OFF FOR BALTIMORE. The Liederkranz and Messarcher Taxo their Departure for the Monumental City.

The Lancaster Liederkrans and Mennerchor left this afternoon for Baltimore to attend the National Sængerfest, which begins in that city to-day and lasts until Thursday. At 1 o'clock the Liederkranz met at their hall, in the rear of Knapp's saloon, and headed by the Liberty band, which furnishes the music for them, marched to Mennerchor hall, where that society fell in. The two then marched down Prince street to West King, to Centre Square and the Pennsylvania railroad station, where a large crowd had gathered to see them off. The Liederkrans were light alouch hats and red badges and the Mannerchor brown red bedges and the Mænnerchor brown hats and blue badges. Each carried very pretty flags and banners. On the Baltimore train there were two special cars for the societies and on one was a streamer with the words: "Liederkranz of Lancaster, Pa." The number of members of the societies who went were 150, and 30 others accompanied them.

The lawn pineapple featival of the First Baptist church, which was to have taken place Thursday and Friday evenings, but which was postponed on account of the rain, will take place Monday and Tuesday evenings.
