Salts and Cross Salts. Charles Bilkowski, the man who was brought from Richmond, Virginia, by Officer Barnhold to answer the charge of emberziement, preferred by Staley & Co., of Philadelphia, had a hearing before Alderman Deen this morning. He was held in ball for trial at court.

After the hearing Bilkowski was arrested on a charge of larceny as ballee, preferred by H. W. Baldwin, agent for Gately & Co., for whom the accused had worked. Ball was entered for a hearing on this charge. J. G. Staley has been prosecuted before Alderman A. F. Donnelly by Charles Bilkowski for larceny. The subject of the lar-ceny is an account book, in which Bilkow-ski's accounts were kept and by which he mays he expects to prove his innocence of the charge of embezziement noted above Staley was arrested by Officer Merringer and gave ball for a hearing next Wednes-

Herschell Lodge Festival. The festival of Herschell Lodge of Old Fellows was opened at the King street theatre on Wednesday evening, under very auspicious circumstances. The hall has been beautifully decorated, and the secommodations for those who attend are the very best. The concert on the opening night was by the Cecilian orchestra and the Mozart quartette. The admission fee is ten cents and each purchaser is entitled to a plate of cream or strawberries. The attendants are obliging and there is no solicitation of yotes or chances. The festival will be kept up all week and arrangements have been made for musical treats on each evening. This evening Monterey Lodge of Odd Fellows will attend in a body, and George A. Lane, esq , will deliver an address.

Another Slight Fire.

It seems that people in this city are very anxious to strike fire alarms, and within the past few weeks the department has been called out a number of times when it was not needed. Last evening an alarm was struck from box 42, at Lemon and Mulberry streets, shortly after five o'clock. The fire that caused the alarm was in the house No. 418 West Lemon street, which is owned by the Griel estate, and occupied by William Batton. The fire was caused by the soot, which accumulated in the chimney over the kitchen range, igniting from a spark. The mantel and the wooden crosspiece in the fireplace we eslightly damage when the fire was extinguished. Although it was known that the fire could easily be extinguished some one insisted upon striking an alarm.

The Monumental Association The annual meeting of the Lancaster County Monumental association was held yesterday afternoon. The election of officers resulted as follows : President, J. W. The burglars of this city have not been very successful of late. They have tried to break into several buildings but have been driven off before they accomplished a great deal. Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning a man, who is supposed to have been a burglar, attempted to force his way into the house of Mrs. Mary Stelgerwalt, at No. 608 South Queen street. The woman heard mounted the roof, the building being of one-story. Mrs. Stelgerwalt gave the alarm and Officer Shertz, who was walking up Beaver street, heard it and ran to the house. He searched in the yard and all through Crowds at Mannerchor Garden and Hall. The Mannerchor hall and garden was an attractive place last evening. In the former the society gave a concert in which they rehearsed the choruses and solos to be given at Baltimore. Following this there was dancing until a late hour. The attendance, especially of ladies, was very large. In the garden the crowd that came to see John Till's marionettes was very great.

l'eople were standing so thick that it was almost impossible for more to get in and obtain a view. The nimble figures played " Humpty Dampty, " and gave a minstrel first part.

Before the Mayor. The first subject for the disposition of the mayor this morning was Jimmy Quinn. He received his pension money last week and the result was a spree. His punishment was made at 10 days.
