ENTERN TRAR LOCUSTS DEVASTAT-ING ILLINOIS AND IOWA.

and Bushes Literally Covered With the to-Pears That the Fruit Will Be guined-The Animals Two Inches In Length With Large Wings.

WERATON, Ill., June 12.—The seventeth par locusts appeared here about two weeks to mid have no rapidly increased in number that now they interally cover all kinds of beahes, hedges and trees. Their tavorite sood appears to be the leaves of currant takes and maple trees. They also est coate vines and arbor vi'm. When they interest up out of the ground they appear a white grub, about an inch lorg, but they soon turn to a brown hue, and, shedding their skin, develop in two days bodies two inches in isength with wings which when extended are three or four inches from tip to tip. Great apprahension is felt over their general devastation, and it is based the shade and fruit trees will be allowed. WHEATON, Ill., June 12. -The seventers

DUBUQUE, Iows, June 12 -- Locusts have appeared here in vast numbers in the last two days. They are popularly supposed to be the seventeen-year locusts, but the calculation is two years off their time. Their last ppearance was in 1869, just 19 years ago.
When here nineteen years ago they atsked nothing but the trees, eating the taves and stripping them bare. They do of attack grain or vegetables.

The stock market this morning opened very feverish and weak on selling by London and the bear to lowing, and prices declined by @3% per cent. Manhattan, however, was the chief feature of the attack, owing to the re-duction of the dividend, and the price sold off of per cent from last night's close. Since it a. m. there has been some good support and covering of shorts, and prices have recovered 1/2 to 2/4 per cent from the lowest.
