A Bear's Ride.

A bear on a railroad engine created a good al of excitement on Water street at at early hour this morning. A gentleman who had been keeping a store in Ephrata he a number of years had a large stuffed Peer which stood in front of his store.

Treaday he sold out his entire stock and ald not know what to do with the bear, hich was afterwards given to some rail-and men. The trainbands attached to freight ne "Ephrata" secured it and resolved to here some fun. The engine was attached to a freight train, which passed through this city on its way to Quarryville, between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning. The hear was standing on the large humper in front of the engine looking ory flerce and lifelike. The men, women ad children on Water street thought the what it was and one boy swore it was the bedevil.
