DEATH OF AGED MEN.

Abram Geltmacher, of Maytown, and Jacob Echternacht, of Strasburg. Abram Geltmacher, a highly esteemed resident of Maytown, this county, died on hursday last at Steelton, Dauphin county, and his funeral, which took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence in Maytown, was one of the largest over held in that vicinity. Deceased was 62 years old, and had resided in Maylown 45 years. He was in all respects a most excellent man, a kind husband and father, and a Pleasant, sociable triend and neighbor. He leaves a wife, a son and three daughters to mourn his loss. His remains were interred in the Reformed burial ground at Maytown.

An Aged Citizen of Straeburg. Jacob Echternacht, one of the oldest citi sens of Strasburg, died on Sunday in that borough, aged 80 years. He formerly lived at Tanyard Run, near Paradise, and followed farming. His wife was an Esben-chade. He leaves a family of well-to-do children. In religious matters he held to the faith of the Old Mennonites.

Children's Day at Boehm's. There were Children's Day services at Boehm's church, south of Willow Street, on Sanday. The church was very beautifully corated with evergreens and flowers, and there was a great crowd in attendance. The exercises were under the management of Rev. Perkinpine, pastor of the church, consisted of recitations, ogues and music by pupils of ols. The several pieces were well dered. Miss Nora Gatchell, a talented nghter of J. C. Gatchell, aged fourteen years, presided at the organ, and played the scoompaniments very effectively. Taken all in all the Children's Day was the best and biggest that has ever been held at Bookm's.

A Suit Against the County. B. F. Leman, ex-police officer of the Third ward, city, has sued the county commis-sioners for a balance of $9.38, which was stricken from a bill presented by him for services rendered. The bill was prepared at Alderman Barr's office, and its correct nees in all its details was sworn to by Mr. Leman ; but the commissioners made the leduction of $9.38 without offering Mr. Leman any reason for their action. Hence the out which will be heard before Alderman Spurrier on Thursday morning at 9
