"JULIUS CÆSAR" RECITED.

HANNIBAL A. WILLIAMS BEFORE AN AUDIENCE ON THURSDAY EVENING.

Names of Patrons of the Entertainment—Result of a Pigeon Shooting Match—The Strine-Armstrong Nuptials—Officers of the Club of Wheelman Elected.

COLUMBIA, May 11.—A Shakespearean recital was given in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church last evening by Mr. Hannibal A. Williams, of New York. The recital was given under the patronage of Hon. and Mrs. H. M. North, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Detwiler, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Yocum, Mr. W. H. Fendrich, Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Lineaweaver, Mr. and Mrs. George Crane, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Haldeman, Hon. and Mrs. C. S. Kauffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Given, Captain and Mrs. F. A. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Kauffman, Dr. Houston Mifflin, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meyers, Hon. and Mrs. E. K. Smith, Mr. William H. Moore.

There was a good attendance, and every person was delighted with the rendition of "Julius Cæsar." The recital commenced at 8 o'clock and ended at 10:30 o'clock.

A Shooting Match.

A live pigeon shooting match took place yesterday afternoon in Heisle's woods between Dr. W. G. Taylor, Jno. P. Broome, M. P. Root, F. W. Heckel, W. A. Heilig, B. F. Heise, C. F. Walker, S. P. Wayne, W. H. Fendrich, J. A. Warren, of town, and Chas. Franciscus, of Lancaster. The first match was five birds and was won by Mr. Franciscus, killing the entire number. B. F. Heise killed four birds and took second place. The second match was at three birds, when Franciscus killed the three. He refused to take the prize and it was given to Walker, who also killed the same number.

A Wedding.

Mr. U. Grant Strine, son of ex Sheriff Jacob Strine, and Miss Annie W. Armstrong, a daughter of the late James Armstrong, were united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Sylvanus Stall, of Lancaster, and was witnessed by the immediate families and a few personal friends of the contracting parties. The wedding took place at No. 429 Locust street, where the couple will make their home.

Officers Elected.

The Columbia wheelmen held their annual meeting last evening, when the following officers were elected: President, H. F. Yergey; vice president, C. W. Strickler, secretary and treasurer, Enos S. Maun; captain, John S. Musser; lieutenant, H. L. Oberlin.

Shipping Cattle.

Messrs. John Yeager and Solomon Rosenthal, of Lancaster, cattle dealers, shipped two car loads to Jersey City, where they will be put on a ship and taken to London. The cattle were in excellent condition, and were purchased from H. W. Mann, of Manor township. In the car load shipped by Mr. Rosenthal was a bull weighing 2,204 pounds.

Engine No. 1186 was doing some shifting in the coal yards this morning, when Jacob Welsh, a brakeman, was struck in the stomach with a pole. He was slightly injured and sent to his home in Harrisburg.

Rev. F. J. Clay Moran, rector of St. Paul's church, left for Atlantic city to-day for the benefit of his health.

St. Paul's choir went to Safe Harbor last evening, where they furnished music at the Mission of the Ascension. This mission was founded four years ago by Rev. Moran, and the fourth anniversary was celebrated last evening. Rev. John Graham, of Marietta, conducted the services. The choir were entertained by Rev. Theo. Patterson, and returned home on a special train at 11 o'clock.

Chiquesalunga Tribe of Red Men will go to York on Tuesday, to attend the Red Men's parade. They will be accompanied by the Silver Springs band.

DEATH OF PETER BAKER.

A Well-Known Printer of This City, Who Was a Native of Marietta.

Peter Baker, foreman of the composing room of the Lancaster Examiner, died this morning at 11:15 of organic affection of the heart, with which he had been suffering about a year. He leaves a wife, who was a Miss Channell, and two children.

Mr. Baker was born in Marietta and at the time of his death he was 41 years old. He was the youngest son of Peter Baker, Sr., who was three times married, who was the father of twenty-five children, and who died about twenty-five years ago. D. G. Baker, esq., is the only surviving child by the first wife. James Baker, of Delta, York county, and Mrs. Ellen Rhoads, wife of Girard Rhoads, of Marietta, are the surviving children of the second wife. The surviving children by the third wife, whose maiden name was Susan Trainor, are Harrison, of Wrightsville; Frank, of Mountville; John, of Denver, Colorado; Susan, wife of James Murray, of Wrightsville, and Pauline, wife of Daniel Hoak, of Wrightsville, with whom the mother resides.

Peter, was the youngest of the family. Early in life he set out to make his own living. He was a mule driver on the canal, an apprentice to the printing business on the old Lancaster Express, a jour printer in several newspaper offices, and for the past sixteen years was foreman of the Lancaster Examiner composing room.

He was regarded as one of the quickest and best type-handlers in the city, and could straighten out "pied" type and prepare forms for the press with great rapidity. All the boys in the office had a warm affection for him and will greatly miss him from his accustomed place.

Although suffering greatly for several months past, he always had a great desire to visit the office, and even last night, though then so close to death, he visited the office as usual.

When only sixteen years of age (though he said he was nineteen) he enlisted July 10, 1864, in Co. C, 197th Regt. Pa. Vol., Capt. John H. Landis, for 100 days. He was sent to Rock Island, Ill., to guard the Confederate prisoners confined there, and at the expiration of his term of service returned to Pennsylvania, and for the greater portion of the time since then has worked at his trade. He had hosts of friends who will sincerely mourn his death.

SEMINARY COMMENCEMENT.

Exercises Held in the College Chapel—Theses by Graduates and Music by a Choir.

The programme for the seminary commencement, as published in the INTELLIGENCER, was carried into effect very successfully Thursday evening in the college chapel before a large and appreciative audience. Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D. D., conducted the exercises. The chorus, under the direction of Mr. Walter Bausmann, rendered quite a musical treat in the selections named on the programme. Mrs. J. B. Kieffer, who is always willing to render her valuable assistance upon such occasions, displayed her taste almost to perfection in the decorations.

The theses were quite interesting and characteristic, indicating, for the most part, careful research and telling evidence not only of thorough theological training but also faithful application and use of the advantages and opportunities of the seminary course. After the delivery of the theses Rev. Amos H. Kremer, D. D., of Carlisle, Pa., president of the board of visitors, made a few appropriate remarks, after which he gave each one of the eight graduates a testimonial or diploma.

Dr. Gerhart then announced the theological seminary closed for this year. The next seminary year will begin with that of the college on August 30th.

Almost all of the graduated class have received calls to charges and some have accepted the call and will enter upon active work in the near future.

A number of the students still in the seminary will supply different pulpits during the summer.

The Diagnothian anniversary this evening begins at 7:30.

The frescoing in the Goethean hall is about finished.

A Dancing Master Surprised.

Thursday evening of last week Prof. Ed. Hall closed his dancing school. Last evening about 40 couples of his pupils gave him a big surprise by gathering at his home in Centre Square. A long table was spread in the old billiard hall next to the hotel where an elegant supper was given and everybody enjoyed themselves to a late hour.

Three Elizabethtown Notes.

From the Chronicle.

At the annual meeting of the Mount Tunnel Cemetery association, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. Roem; secretary, J. F. Ober, treasurer, Geo. F. Wagner.

The indications are that there will be a large gathering of German Baptists, or Old Brethren at North Manchester, Ind., on the 18th of this month, at their annual meeting which continues one week.

The Lutheran ministerial conference of Lancaster county met in the Lutheran church on Tuesday. Revs. F. P. Mayser and C. L. Fry, of Lancaster, Revs. Earley, of Millersville, and Umbenhen of Mount Joy, were present.

Telephone Connection.

The Columbia Daily News office, No 188 south 2d street, Columbia, Pa., is connected with the telephone exchange.

THE Canadian Pacific Railway will send free to those who address E. V. Skinner, General Eastern Agent, 317 Broadway, New York, several illustrative books giving valuable information for parties contemplating a visit to Alaska or the Pacific Coast. Their rates are lower than via other Lines, and the scenery enroute the most magnificent in the World. Sleeping cars are run from the Atlantic to Pacific Ocean without change, and their dining cars furnish superb meals at seventy-five cents each.

Amusements.

The Coming Concert.—On Thursday, May 17, the grand concert in aid of St. Joseph's hospital will be given in Fulton opera house, and it promises to be a great pecuniary and musical success. Eminent vocalists will lend their aid to the work, and the fact that such musicians as Rev. Henry G. Ganss, Prof. Carl Thorbahn and Mr. Walter Bausman are in charge of it is sufficient assurance that the event will be notable in the musical history of Lancaster. The diagram for reserved seats is now open at Fulton opera house.

DEATHS

McGINNIS.—May 8, 1888, in this city, Mrs. Catharine McGinnis, widow of the late Andrew McGinnis, in the 71st year of her age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from her late residence, 731 Marietta avenue, on Saturday afternoon. Services at First Reformed church at 2 o'clock. Interment at Lancaster cemetery.

ZOOK.—On the 11th inst., in this city, Mary Cecelia, wife of Benjamin Zook and daughter of Walter and Mary Costello, in her 26th year.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the husband's residence, No. 543 North Shippen street, on Monday morning at 8½ o'clock. High Mass at St. Mary's church. Interment at St. Mary's cemetery. mll-2td*
