

The Daily Intelligencer. LANCASTER, MAY 2, 1888. The Daily Intelligencer publishes all the telegraphic news of the United States...

An Animal Show. The Senate was a circus yesterday. Mr. Ingalls' advertised speech being an attraction that crowded the chamber.

What We Should Preserve. Letter to the Eastern Farmer. We should preserve with greatest care every tree, large and small, beside our country roads...

Why Was I Dressed. Husband—What are you rigged out for now? Wife—I'm going shopping and want to be treated with respect...

A Youngster's Teeth. Demand greater attention than they usually receive. Mothers careful of their children's physical well-being...

As expedition to Greenland will be begun next Saturday. The expedition has been equipped at Christiania, Norway, and will set out from Copenhagen...

Very truly yours, CONESTOGA. The bottom of all the agitation that has taken place in Ireland for the past seven hundred years has been the land question...

PERSONAL. EDWARD McDEVITT, the well known young railroad contractor, returns to his home in Overton, Bradford county, to-day.

A Baptist Minister's Experience. "I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a doctor I was a doctor in medicine, but I left a lucrative practice for my present profession..."

A Look Walk for a Wife. A German walked most of the way from Texas to Booneville, Ind., to marry a young woman. It took him nearly six months.

rewarded for the betrayal of their people; and how finally the seeds of Irish hatred for everything English were planted strong and deep.

Thus these two memories—that of wrongful dispossession and hatred of English tyranny—have grown to be a part of the land question in Ireland, and they make that question unlike what it is anywhere else in the world.

It took many years of famines to bring the agitation of tenant rights in the land before the English law-making power.

It is impossible in the limits of this brief article to go into the question of the land laws of Ireland with anything like the proper fullness.

Thus there were more than twice as many evictions in 1879 as in 1878, though the potato crop for 1878 was four times greater than that of 1879.

SALEMEN WANTED AT ONCE FOR A General Line of NURSERY STOCK. A. S. WILSON, 120 N. 2nd St., Lancaster, Pa.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Keep the Blood Pure. We believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is the very best medicine to take to keep the blood pure and to expel the germs of scrofula, salt rheum, and other poisons which so much suffering, and debility or later undermine the general health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. For a first-class spring medicine my wife and I both think very highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla. We both took it last spring. It did us a great deal of good and we felt better through the hot weather than ever before.
