

A GORGEOUS PARADE.

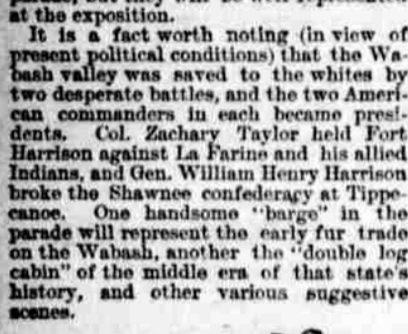

IT WILL BE A GREAT FEATURE OF CINCINNATI'S EXPOSITION.

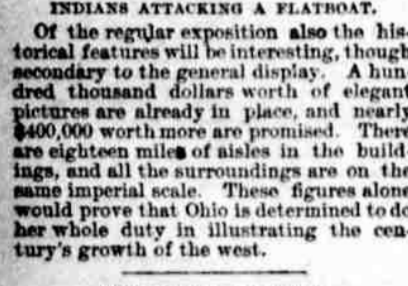

INCINNATI is leaving nothing undone to make the morning of Independence day will doubtless be the finest ever exhibited in the United States in the line of historic and descriptive barges.

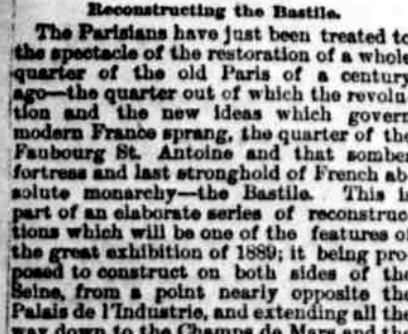

Some of the historic barges are prepared with an elaboration of art and magnificence that will be shown the wooded wilderness of Ohio and the aborigines in council, then the entrance of the pioneer, the log cabin, the early struggles with nature, wild beasts and wild men, including the awful scene of the torture of Col. Crawford by the savages under command of Capt. Pipe.

The following scenes will be more peaceful and agreeable. There will be a reproduction of the barge boat in which Gen. George Rogers Clark set out to capture Vincennes, another of the flag ship Lawrence just after the battle of Lake Erie, and others of early events about Cincinnati and at various places in Ohio.

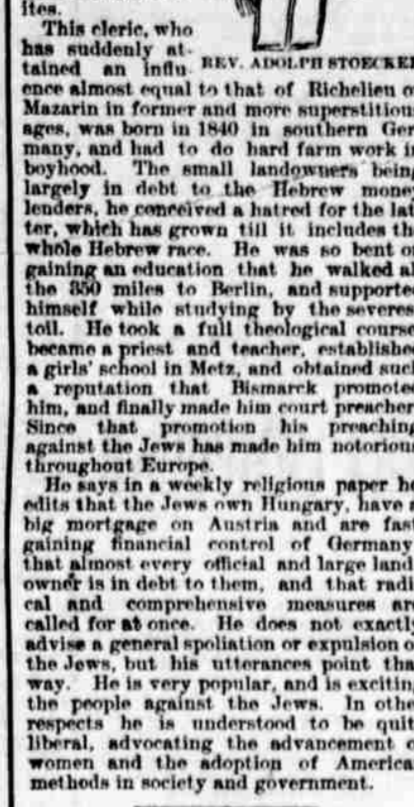

INDIANS ATTACKING A FLATBOAT. Of the regular exposition also the historical features will be interesting, though secondary to the general display. A hundred thousand dollars worth of elegant pictures are already in place, and nearly $400,000 worth more are promised.

Reconstructing the Bastille. The Parisians have just been treated to the spectacle of the restoration of a whole quarter of the old Paris of a century ago—the quarter over which the revolution and the new ideas which govern modern France sprang, the quarter of the Faubourg St. Antoine and that somber fortress and last stronghold of French absolutism—the Bastille.

REV. ADOLPH STOECKER.

He is Emperor William's Chaplain and a man of strong Protestant convictions. William II, the new emperor of Germany, very frankly stated when a youth that he hated Jews, Englishmen and peace men, and had no particular liking for Protestants or Russians.

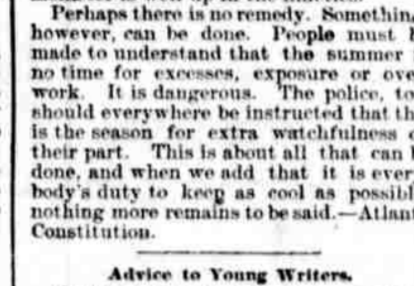

His cleric, who has suddenly attained an influence almost equal to that of Richelieu or Maazarin in former and more superstitious ages, was in 1840 in southern Germany, and had to do hard farm work in boyhood.

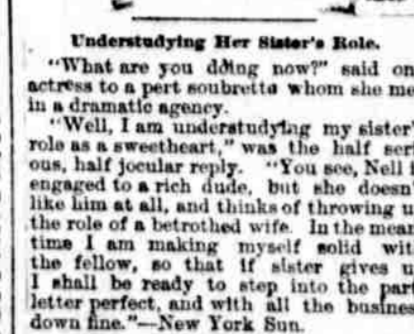

SIoux CITY CORN PALACE. A Typical Summer Festival of the Great West.

Hot Weather and Insanity. It is now pretty well understood that a hot spell of weather throws people off their heads. They become depressed and morbid. Their nerves are torn to tatters, and many men and women exhibit some of the worst symptoms of mental derangement.

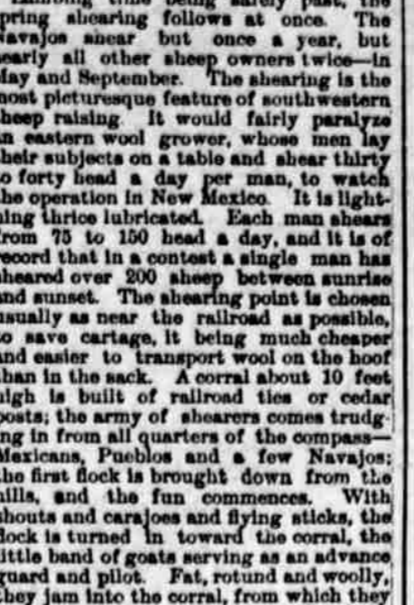

Advice to Young Writers. Nature is free to all. Use your eyes. Man. Pluck a butterfly from its stem. There is no charge. You are not stealing. Observe, observe. Use your ears. Use all your five senses, and then let the impressions play upon your brain.

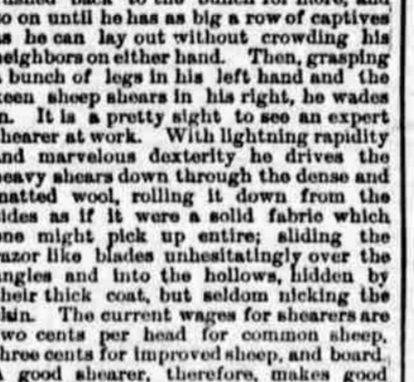

Victims of Misplaced Confidence. People who visit the Wild West show naturally wonder why it is that the bucking horses, which cavort so beautifully when the cowboys mount them, never get broken of their vicious habits.

IN NEW MEXICO.

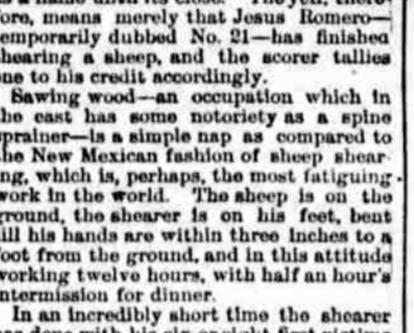

A PICTUREQUE FEATURE OF SOUTHWESTERN SHEEP RAISING. Showing the Flock on a Sheep Ranch—A Dense Mass of Stuffed Wool—An Expert Shearer at Work—Fighting Labor.

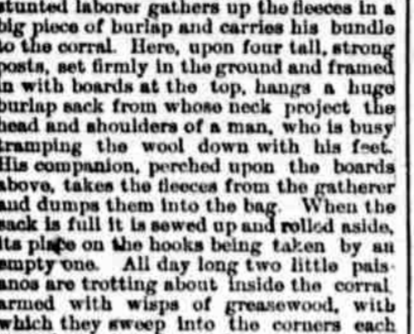

Lambling time being safely past, the spring shearing season is on. The Nevada shearer but once a year, but nearly all other sheep owners twice—in May and September. The shearing is the most picturesque feature of southwestern sheep raising.

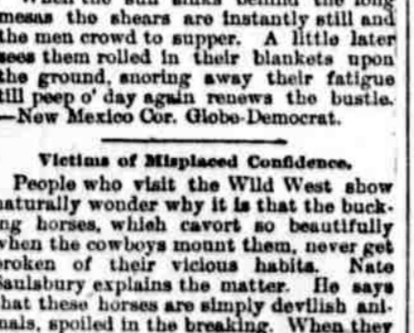

Each man grabs a sheep by the hind legs on the wool. He is ambitious and takes one in his hands and runs to his place dragging his reluctant victim back behind him. Then he throws the sheep upon its side, gathers its four little legs and finally makes it crouch into a crouch, coarse cord or thong. Then he is rushed back to the bunch for more, and so on until he has as big a row of captives as he can lay out without crowding his neighbors.

LENOX'S HANDSOME CHURCH.

It is a Memorial Structure, and Cost $120,000. Lenox, Mass., the favorite summer resort of many blue blooded families of New York and other eastern cities, has a handsome new place of worship, which is known as the Trinity Memorial Church.

The church is a memorial gift from F. Augustus Schermerhorn and Helen S. Auchmuty, in memory of their brother, Henry A. Schermerhorn. The bell in the bell tower of the tower is the gift of women.

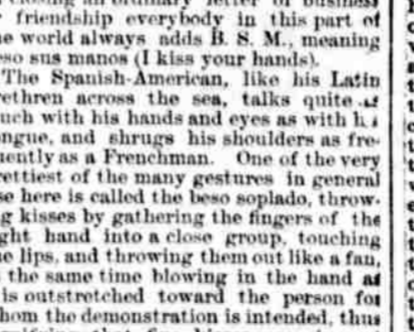

A COMMENDABLE INSTITUTION. The Club for Working Girls Founded at Hoboken, N. J. This is an age of clubs. Not only do men have clubs, but the club fever is extending to women.

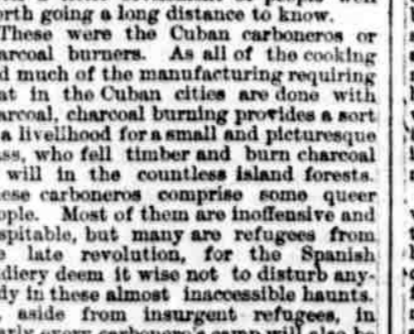

Beauty of the Coffee Plant. Nothing can be more beautiful and interesting than studies of the annual blooming, budding, growth and ripening of coffee, and the gathering and preparation for the market.

MIND CURE. Think health, and health will find you. As certain as the day. And pain will be behind you. And love you on the way.

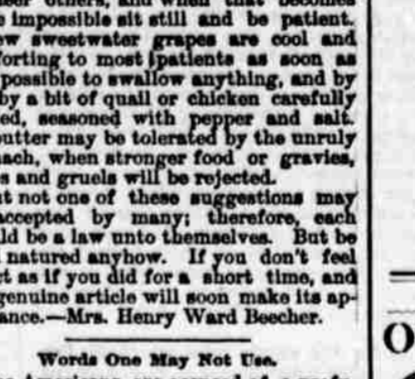

Charcoal Burners of Cuba. During the first day of our excursion our quest was rewarded with nothing in the shape of deep wood sights or tenantry.

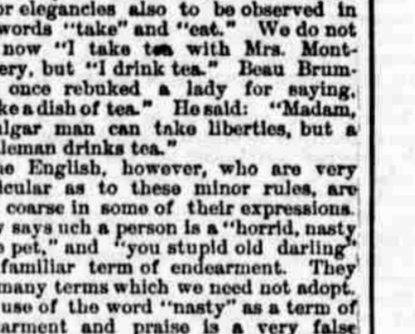

A Plea for Peenilliarities. Oddly is, therefore, the designative or distinguishing element about men, and is to be avoided only as a mischievous, tiresome, or the disagreeable sort.

Advice to the Smoker. The only advice we should venture to give would be to take counsel of your own good sense and quiet judgment; make your own price, and quit, and set up to the fact that you are a smoker.

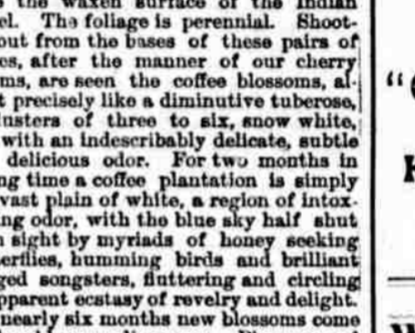

Words One May Not Use. The Americans are accused of a profusion of epithets, of an ill expressed approbation, of a coarse and unbecoming style that is "perfectly awful."

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.

Impurities in the blood produce disease. Bodily and mental health depend upon a healthy condition of the blood. The blood, particularly in the spring and during the hot summer months, becomes clogged with impurities, which poison it and generate disease.

Advice to the Smoker. The only advice we should venture to give would be to take counsel of your own good sense and quiet judgment; make your own price, and quit, and set up to the fact that you are a smoker.
