White is each roof, dim is each dwelling's door,
And peace with perfect rest its bosom fills.

The Mystery About Baking Powder.
To the great mass of people the composition of these powders is unknown, and practically the only means which the public have had of obtaining any knowledge of their composition has been the unscrupulous statements of retailing manufacturers, each trying to outdo the other in stating the quantity and quality of the horrible ingredients to be found in all powders of their kind.

The Alum powders consist of burnt alum with the requisite soda and starch, and are the cheapest of all. In fact, it is generally safe to assume that any powder offered at a very low price is made of alum.
