The Boston Globs publishes a letter written by Mrs. Cleveland to a lady friend in Worcester, who had forwarded Mrs. Cleveland a copy of the alleged statements of a Worcester clergyman against the character of the president. The letter is as

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 3, 1888—Mrs. Nicodemus—Dear Madam: I can only say in answer to your letter that every statement made by the Rev. C. H. Pendieton in the interview which you send me is basely false, and I pity the man of his calling who has been made the tool to give circulation to such wicked and heartless Hea.

I can wish the women of our country no greater blessing than that their homes and lives may be as happy, and their huabands may be as kind, attentive, considerate and affectionate as mine. Very truly,

FRANCES F. CLEVELAND.

The clergyman claims that he was misquoted in his interview.

Guilty of Larceny and Arson,

In Montgomery county quarter sessions on Wednesday Samuel T. Young pleaded guilty to arson and larceny. He was charged with stealing a horse from the barn of Francis Nace, near Norristown, on April 7, and afterwards setting lire to the building; and also with the theft of a horse from the stable of Milton J. Davis, near Perklomen, and a chain and two watches from his uncle, John Thomas. The scoused had confessed these crimes to the chief of police, who testified in court to all that was told him by Young in his confession. The culprit said the barn was fired by socident. Sentence was suspended in order to allow Young to offer testimony of an extenuating character.
