Forepaugh's Show In Town,

At an early hour this morning. Forepaugh's great circus and wild west show arrived in town, and the workmen started at once to move towards the ground, at the upper end of Walnut street, where the circus was exhibiting. Strangers came early from all sections of the county and the streets were soon full of visitors The street parade was given at 10 o'clock, when a very creditable display was made. The parade included charlois, fourteen elephants, several bands, animal cages containing tigers, lions, bears and other animals, the Wild West show with a cowboy brass band and many other features. The parade passed down Walnut and up Locust and was witnessed by a large crowd of people.

Vislang Firemen.

The Rainbow fire company, of Reading, 40 equipped members and the Ringgold band, arrived in town this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The firemen occupied two special cars, trimmed with flags and evergreens A delegation of the Columbia fire company received the visitors and escorted them to the hose house, where Major J. W. Yccum delivered an address of welcome. The day was spent in a royal manner, being entertained at the Franklin house, a street

Services will be held in Trinity Reformed church to-morrow at 10:15 a. m., in observance of Ascension day.

Officer Wittick and Detective Wood, of Forepaugh's circus, caught a man in the act of relieving a lady of her pocketbock. He was housed for the day.

Sampling the Butter.

To day the revenue officers began taking amples of all kinds of butter sold by grocors and other dealers in this city. The samples are placed in a small glass vessel shaped like a bottle and with a label having the name of the person selling. These sam ples will be given over to an expert who will analyze to ascertain if they contain any mpurities.

John R. Sheeley's Faneral; The funeral of John R. Sheeley, whose terrible death by being crushed teneath 5,200 tons of iron on Sunday morning at m, has already been mentioned ok pince to day. There was a service at he house, No. 426 West Lemon street, this city, at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. R. T. Gray, after which the relatives and friends, with the body in charge, proceeded by rail to Coatesville, where the interment - se made.

The number of the case is 141,823. He also had in his possession two confederate notes papers giving the route of the Barnum and Forepaugh circuses, and $11.21 in money. He will be heard the latter part of the week by Alderman Deen. Death of Mrs. Catha-Ine McGinnis. Mrs. Catharine McGinnis, widow of the late Andrew McGinnis, died on Taesday, aged 71 years. Her husband was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad a few years ago and the shock received by his death un dermined her health. She leaves a number of children. One of her sons is Goorge McGiunis, a blacksmith employed at the Harrisburg car works, and a second son is John McGinnis, a cigarmaker. Repatring the Main. To-day the city received two pieces of twenty-inch water pipe from Reading, and one will be used to make the repairs to the large main on Orange street, near North Queen. There has been a big leak for several days past, and workmen began making the repairs this afternoon. Yesterday wine George Kiehl and family, who reside on the Harrisburg turnpike near Dillerville, were in town seeing the circus, their home was entered by thieves, who broke the lock off one of the doors They stole Mr. Kiehl's new sult of clothes a revolver and a lot of old coin, which amounted to several dollars. The thieves left no trace behind, and it was no doubt the work of tramps.

Before the Mayor

The mayor disposed of three cases this morning. One was a resident of Parkes burg, who came to this city to see the circus. Lancaster whisky paralyzed him and he was hauled to the station house on a wheelbarrow. He was discharged this morning upon the payment of costs. Two lodgers were also discharged.

Furchased a Building Lot. Mr. Graybill Long, of the firm of Long & Davidson, wholesale merchants on West Chestnut street, has purchased from Myers & Rathfon a lot of ground on the east side of North Duke street, near New, for $4,300 Mr. Long will erect a handsome dwelling la the near future.

Going to Omatia.

Morris Cooper, with his wife and family, of Georgetown, this county, has purchased tickets for Omaha, Nebraska, from D. S. Miller, sgent of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad. They will remove thither this week.

Orange Bloseoms to Lebanon, At 8 o'clock Tuesday morning Mr. Adolphus Reincehl and Miss Lizzie Wagner were joined in matrimony, at the real dence of the bride, in Labanon. The cere-mony was performed by Rev. O. P. Steckel, of St. Mark's Reformed church.

Surety of the Peace.

Michael Aultman says that Lowis Krauss threatened to kill him, and for that reason he has brought suit against him before Alderman McConomy, charging him with surely of the perce. The securid has been held for a hearing.

Eisty Years Old.

Deputy Prothonolary Wm. E. Kreider was sixty years old on Tuesday. Although he has been in the prothonotary's office - for over twenty-one years he is still active and able to do as much work as the junior clerks.

Threatened to Kill. George White was prosecuted to day before Alderman Barr for threatening to kill

John Rutter, a countryman. A warrant was issued for his arrest. One Pension.
