcements for office at the coming Republican primary election could be filed with the chairman of the county committee.

In addition to the candidates announced in the daily papers for the paying offices the following are candidates for election to the national convention: Samuel M. Nel-donridge, West Earl; Francis Shroder, city; alternate, Amos Ziegler, East Donegal; Henry G. Hays, Pequea; S. M. Myers, city; Henry S. Eberly, Clay.

Delegates to the state convention: City center, Dr. M. L. Hays, West Earl; Southern district, J. M. Eaby, Paradise; Jacob Hart, Martic; E. C. Musselman, Strasburg borough; Jacob M. Frantz, Lancaster township; Northern district, Samuel J. Zug, Rapho; Robert S. Conklin, Col-umbia; John S. Nolde, East Coalingo; Martin H. Grubb, East Earl; Percy F. Sobock, Marietta; Christian Musselman, Earl; F. M. Coover, Ephrata.

Disappearance of a Builder.

George Kinneer, carpenter and builder of this city, left his home last Thursday, since which time his family have not seen or heard from him. It is not known where he is and his folks are worried about him.

Made an Assignment.

Joseph Irwin, of East Coalingo township, has assigned his property for the benefit of creditors to George S. Fry, of the same township.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the Lancaster City and County Medical Society, held on April 4, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, An All-Well Providence hath seen fit to remove, by death, our esteemed col-league, Amos Ziegler, M. D., late of Mount-Villa, Pa., and the desire to secure tried blood lines. When the three qualifications are combined in a horse he can secure a patronage wherever placed. Mr. D. G. Engle, proprietor of Engle's Farm, 8 King, in the three cardinal points, and shows his faith by his work. He has in Storm King, the chief stallion at Engle's Farm, a King, who foaled 1884, a fine bay, standing 16 hands and weighing 1,200 lbs., sired by Happy Storm King, dam Topsy Taylor, by Alexander's Norman. As a show horse he has never been defeated, taking five first premiums in competition with very meritorious ones. At the recent sale of the Fair of 1888, Storm King won first prize from the blue ribbon winner in his class during the National Horse Show of 1888 and 1889. He has elegance of carriage, remarkably pure fast natural gait and a frame well clothed with muscle.
