Their First Shoot. The Langaster Gun club held their first practice shoot of the season on the grounds, on Malone farm, Tuesday afternoon. A on gentlemen participated and they shot at blue rocks and bats, making some good shots notwithstanding the unfavorable weather.

They West West, Issac E. Groff, residing near Millersville, and Edward Kready, son of the late Jacob Kready, left Lancaster on the 11:40 train last night on a three months trip to Kansas Dity and other places in the West About wenty friends of the young men, who mide in the country, came with them to own to see them off. The evening was ntly spent at the Schiller house here Wm. Spangler, the proprietor gave the whole party an elegant set out. This afternoon Thomas B. Hartman left his city for Durange, Colorado, where he will take up his residence.

The Welsh Mountain Fire. The fire in the Weish mountain which egan on Sunday morning is still burning. n hundred acres of timber land have en burned over and much valuable timber destroyed. The burned district belongs so a number of landowners. It is impossible as yet to estimate the damage. The fire is supposed to have started from a spark from a locomotive on the railroad near the Sorrel Horse hotel.

Ea Route to Europe Rev. James O'Rellly, cf St. Patrick's Oatholic church, York, arrived in Lancaster this afternoon, and will to-morrow, with H. Z. Rhoads, of this city, leave Lancaster for Europe. Father O'Reilly received a handsome purse from his parishioners before his departure from York. Mr. Rhoads was entertained by a dozen friends at Hoppie's restaurant, in Centre Square, last

They are Now M. D'A. Among the medical graduates at the University of Pennsylvania on Tuesday were Eil Barr Landis and Harry B. wely, of this city, and Lewis A. Salade, of Tameque, formerly of Franklin and Mar-chall college. Among the dental graduates was George A. Sullivan, son of Michael

A Giri Diappears. A daughter of John Good, aged 18 years, living between Miliway and Akron, has diseppeared from home. She left her lather's residence on Sunday afternoon to go to a dressmaker's, since which time she has not been seen or heard of. The neighborhood is greatly excited over her myste-ricus disappearance. An Attempted Robbery. Last night an attempt was made by a third to sater the rear doors of the houses Mo. 240 and 242 West Vine street. The inmess heard the third at work and frightmest him away by shooting at him. Suspicion rests on a party seen loitering in the pelighborhood.

They Shot Each Other Dend. General Wert Adams, postmaster, and John H. Martin, editor of the New Mississippian, met in the street of Jackson, Miss., Tuesday afternoon and opened fire on each other. General Adams was hit three or four times in the head, and Martin was hit twice. Both are dead.

Pure Breed. From the Pittsburg Chron'cle Telegraph. "le that your dog, Squildig?" "Yes; fine animal, toc. Here, Rover." (Whistless vainly for him.) "He doesn't appear to obey very well." "Oh, that shows he's a pure breed. He's a tarrier, you see."

Oak and Hickory Wood at Public Sale.
On Saturday, May 12, 1888, will be sold at public sale, on the premises of Christian Charles, in Masor township, Lancaster county, Pa, three miles west of Lancaster, on the road leading from the Columbia pike to Groff's mill: 150 cords oak and hickory wood, oak cabin, chips by the lot, etc. A credit of six months will be given. Sale to commence at one o'clock p in. of said day.

m1-2id W& Altw. A. M. KALBACH,

This Evening.—" She Stoops to Conquer" will be given this evening by an amateur troups in Mæunerchor hall. Tickets are for sale at Fon Dersmith's book store. Carefully designed costumes have arrived from New York, and the final rehearsal was pronounced a success by competent crities. The efforts of these ladies and gentlemen on behalf of a worthy charity should be encouraged by a crowded house, and they have spared no rouble or expense to ensure a thoroughly enoyabla entertainment.
Hi Henry's Minstrels -To morrow Hi Henry's

Minatrel company will appear in the opera house and it is likely that this will be the last show of the kind this season. The troups includes twenty-five performers, the majority o whom are well known. They travel in Mr, Henry's own car, in which they also sleep and eat. The car has proved a great advertise-ment to the show. The company has always drawn well here and they are likely to do so
