Vogansville and Vicinity.

The Lutheran members of this congregation have succeeded, in securing the services of Rev. Brownmiller, of the Ephrata charge, to give occasional discourses in the Union church in town. He will preach his initial sermon on Saturday evening, June 16.

The Reformed congregation celebrated the Lord's supper last Sunday in the presence of a full house. Rev. Miller, of F. & M. college, officiated.

The Union Sunday school will hold a "Children's meeting" on Sunday afternoon, June 17, and contemplate having a picnic during the coming season.

E. H. Burkholder, esq., J. M. Sprecher and their wives attended the commencement exercises of F. and M., college.

Messrs. J. B. Sprecher and H. M. Hoffman, on Thursday visited friends in Lititz, attending the commencement at Linden Hall seminary.

M. D. Mull, esq., of Washington, D. C., will be home to spend a few days the latter part of this month.

Mr. Frank McGallicher has fitted out a neat little barber shop.

Mrs. Reidenbach, wife of Reuben Reidenbach, who has a store about two miles east from here, was buried on Tuesday at Bergstrasse. The funeral cortege was very large.

Mr. A. E. Burkholder, son of E. Burkholder, esq., graduated at Central Pennsylvania college, this week, and will soon enter upon the study of law, under H. C. Brubaker, esq., of Lancaster.

Death of Mrs. B. S. Schindle.

Mrs. Beulah J. Schindle, wife of Benj. S. Schindle, business manager of the New Era, died at the residence of her husband, No. 548 West Chestnut street, at 10 o'clock this morning. The cause of her death was cancer. The deceased was a daughter of the late Jesse Landis, esq., and her mother resides on South Duke street. Her brothers are Charles I. Landis, esq., the well-known lawyer, and James D. Landis, of the New Era editorial staff. Besides her husband she leaves two young children, and the family has the sympathy of many friends. Mrs. Schindle was 33 years of age.

Using a Counterfeit Label.

Marriott Brosius, esq., attorney for Jos. McQuay, president, D. S. Hicks, Frank Gastiger and H. Brownstetter, trustees of Cigar Makers Union, No. 126, of Ephrata, filed a bill in equity to-day against John H. Brendle, cigar manufacturer, of Brecknock township. The allegation is that Brendel is about using a label which is a counterfeit of the International Cigar Makers Union. Judge Patterson in chambers granted a preliminary injunction restraining Brendle from using the proposed label. The sheriff will serve the injunction this afternoon.

A Surprise Party.

Morris Adams, aged 17 years, celebrated his birthday at his home, No. 721 St. Joseph street, yesterday. In the evening ten couples of young friends surprised him at his parents' home and an enjoyable party followed.

Knights of St. John Convention.

The annual convention of the Knights of St. John will be held at Louisville, Kentucky, on June 28th and 29th, and a number of the members of the order in this city are making arrangements to attend the convention.

Failed to Turn Off the Gas.

John McVey and John McCarthy took a room in the Windsor hotel, Binghamton, New York, on Thursday night. On Friday morning they were found on the bed, one dead and the other unconscious from escaping gas. It is not known whether the dead man is McVey or McCarthy.

Bet $5,000 That Cleveland Would Carry New York.

Congressman Timothy J. Campbell, of New York, has wagered $5,000 with ex-Congressman Paige, of California, that President Cleveland would carry New York state next autumn by a good round majority.

Board of Poor Directors.

The board of poor directors met statedly to-day, but the only business transacted was of a routine nature, of no public interest.

Decision Reserved.

Before Alderman Hershey Louisa Brown was held last evening on the charge of being a common scold. The alderman reserved his decision.

In Memory of the Emperor.

Special services will be held in St. Stephen's Lutheran church to-morrow in memory of the dead German emperor.

Novelties in Jewelry.

From the Jeweler's Review.

Plain gold rope pattern button hooks are out.

Silver gilt lamps seem to go very well just now.

The newest collar buttons bear raised gold initials.

Bonnet pins are out, representing tiny silver scorns.

A small gold sextant makes a very pretty yachting pin.

New and attractive scarf pins represent small oxidized oysters.

St. Mary's Lawn Fete.

The handsome grounds about St. Mary's Catholic church will be a dream of beauty on next Wednesday evening, when the lawn fete for the benefit of the church will be begun. Maidens fair will preside over gaily decorated tables, where will be dispensed the seductive strawberry and the entrancing lemonade and ice cream. The grounds will be a picture of tangled fireflies with its Chinese lanterns and varicolored lights. It is announced that there will be no chancing or like nuisances that sometimes creep into events of this kind. Everyone may go therefore with the certainty that he will have a good time, no annoyance, and the satisfaction of aiding a worthy cause.

Something New.

A novelty in the way of festivals and entertainments is to be given by the young folks of the Moravian church Tuesday evening, June 19th. It is a "Dairy Maid's Party" in the parlors and garden of the late Mrs. M. Rhoads, No. 30 North Prince street, where ice-cold milk, cakes, ice cream, strawberries, fruit, &c., will be served by a lot of charming "dairy maids" and gallant "squires," presided over by a number of staid and worthy "dames." The grounds will be illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and Thorbahn's orchestra will dispense choice selections of concert music the entire evening. The costumes, decorations, promenades, and whole entertainment will be as delightful as it is novel. Admission with refreshments costs only ten cents.
