NICHOLAS S. DANNER INJURED.

While Accompanying the Knights Templar to Pittsburg He Falls From the Train. Lancaster Commandery No. 13, Knights Tempiar, left this city on Western Express, at 11:10 Saturday night for Pit'sburg, where they will participate in the annual state con clave. On the special car, which they had, there were forty-eight memberr, but about fifteen others went out Sunday and to day.

The McKeesport band joined the command-ery in Pittsburg.

An sceident in which one of the members of Lancaster Commandery made a very parrow escape from death, occurred at Lewistown Junction about two o'clock Sun-day morning. The Sir Knight who was injured was Nicholas S. Danner, of Paradise, the well known ex-hotel proprietor. Mr. Danner took his wife with him and she cooupled a sea: in the front part of the train. Mr. Danner was in the rear car with the members of the Commandery for a time, and when the train was near Lewistown, where it does not stop, he started to the front to join his wife. He walked out of the rear oar and while he was on the platform the train suddenly swung around a curve, Mr. Danner was thrown with great torce to the ground, and was badly stunned. He was found a half bour afterwards by a watchman who took him to Lewistown. Word was telegraphed ahead to Mrs. Dan-ner. She was intercepted at Altoona and hman who took him to Lewistown. at once returned to Lewistown, where she joined her husband. Dr. Leaman, of Leaman Piace, was also sent for, and he went to Lewistown Sunday morning and ded the injured man. Mr. Danner, his wife and the doctor came him Sunday. He right hand and arm were also badly cut, but strange to say he had no bones broken and there is no internal injury. The train was running at a lively rate when the accident occurred, and it was almost a miracle that Mr. Danner was not killed, as he weighs about 200 pounds. As Mr. Danner was alone on the pistform from which he was thrown the other members knew nothing of his accident until after they had left Altoons. It seems that as the train neared Lewis town the brakeman yelled "next station were nearing Altoona and as he desired to show his wife the mountain scenery he started front for her. After getting out of the Knights' car he found that the one next which was a sleeper, was locked. He leaned against the brake, which quickly turned and that caused him to fall from the Saturday night at the house of William Liewelyn, Mr. and Mrs Liewelyn were away from home during the evening, leaving their children in charge of Mrs. Lewis, who was Mrs. Liewelyn's mother, shortly before midnight the house took fire and was partially destroyed. When the flames had been extinguished Liewelyn and his wife returned, and it was discovered that the co-cupants of the house had perished. The children were sged 6 and 4 years, and 18 months, respectively.

Before the Mayor. James McTague, an old offender, appear ed before the mayor this morning. He tried to persuade the mayor that he was arrested for doing nothing, but the testimony of the officer convinced the mayor that he should be punished. He was discharged upon payment of costs. Edward Flickinger was arrested on Saturday night by Officer Frennard for fighting at the corner of Water and Wainut payment of costs.

A Brakeman seriously Injured. John Kelly, a brakemen on Coatesville local freight, was badly injured at Bird-in-Hand this morning. He was poing cars on a siding about 5:30 o'clock when the pole ke and he was caught between the ends. He had four ribs broken and was otherwise internally injured. He was attended by Dr. Miller, of Bird-in Hand, and was brought to Lancaster on News Express. On Way Passenger he was taken to his home in Columbia. Legislator Gatchell Prosecuted. Dr. J. C. Gatchell, one of the Republican nominees for the legislature, was prosecuted for larceny as ballee a few days ago, before Alderman Halbach, by H. L. Sutton, one of the cierks in the recorder's office. Sutton was one of the jurors in a lunsey commission, and the allegation is that Gatchell drew the fees of Sutton and appropriated them to his own use. When Gatchell heard of the ution he paid Sutton his fee, the suit was withdrawn and Gatchell paid the costs.

A Driving Accident. Saturday afternoon Mr. Busser, who keeps the hotel at McGovernyille, left his norse and buggy standing in front of the McGrann house. A milkman named Wolgemuth came by and seemed to be paying more attention to a long horn he was blowing than to where he was going. He drove into Mr. Busser's buggy, breaking a wheel to pieces and doing other slight damage.

The Boston Herald, in furtherance of its profit-sharing agreement of something over a year ago, divided $10,000 among its em-ployee on Saturday.

THE PENNSYLVANIA GERMANS. Dr. R. K. Bushrie, Lociares Sefere the Mil-

MILLERAVILLE, Pa., May 19 — This even-ing Dr. R. E. Buehrle, Superintendent of the Lancaster city schools, delivered a very instructive lecture entitled "The Pennayl-vania German." The first Germans came to this country in 1676, in the ship Concord. to this country in 1676, in the ship Concord. They came hither to escape from the cruel persecutions to which they were subjected in the Fatheriand. They were not adventurers, but came here to stay. Many came with means sufficient to buy lands and the necessaries of life. He referred to the destruction of the Palatinate as one of the causes that brought the Germans to our coasts. What have they done? They have converted a wilderness into a garden. The growth of Philadelphia is an evidence of the untiring industry of these people. The growth of Philadelphis is an evidence of the untiring industry of these people. They built the first furnace in Pittsburg in 1792, and were early acknowledged as among our forement mechanics as well as the best of farmers. Their plety has never been questioned and they were among the first to preach the tolerance of all sects. They were always on the side of freedom and always opposed to slavery. Their saal for education is shown by the value of their school property and the salaries paid their teachers. He paid a glowing tribute to our normal school which he said was maintained principally. by Pennsylvania Germans in this a Ger man district. Their language is well suited to their vocations. It contains but few words, but these are sufficient to express all the thoughts necessitated by their callings. No one should despise the language of the Pennsylvania Germana. The speaker read a poem in Pennsylvania German and then translated it into English. His lecture was attentively listened to

New York, May 21.—Bishop Warren opened to-day's proceedings of the Methodist Episcopal conference. Amos Shinkle, of Kentucky, offered a resolution asking that the bishops submit to the annual con ference a plan changing the ratio of repre sentation to prevent the increase of ministers in the present representative body. The motion was tabled and ordered to be

The reports of the standing committees were handed in, laid on the table and ordered to be printed. The committee on the judiciary in their report sustained Bishop Warren's decision in the New Jersry conference that he could entertain a motion to place a minister on the supernumerary list against home on Day Express Sunday, which stopped at Leaman Place for them. E. Tompkinson, but the committee decided against him. The report was adopted. Rev. D. Walah, of Kentucky, offered a

Rev. Sanford Hunt, of the book concern gations shall be incurred by this general conference regarding the coming ecumeni-cal conference. Col. Ray Hunt, Delegate Cumback's successor, jumped to his feet and created some merriment and shouting out "If it is proposed to have a good time let us pay our share of the expenses." Delegate Smart solemnly saked where the money was to come from. After some de-bate Delegate Hunt's resolution was adopted. Secretary Monroe read the report of the committee on the order of elec and as this referred to the selecting of bishops to-morrow it naturally created s The report of the committee appointed to arrange the order of elections presented the following :

The election shall be by order. First blahops; second, book agents, one New York and two Cincinnati; third, secretar ies, one missionary, two church extension, three freedmens and four Sunday school and tract societies ; fourth, editors.

There was a bested debate over an amend ment to the report offered by Rev. Dr. Leonard, of Cincinnati. The amendment asked that the name of each candidate should have the initial and the state and conference he represents printed or written on his ballot. Notwithstanding considerable opposition to this amendment the report with it was finally adopted.

After some routine business the conference adjourned at 12:30 p.m. in order to allow the great "Hamlet" aggregation to rehearse for to night's Wallack testimonial

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening Rev. Dr. J. Y. Mitchell gave instead of his regular sermon, readings from editorials of the secular press relative to the anniversary of the Presbyterian Centennial being held in Philadelphia. He told the mission it would perform, that of devising some means of re-uniting the church North and South; it will be remembered the split occurred in 1861 over the resolu tions of Rev. Dr. Spring, of New York in the general assembly held in that city, imploring the church to stand by the North the Southern members withdrawing from the body and establishing what has been known since as the "Southern General Assembly;" Dr. Mitchell asked what better outcome can emanate from this anniversary than the forming of common brothergood with no North, no South It is not often these wielders of the pen furnish sermons for the clergy, but it was plainly shown how able they are to do so from the attentive manner in which Dr. Mitchell was listened to. The music was BORNED OF $1,000.

A Former Resident of Sphrats is Robbed by Mrs. Elizabeth S. Shirk, a former resident of Ephrata, but who now resides a Reading, was robbed on Saturday of $1,000. Some months ago there was trou-ble between herself and husband on socount of her being too intimate with other men, and the result was a separation. She removed to Reading and took her children with her. She was the owner of some property at Ephreta, and this she sold a short time ago, and a few days ago received the purchase money, $1,500. Of that amount she expended $500 in furnishing her Read ing house, and the balance she kept abou her, having neglected to put it in bank.

The man who got away with the money was John Robinson, the Englishman who lived in this city for several months, and was employed as a canvassing agent by the Metropolitin Life Insurance company. Robinson became acquainted with Mrs. weeks ago went to Reading and boarded with her. He took a great interest in Mrs. Shirk's children, and soon ingratiated him-self into the confidence of the mother.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Shirk and Robinson visited Miller's City park togeth er, the woman carrying the $1,000 in her dress pocket. Upon their return home Rob-inson lay down upon a couch in the sitting room and apparently went to sleep. Mrs. Shirk retired to her room, and contrary to her usual custom, she having previously kept the money in a drawer, left is in the pocket of her dress, which she threw upon a chair, and about 12 o'clock went to bed. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the servant girl returned home, and upon going up stairs Mrs. Shirk asked her whether Robinson was still lying upon the couch in the sitting room. Being told he was not, the girl was told to go to the man's room and see whether he was there. Not being in bed, a further investigation was made, when it was found that Mrs. Shirk's pocket-book containing the $1,000 was missing, the back door was open and Robinson was also

The police authorities are on the lookou for Robinson, but have not as yet caught him. He is described as 5 feet 7 inches in beight, has flery red hair, a small mous of the same hue, a very red face and weight

MR. MILLS 19 HOPEFUL.

He Believes His Bill Will Pass the Bons

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Chairman Mills says he is glad the general debate on his tariff bill is ended. Had a vote been taken three weeks ago he believes the mesen would have been defeated. Since the siz conventions had been held, however, seven gentlemen have changed their posit several votes to spare on the final passage of the bill. In explanation of his of to extending Mr. Randall's time last Friday Mr. Mills says he objected because Mes McKinley and Randall violated an expe agreement previously made as to when and how long he should speak, and that during his (Mr. Milie') absence from the

For at least a week the House will give the tariff bill a rest and turn attenti appropriation bills. In the mean efforts will be made by the leaders of both parties to come to some understanding specing a final vote on the bill as it a stands. The proposition made to the Rapublicans by Mr. Mills that they offer then if that is voted down, that a final vote shall be taken on the Mills bill has been seriously considered, and a large part of the Republicans are inclined to accept the proposition. It is hinted that Mr. Raudall has given assurance that the proposition of Mr. Mills, if accepted, will defeat the bit because a sufficient number of Den votes have been pledged against the bill a
