MEXT DOOR TO COURT HOUSE

Harching Bard Bolled Rggs. From the Chicago Tribune. A man who sells butter, eggs and cheese in a State street basement has invented an advertising dodge that will probably get him mobbed. On one side of the hole in the pavement, which is the entrance to shops of that class, stands a glass oute. For months past it has contained samples of butter and cheese, but yesterday morning its contents inspired a degree of asionishment in passers by that caused a large number of people to be late to business. What they saw was a dezen highly-colored

What they saw was a dozen highly-colored Easter eggs on a cast from arrangement with a lighted kerosene lamp attached, labeled "Golden Gate Incubator; Watch 'Em Hatch." The shells of several of the eggs were indented, and through a crack in one could be seen a little chick actually caught in the act of being hatched. Around the floor of the case bits of colored shell were scattered, and, most marvellous of all, the chickens which had just picked their way out of them and were hopping about as lively as crickets, were like the eggs, of all the colors of the rainbow. A thermometer resting against the cast from arrangement registered 62½ degrees.

"That's right," said a seedy, middle-aged man carrying a dinner-basket; "that's the tem perature required to hatch eggs artificially. Even 62 degrees would chill 'sin, and 53 degrees would give 'em it epip."

the pin, "
"W'y bless my sou!!" cried an old lidy
who had driven in from the country with a firkin of tutter, "who ever set eyes on a place an' blue chicken before!"
"Ala't the eggs the same color?" inqu red the man with the dinner-backet ar-

"Mesos the colorin soaked through,"
suggested a farmer, whose load of radiabes
and lettuce was awaiting a purchaser
around the corner on South Water street.
"Ye see the chick that's just bein' hatched is white an' so is the sheit."

"Bah," said a new-comer contemptuously, "they're Easter egg, and they've been boiled. Did you ever near of a boiled clear to the curb, and the debate as to how the chickens came to be colored like the eggs had become general and rather excieggs had become general and rather exci-ted. The seedy man insisted that it was a natural law that newly hatched chickens were invariably of the same color as the shell of the egg which gave them birth. Be quoted Scripture in support of his position; it Jacob could raise striped cattle or not at his own sweet will, why could not a true believer of the nineteenth contury raise red, white and blue chickens? The seedy ish succeeded in convincing nearly every ody but the individual who had asserted he eggs were boiled and corsequently

"These chickens," he said, "have been hatched out by some old hen and painted with a camel's hair brush and different colored inks by the proprietor of the shop just to attract a crowd and advertise his

"Here comes the proprietor now," said the seedy man, "ask him."

The proprietor was calm and business-ill e. He opened the glass case, turned the wick of the burning lamp a triffs, exam-ined two or three eggs carefully, and shut up the case again. The crowd watched him in breathless silence.
"Werey't those Easter eggs, boiled as "Weren't those Easter eggs, boiled as bard as bricks?" inquired the sceptical in-dividual as the proprietor was returning to

"Certainly. Why do you ask?"
"And you expect them to hatch?" "What! hatch boiled eggs?"
"Young man, did you over run an incu

"N-no; but-" "Well, then, you don't know what you're talking about." And the proprietor returned to his besement.

After dark, when the crowd had dispersed, the seedy man emerged from the basement, turned out the lamp in the glass case, threw an old cost over the parti-col-ored chicks, and put up the shutters.

The Earth Exhales Poison

To the air in localities where vegetation, sotted by freshets, is laid bare to the sun's acres, in the vicinity of the great tributaries of the Mississippi and the Missouri, in the South and Southwest, give forth this feverladen miasmatic vapor, disseminating maladen miasmatic vapor, disseminating malarial pestilence broadcast. Not only throughout the great west, but wherever on this continent fever and ague makes its periodic appearance—and what locality is wholly exempt from it?—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the recognized defense, the most highly accredited and popular means of cure. Fever and ague, billious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake are eradicated by it. Nor is it less potent when used to remove constipation, liver complaint and dyspepsia, kidney troubles, nervousness and rheumatic aliments. Use it upon the first appearance of these troubles and with persistence.

The Population of Lancaster Is about thirty thousand, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others.
