Rope a Lodger on His Shos.

rom the West Chester News.

Queer things happen sometimes in jury

roma. It is stated upon good authority at when the jury in the Highley-Balley that when the jury in the Highley-Balley case went out to deliberate eleven stood for Balley and one for Highley. And this one was a young man from Coateaville, phose arguments on "figgers" changed a antificient number of his colleagues as to reader a verdict against Balley. It spours, as the story goes, that during the trial he kept a ledger upon his shoe. On one side he marked the indebtedness of Mr. Balley and on the other side his smount of money in the Malvern bank at various times. These figures came from the witnesses summoned to testify. It is stated that his figures then showed that Mr. Highley was correct when he stated that Bally was in debt to the bank and that his debts exceeded the amount of his property. These figures, so the story goes, which were appt on the sole of the young juryman's shoe, had the effect to set the other jurors to thinking with the result as above stated. Another curious thing about the matter is that the young man came very near being challenged by Highley's lawyers.

Kittle Rhondes' Company. Kitty Rhoades and company had a small e last evening. The play given was called "Citp" on the house bills, but it was nothing else than "M'llas" with all the ers the same as in that successful frams. The reason for the change in the same is that " M'liss " is owned by Miss Annie Pixley and no other parties have any right to produce it. M1 s Rhoades played the t of Clip (or Miles) with Mr. Stoddard Judge Beeswinger, J. S. Brewater as Tubu Bill, Tyrone Power as Bummer Smith, &c. This evening the company will gain play "Our Bad Boy."

Daniel Hickey, the baggage master who was killed by the cars of the Pennsylvania rollroad, on Wednesday, served as a sailor n the United States navy during the war. He was first attached to the Ironsides but es afterwards traps ferred to another vessel He was at the storming of Fort Sumter, the taking of Fort Fisher and in other ennents, and had a good record. He also one of the aurylvors of the big 51. Michael's society, of Philadelphia, on the North Penn ratiroad, about thirty years ago. At the time 200 persons were killed or burned to death. Hickey was so badly jured at the time that he lay in a hospita for nine months.

An Historical Watch. Alderman Spurrier has a watch in his It is a sliver hunting case and good time piece. This watch was stolen from a store in Chester county, which was burgiarized some years ago. Afterwards Abe Buzzard, the notorious burgiar and thief, was ar-rested in this city, and the watch was taken from his person by Alderman Spurrier. It was identified by the owner, who prested it to the aiderman in appreciation of what the latter had done. The watch has just been cleaned and put in good shape, and it is keeping time with the best of them. Inside of one of the cases is an inscription giving a history of the watch.

Two Ladies Fall Down States. Mrs. Hershey, of Silver Springs, fell down a flight of fifteen steps on Thursday. She was badly injured internally, but is much better to-day.

Mrs. Dr. Ream, residing in Robrerstown, ripped and fell down stairs Friday even ing. She had her left shoulder badly in-jured and her aide terribly bruised. She ras attenped by Dr. Shenk. Mrs. Ream is 83 years of age and it is feared that the terrible accident may cause her death.

The Judges Will Not Come.

Arrangements were made when the Lancaster members of the bar were at the supreme court for a reception to the judges of that court in this city this evening. On Friday a communication was received from the judges stating that they could not be here this evening, because they were too sy writing opinions. Consequently there will be no reception.

An Amsteur Loague, An amateur base ball league, with clube of Harrisburg, Columbis, York, Lancaster, Middletown and Reading, is now being spoken of. The Lancaster Athletic club would no doubt be willing to put it a team, and they have a better ground than any in the other towns. The Ivory baseball club of this city, which is composed of boys from 18 to 18 years of age, want to play games with any clubs in the city, and especially those whose mbers are about their ages. Its fast Meeting This Season.

GAP, May 26.—The Gap Literary society beld its closing exercises for the season last evening in the school house. The promme was made up of readings, recitations and essays, interspersed with music on violins and organ by Messrs. Sheetz, Kramer and Orendorf, and singing by the Philharmonic quintette. The society, which was only organized during the past winter, has grown surprisingly, and has t with unusual encouragement.

Funeral of Samuel J. Demuth. The funeral of Samuel J. Demuth took place this afternoon from his residence on East King street and was largely attended. The pail bearers were John B. Roth, W. C. F. Scheer, Charles Eden, Christian Sharp, Augustus Rhoads and J. K. Barr, Rev. J. Max Hark conducted the funeral services and the interment was made at Lancaster cemetery.

Bold by the Sheriff.
Under proceedings in partition Sheriff Burkholder this afternoon soid a tract of thirteen acres of land, on which is a siste quarry, in Little Britain township. The property belonged to H. H. To every member of the Grand Army we offer a suggestion quietly-don't buy a Cheap Blue Suit that will turn its color because you can buy it for a few dollars less than some one else has paid for a good one. This is truly poor economy. No one buys Clothing at such extremely low prices as the members of the Grand Army. We've favored them because we think we're indebted to them for past service. We have just offered them Suits at prices without profit. Our Suits at $9, $12 and $14 are the genuice "True Blue," and if you've heard of any from our stock that were not "True Blue" we should like to hear of it. Two se's of buttons with each Suit.
