There was a sign upon a fence The sign was "Paint,"
And everybody that went by,
Sinner and saint,
Put out a finger, touched the ience
And onward spid,
And as they wiped their finger tips,
"It is," they said.

Say, if you go up as far as the coupe office tell 'em to send me down a turnout to roll me up home. It must be getting near our dinner hour, and we have fourteen invitations out A Story of Thid Stevens.

A writer in the Boston Herald relates that Thaddeus Stevens had two weakee : an unconquerable love for poker, and a heart so tender that he would give his last cent to relieve distress. Between the two he was usually very far from "flush." One night he had a run of luck "flush." One night he had a run of luck at cards, came out winner to the amount of an even $100, and when his checks were cashed he received a crisp new bill of that denomination. Next morning he went to the capital at the usual time, and was there waylaid by a soldier's widow, who had a piteous tale of sorrow and suffering to relate. Stevens put his hand in his pocket, found the $100 bill—it was all he had—and handed it to the astonished widow. A fellow-member was standing by who had seen the game the night before, and knew where the money came from. Stevens caught his eye, smiled, and by way of explanation said: "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform."

The Earth Exhales Poison To the air in localities where vegetation, rotted by freshets, is laid bare to the sun's eays by the retiring flood. Millions of square acres, in the vicinity of the great tributaries of the Mississippi and the Missouri, in the South and Southwest, give forth this fever-laden miasmatic vapor, disseminating ma-larial pestilence broadcast. Not only through-out the great west, but wherever on this con-tinent fever and ague makes its periodic ap-pearance—and what locality is wholly exempt from it?—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the recognized defense, the most highly accredi-ted and popular means of cure. Pever and ague, billous remittent, dumb ague and ague cake are eradicated by it. Nor is it less potent when used to remove constipation, liver com-plaint and dyspepsia, kidney troubles, ner-vousness and rheumatic ailments. Use it up-on the first appearance of these troubles and with persistence, South and Southwest, give forth this fever-
