Worker, weary with the work, Worn with the daily strife, Who knoweth that success is vain, That dreams sade out of life. Go to thy mother's heart for rest, Deep as thy childhood's sleep, Her tired children safe and close Thy mother yet can keep.

For still 'tis true, as in these days,

Long past, of myth and song, Cal m Nature great all-mother is, With love and memory long. Find then, thou caust, on Mature's bear This solace for thy pain—
The joy that blossoms with the grass,
The gladness of the grain.

The h-ppy breaking into song
Of brook, and bird, and bee,
And of the wind that lifts the wave
And bends the willing tree.

On alient pools beneath the hills, Where quiet abadows is. On waters swift, of changing hue, Let fall thy line and fly. Let thy heart dance with dancing leaves,

And with the pattering rain -So shalt thou find, though day decline, Thy childhood's rest again. - Edward Carlton in "Forest and Stream,"

A Long Bernion of Congress Representative Anderson (Kan.) in an interview remarked, referring to the adjournment of Congress, that he would name some date between the 5th and 15th of September, as the Democrats are determined to pass the Mills bill in the House, and they will do it. The talk of the Republicaus preparing a substitute is non-sense, so that all the opposition can do is to discuss the bill. A vote will be taken about August 27, after which the bill will go to the Republican Senste, where a substitute will be passed. Then there will be a conference, and the bill will be brought down to five or six specifications on which a compromise will be necessary in order to get it to the president. All this, be thinks, will keep Congress here until September. resentative Anderson (Kan.) in an Received Nearly & Hundred Million Dollars.

Burned Her Husband to Death. The mystery concerning the death of Mathias Schriever, in Chicago, a week ago, has been solved by the confession of his wife. They had been quarreling for the past six months, and while he was in a drunken stupor she poured kerosene over his cloth-ing and then set fire to it. Mrs. Schriever is but 22 years old, and has a 6 months-old baby. She will plead guity to the crime.
