A CRUEL HUSBAND. Who Whips His Wife Both Late and Early, le Arrested. John Gamber, who resides close to the Harrisburg turnpike, west of Differville, was arrested to day by Constable Barnhold. He is charged before Alderman Deen with surety of the peace, assault and battery and drunken and disorconduct. The complaint is made by his wife. It appears that Gamber went home, while drunk last evening and began beating and otherwise abusing his wife. She was compelled to take refuge in the cellar where she remained until after 12 o'clock when her husband went to bed. He was up bright and early this morning and resumed hostilities. Before the house and was afraid to return. This forenoon she came to town and made the above complaints. He was committed in default of ball for a hearing.

The Public Building. Col. Fister, the government agent sent here to select a site for a government building, left for Washington on Wednesday afternoon. He will make his report to the secretary of the treasury as to the site he deems most suitable for the wants of the city, and if his report is approved Post-master Slaymaker will be notified of the selection. It is probable that in a week it will be known which of the sites the gov-

The Pedestrian

To men desiring an easy and comfortable show we would recommend the Pedestrian. The uppers are made of two pieces of calf-skin, therefore doing away with the extra top usually found in men's shoes; hand-sewed and without lining. Consequently, there is nothing on the inside of the shoe to hurt or chate the foot.

LOW SHOES. A very desirable line of low-cut shoes for men's wear A hand-made, Oxford toe, risin broad toe, makes waking easy, Also the same style shoe in Dongola, soft and easy to the foot, for young men's wear, in call and Dongola, narrow toe and tip.

OXFORD TOES. Our line of Oxford toos is large, cor prising everything desirable for ladies, misses and children in low-cut shoes.
Team's and literale shoes of every description and at all prices.
Wigwam slippers for men's, boy's, ladies', misses' and children's wear.
