In the quarter sessions list an important be question of payment of damages in the pening of streets. The test will be made a the report of viewers assessing damages the proposed opening of Ross street. Under the law prior to the adoption of Lanster's new charter all damages for land atom in the opening of streets was paid by he county. The commissioners believe hat the county is no longer liable for land issuages, and they retained A. F. Hostetter W. F. Beyer to represent them and to to the question as to the Ross street ow. These attorneys filed the following coptions to the report of viewers as to

The viewers were not appointed according to existing laws, and therefore the report must be set saids.

The award against the county of Lancaster is erroneous because under existing laws the county of Lancaster is not liable for any land damages in the city of Lancaster, and the viewers had no authority to assess any against the county.

The award against the county is erroneous because in the existing state of the account between the city of Lancaster and the county of Lancaster the county is not liable for any damages within the city of Lancaster, and the viewers had no authority to assess them against the county.

The state of improvement and other necessities of the neighborhood are not such as to require the immediate opening of said street and until that time no damages can be assessed.

The petitioners for the opening of the

The petitioners for the opening of the street were represented by Messrs. Nau-men and Landis and their argument was in feet that the new charter does not alter the mode of amessing damages caused by the opening of streets, Spicige of Samuel H. Hemple's Son. Geo. Hemple, a 23 year-old son of Samue H. Hempie, the actor, who is well-known in Lancaster, committed suicide on Wednesday at Ridge avenue and Thirty-first street Philadelphia. The young man left his home early in the morning and said he was going to New York. He rode to the above place, where he left the car and pointing a pistol to his head shot himself dead. The young man had a good position with the Novelty brass works and bore an exemplary character. His parents are almost crazy with grief, and they can assign no cause for the young man's terrible deed. A brother of the deceased, who is a paper hanger, was employed in this city for several years.

Visiting Lancaster. Theo. W. Herr and his two sons Ernes C. and Herbert T. Herr, of Denver, Colorado, arrived in Lancaster, on the midnight train and stopped at the Grape hotel. Mr Herr was for many years a well-known citizen of Lancaster. He was prothonotary of the county one term and for sever years deputy county treasurer and city engineer and regulator. He was a sucsaful real estate and insurance agent. He left for Denver about fifteen years ago, and entered into the insurance and real estate tusiness and has been quite successful. He comes East to renew old acquaintance and to give his boys a chance to see something of the world. He will visit Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Niagara and other important points East, and return West in about two weeks.

A Sweet Potato In Blossom

Constable Warfel, of Intercourse, has a great carlosity in his lot. It is a swie potato stalk on which is a blossom. Neithe Mr. Warfel nor his neighbors have ever seen a sweet potato in blossom before and he has many callers to see it. The blosson is very much like that of a jimsen weed, There is nothing about the stalk to show that it is not a potato, and in appearance i is exactly like the other. It was purchased at the same time and place when the sweet potatoes were secured, and Mr. Warfe intends keeping a close watch upon it to son what the result is.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Impure Blood

Appears in a thousand different forms and causes a vast amount of suffering. Scarcely a single person is entirely free from its effects. Hence the necessity of a reliable blood purifier like Hood's Sarzaparills, which eradicates for like Hood's Sarasparills, which eradicates every impurity, and gives to the blood vitality and health. It cures scripfula, salt rheum, bolls, pimples, and all other affections caused by impurities or poisonous germs in the blood. Hood's Sarasparilla also overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, cures dyspe siz, billousness and headache, and builds up the

Hood's Sarsaparilla "From childhood I was troubled with pim-ples, and every remedy failed illi I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have taken five bottles and now the pimples are almost gone, my general health is much improved, and I highly recom-mend Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. Evans, 465 Lexington Avenue, Brocklyn, N. Y. Berofula

"My son was sill'cted with the worst type of scrofuls, and on the recommendation of my druggist I gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla. Today he is sound and well, notwithstanding it was said there was not enough medicine in illinois to effect a cure." J. (HRISTIAN, Illipo its, iti.
"I had sait rheum on my leftarm three years suffering terribly. I took Hood's Sarsaparille, and the sait rheum has entirely disappeared." If, M. Mille, 71 French St. Lowell, Mass.

A YER'S SARSAPARILLA.

The Old Doctors

now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacions as Ayet's Sarsapariila.
"One of my children bad a large sore break ont on the leg. We applied simple remed les for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medithe increased demand for Alteratives. It is above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength rapidly returned."—J. J. Armstrong, Welmar, Texas. "I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be an admirable remedy for the cure of blood diseases. 1 prescribe it, and it does the work every time "

—E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas. "We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier." —W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Uhio. "Ayer's medicines continue to be the stan dard remedies in spite of all competition."— T. W. Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.
