Is He From Lancaster ?

Two young men found last Sunday night the body of an unknown man lying on a hillside on the land of the Rev. A. B. Cress, in Baltimore county, about one mile and a half south of Freeland station, on the Northern Central railros 1. The man had been dead about ten days or two weeks. He was about six feet high, weighed 180 pounds, and were a dark sandy full leard, slightly tinged with gray. He was dressed in a dark brown pla'd suit and overcost, a drab colored low-crowned felt hat and calfskin boots. In his pockets were copies of Philadelphia and Lancaster papers of April 6 to April 21, a silver watch, comb, knife, book and 27 cents loose. Nothing showed that the man died by violence. Justice E 1. Palmer summoned a jury, with Mr. G. P. Morris, foreman, which gave a verdict of death from unknown causes.

Fell From a Step Ladder. Miss Clara McGinnis, a domestic in the house of E. F. Bowman, at No. 150 East Chestnut street, met with an accident yes terday. She was standing on a step ladder cleaning the transom of the front door. One of the supports of the ladder suddenly gave away and the young woman was thrown heavily into the hallway. She struck her head and was stunned so badly that she had to be assisted to her feet. Her only lujury was a slightly bruised head.

Restored to His Parents Stapley Harner, the three-year-old son of Cashier Harner, who wandered away from his home in the western section of the city on Tuesday morning, was restored to his parents late in the atternoon. He was found in a field in the northeastern section of the city by one of the employes at Fraint's lock works.

An Alarm for Nothing. This morning a fire alarm was struck from box 42, at Lemon and Mulberry treets, between 6 and 7 o'clock. Th cause of it was that a lamp in a chicken incubator in the yard of Harrison Buckius, at No. 326 North Mulberry street, exploded. The fire was extinguished before any damage had been done, and there was no lices airy whatever for the slarm.

Amusement.

To Morrow Night's Concert.—The splendid concert for the benefit of St. Joseph's hospital in Fulton opera house to-morrow night promises to have very large patronage, as more than 50 seats have been sold. It will be under the conduct of Rev. Henry G. Ganes, of Milton, Pa., who was a resident of Lancaster until three years age, and who has achieved an enviable reputation as a musical composer and conductor. There will be a quartette of out-of-town talent, representing some of the best of New York's vocalists, and there will be a local chorus of 60 voices to swell the melody of the occasion. The cause for which the concert is given, i.e., to aid a worthy charity, ought to inspire a very large attendance, and those who have not yet secured seats should do so at once at the box office at Fulton opera house.

"Chip O' the Old Block."—On Friday and Saturday evenings, the new and funny comedy entitled "Chip o' the Old Block," will be played in Fulton opera house. It has already been seen here this season when it gave the greatest satisfaction. The company includes Robert L. Scotti and Harry Mills, the popular comedians, with pretty little Ada Melrose, the charming soubrette. In the play a great many new and taking songs are introduced with great success.

The stock market this morning opened slightly lower, with Richmond & West Point exceptionally weak and 1% per cent. The weakness of the stock was attributed to sellweakness of the stock was attributed to soling of the stock by one of the parties who recently beight heavily of it for the purpose of ing control of the election of officers, but is to take place on the list. After the first call the buying of the coal stocks strengthened the whole list, and by noon there was a recovery of 14 to 1 per cent. The market has since been dull.
