INSTANCLY RILLED

Baggage-Master Daniel Hickey Losse His Life
While Making Up His Trais.

HARRISBURG, May 24—Daniel Hickey, a baggage-master on the accommodation train between Lancaster and Harrisburg, was killed in the Pennsylvania railroad company's yards this morning. Hickey was engaged in making up his train when he was knocked down by the cars coming together and instantly killed. About twenty cars passed over his body before the train could be stopped. Deceased was a resident of Lancaster and was employed on the railroad for some years. The remains, which were horribly mangled, were removed to the undertaker's, where they were prepared for burtal. The coroner will hold an inquest this afternoon.

BOARDED AT THE ROHRER HOUSE. Mr. Hickey, referred to in the above dis patch, is a man well known in this city and capecially among men connected with the Pennsylvania railroad company. He was born in Ireland, but came to this country many years ago. His parents formerly resided in Philadelphia, but both are now dead, and he has a sister in that city. He has been on the Pennsylvania rali-road for a number of years, and for several years has been employed on Way Passenger, He was first employed as a brakeman, but for a year and a-half past ne has been a baggage master. He boarded at different piaces in this city, but for a year and a-haif he made his home at the Rohrer house. He left Lancaster this morning as usual on his train, but before leaving complained of ing unwell. The announcement of his leath was a great surprise to his friends. He was between 40 and 50 years of age and unmarried, and was a member of the Relief Department of the ratiroad company. Several years ago while a brakeman in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company, he was knocked from a train by an overhead bridge and badly hurt. Deceased was a jovial, open-hearted man, and was Finest in the City. The finest strawberry patch in the city is at No. 12 South Queen street, Samuel Clarke, the enterprising tea and coffee man, receives them every morning. They are the finest ber-ries in the city. Try them.

The Sisters of St Francis attached to St. Joseph hospital beg to return their most heart-felt thanks to all who so efficiently and un-selfishly inbored to make the concert given in their behalf asuccess. Especially do they fine themselves under profound obligation to Rev Father Ganss, who managed it with such good taste and consummable skill; to Mr. Waiter Bausman, who seconded his every effort and grest personal inconvenience; to Prof. Thor bahn and his orchestra; to the chorus who aided so materially in insuring its success and to the Lancaster press whom the crowde house is in a great measure attributable. It cartainly will be a source of gratification to all and kind benefactors as it is of warm grati-tude on ours to know that the concert was financial as well as musical success, one that will contribute very much in aiding us in our work. That God may amply reward them all stant prayer of the 1td SISTERS OF ST. FRANCIS.

Telephone Connection.

Samuel Becker's hotel, Rothsville, is con-nected with the telephone exchange.

Amusements. The Weish Prize Singers To-night - At eight o'clock this evening there will begin in the Court Houss one of the most delightful musi-cal programmes which Lancaster has had or will have for many a day. Tickets will be for sale at the door, which will open at 7:15. The Welsh people are proverbially & nation of musicians, and it is out of their famous prize chorus that the superb double quartet of to night has been picked for the American tour Every voice, male and female, is a picked so leist, capable of rendering concerted music and solo selections in the most perfect manner. The programme will contain a liberal amount of the test English music and a num ber of characteristic Weish glees. Mr. Barker, the harpist, is considered one of the most bril-liant performers in all England. The admision will be to cents. Feats unreserved.

DEATHS Pastura.—In this city, on the 2rd inst, amuel J. Demuth, in the 57th year of his age. The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, No. 48 East King street, or saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
