

READY FOR BUSINESS.

CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK OF COLUMBIA OPENED ITS DOORS.

On Monday, May 7, this morning the Central National Bank of Columbia commenced business in the handsome quarters, No. 201 Locust street, under very favorable circumstances.

The board secured the building of Central National Bank on a ten year lease and immediately set to work to make the building a success.

The room is fitted up with black walnut counters and desks, which are only temporary, as the bank has contracted for handsome new furniture, which will not be ready for about sixty days.

The capital stock of the bank is $100,000, divided into shares of $100 each which are held by one hundred and three stockholders, composed principally of town business men.

The meeting of the male membership of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held this evening, when the committee appointed to prepare estimates of repairing the church will make a report.

The public meeting will be held in the opera house to night, when the centennial question will be finally decided.

Officer Wittke arrested Emanuel Barkenbeler and Harry Risinger on Saturday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Dr. W. W. Barntabert left town yesterday for Cincinnati, where he will attend the meetings of the American Medical Society as a delegate from the Lancaster City and County Medical Society.

Mr. J. W. Brubaker, proprietor of the Tremont house, is in Atlantic City, arranging to run the Delaware house during the summer.

Mr. Joseph Poorman, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday in town with friends. Council will meet on Tuesday night.

RICE JOHNSON & Co. have kindly loaned one of their Corners plan for the rental at the residence of Mr. A. W. Bear, No. 64 North Line street, to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.

The Big Show To-morrow. To-morrow morning the big Forough show will arrive in this city from Wilmington at an early hour, and every small boy in town will be glad to hear of it.

DEATHS. In this city, Charles Sinkabein, in his thirty-eighth year. The relatives and friends of the family, also the Pastors of the Union, No. 24 are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, No. 8 Seymour street, on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
