The stock market this morning was extremely dull. The opening was strong at 148 4 advance on the leading stocks, noticeably Lackawanns, Lake Shore, Northwestern, Reading and Union Pacific. The highest prices were current at 11 o'clock, and as compared with those of last night showed advances of 36 to 36 per cent. In the first hour to noon there was a steady sagging of the list, and at the close the advance had not only been and at the close the advance had not only been and at the close the advance had not only been lost, but prices showed a fractional decline from last night. The bank statement an-nounced at 11:20 showed a decrease in the sur-plus reserves of £844,700 and helped to weaken the list in the last hour. The sales for the day were 48, 469 shares.
