Mrs. John Brunner, of Derry, Dauphin ounty, celebrated her one hundred and first birthday on Wednesday. Her hus-band died forty years ago, and she now re-sides with her son in-law, Christian Begarise, who is almost eighty years old. There is not a single relative on her parents' side, and but very few on her husband's side. She retains her mental faculties, is brighter than many at sixty, enjoys the best of health and really looks younger than she did one year ago. She is an inveterate smoker of the pipe and enjoys it hugely.

Baptist Freacher Kliss His Father-in-Law A singular story of a Baptist preache killing his father-in-law comes up from the Indian territory. Parson Cantrell is a Seventh-day Baptist and his father-in-law, Descon Coffey, went to his field, near Jimtown, last Sunday, where Cantrell was plowing, and not only remonstrated against his working on the Lord's day, but undertook to kick him out of the field. The parson resisted and split his father-in-law's head open with a loc.

You are expected to have it. Heavy buyers visit large stores. Large stores are easily located. Why, said one man to another, I accidently got down West King street on a hunt for a grocery. "I struck it," and when I got inside I "stuck." Yes, positively "stuck." I was amazed. Thought I was in an auction room at first, but when I discovered the large army of buy salesmen shooting their cash sales over the wires, the four immense electric fans, suspended from the ceiling, in constant motion, an electric motor, the Arc light and other attractions, I was soon convinced that I was in the largest grocery store I ever saw. I inquired, and was told it was BEIST'S. I made a note of it. It is
