COLUMNIA, May 22 —A very exciting thing main took place on Monday in the made of Chestnut Hill, in the neighborand of Ironville, when a number of hardattended by about two hundred per-interested in this sport, including men a Lancaster, Middletown and Harris ourg. The main was arranged between Cash side presented eighteen birds, all first Hill were two cocks from Columbia, both of which were killed in the fight. Each on was for $80 a side, and with the amount of side betting a large m of money changed hands. Nine bettles were fought, of which Chestnut Hill won three, Marietta three, one draw and two side battles, each side winning one draw fight was considered by the perons present to be one of the gamlest fights ever witnessed. It lasted one hour an wings broken, and pluckily fought intil they could no longer stand up. The Lancaster sports put their money on the Hill birds sgainst Marietts, but the manner in which the fights resulted was not calculated to make either side very Ratirond Bellet.

MT. JOY'S BOARD OF TRADE.

The Membership Fee of $10 Adopted-A Mount Joy, May 22 —An adjourned citisens meeting was held in the council cham-ber last evening to further the organization of the Board of Trade, ex-Burgess Benj M. Greider ciliciating as chairman. Mr. A. Z. Myers, who was appointed a committee to communicate with similar organizations of other placer, for copies of by-laws gov erning said organizations, made his report. The committee appointed to work up an interest for the organization by consul-On motion of Mr. Heffman the membership fee was fixed at $10. This was thought by some to be too much, and Mr. Brunner offered an amendment to make the fee $5. The amendment was lost by a large vote. On motion the secretary was in-structed to draw up several subscrip-tion papers for the committee on ership and subscriptions. While the stary was preparing the papers the ee on memberably and subscrip one was appointed, as follows : East ward, E. Risser and Reuben J. Myers West ward, Peter Brunner and Samuel n. A communication was read from A. S. Kreider, of Landisville, who is looking for a suitable place for his eigar manustory. In it he said he has not perma located at Landisville, as a town the ise of it does not have the advanta, is he ould have for his business. It Mount Joy offers proper inducements he may conzent to locate here. He employs from 50 to 75 persons, both male and female. The secretary having finished the subscription papers a number of signatures were secured. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening.

FELONIOUS ENTRY AND LARCENY. John Boos and Peter Boos to Answer Those John Boos and Peter Boos, charged with nious entry and larceny, were arrested by Officers Barnholt and Wittig on Monday, charged with felonious entry and larceny. The facts as far as developed are as follows: On Friday morning, Frank J. Abel, who is foreman of the cester Chemical works, discovered that the works had been broken into, but, on making examination, failed to discover that house at the extreme end of North Prince, where he lodges, though he boards on Merivatree. On return he Aberty street. On returning to his lodgings in Friday evening he found that his house and been broken into and robbed. The burglars effected an entrance by breaking open a cellar door and from the cellar eding to the kitchen by breaking lock at the head of the cellar From Mr. Abel's room they stole a silver nting-case watch and silver chain, $2.50 pair of gold sleeve-buttons, a pocket Marietta Hollow-ware
