"My Brother's Sister" is not tame throughout, hovever; after half of the second act to the end of the third there are waves of the deaired quality. Miss Palmer sang several popular selections, and part of the audience for some reason seemed disposed to encore one of them. In her assumption of three one of them.

characters, Miss Palmer has a great deal of work, much of which was overlooked by the auditors who were bewildered by the immense display of diamonds worn by her. The costumes were probably the finest seen here this season. Miss Palmer's manager is John E. Rogers, who is also her husband. He is a shrewd business man and works every point for an advertisement. Yesterday he legraphed here for a police officer to meet Miss Palmer at the train and escort her to the hotel, to protest her diamonds. Mayor Edgerley detailed Officer Creamer to do this work and he did it in good style. The mayor did not think that it was an advertising scheme, but now says he will not be caught sgain. This act will make Charlie Davis, "The King of Diamonds," laugh.
