TO PRANCES GLEVELAND, have been fair. One sees a rad ng the mists and shadows, here and Outshine its crown. Down there among the Ah me, queens have been fair !

Even in this world's dust and ashee yet I do not doubt that beauty grows an blooms.

Queens may be fair, even in the cruel sun Of this our day. But range them in a row O se wears the rose of England - withering. Ou glitters Russia's snow.

One holds the German corn flower. One love The Austrian edelweiss. One shows the sear Felt by the jewel thorns of France, deep Fortorn as some dead star:

One hides a girl's face in Sprin's widow-veil.
One, who loves Virgil's song, has but to or lift her gold head, and the nightingale Sings out his heart to her.

These, if they shine (yes, these and all the Shine through prown-jewels and from height of place; While you, O Lady shining in the West,

Shine but with your own grace. lo, if you will, among them all and stard, With just a mountain wild-flower in you with just the welding-ring on your light

The nation bids you wear. then from the Eiysian Fields call Paris back "Say who shail have the golden apple— Who?"

Chough Kurope, & mod, should follow in 1 track, He'd throw it straight to you! -Barah M. B. Piatt, in Belford's Magazine.

Republicans Yielding. Representative McKinley, of the ways and means committee, says that the passes of the Mills bill in the House is a foregon onclusion. "There has been no agree-nent on the part of the Republicans to stop lebate," he added, " but I am of the opin on that the bill will pass within two weeks. ourse one speech is liable to provoke nother and the debate may last longer out I hardly think it will. The Republi not le hardly think it will. The Republians will resort to no dilatory tactics to imsede the passage of the measure, but will sermit it to be sent to the Senate.

"I believe we shall have a final vote on he bill inside of two weeks,"said Representative Breckenridge. "The wool clause is likely to excite considerable debate, and so a that relating to pottery, but I believe he Republicans are tacitly agreed that the sill shall go to the Senate." Representative Bayne, of Pittsburg, is another Republican leader who predicts an early passage of the tariff till.

The Senate substitute for the Mills bill vili be framed to reduce the revenues seventy to eighty millions of dollars, including the abolition of the tobacco tax, all pecial taxes and that on spirits used in he arts.

Siespicasness and fearful dreams are the earliest and survet signs of brain subsustion. In bealthy sleep brain force to being stored up to meet the next day's demands. But nowndays the nervous system has been overtasked that it is unable to control the mind, and at night the worries, troubles and work are so present as during the day. Hence the brain has not time to recuperate its energies. The popular remedies are sedative, herve tonics, laxetives, and requisitors of the general functions. Coocs and colory are the sedative and nerve tonic demanded, and in Paine's Celery Compound their full beneficial effect is obtained. It also contains, in scientific proportions, the best remedies of the materia medion for constipation, and kidney and inverdisorders. This is a brief description of the medicine which has brought sweet rest to thousands who tossed in sleepieseness from night to morning or whose morted dreams caused them to a water more tired than ever. MEDICAL POOD'S SARSAPARILIA.

TRUE ECONOMY

It is true economy to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, for "100 Doses One Dollar," is original with and true only of this popular medicine. If you wish to prove this, buy a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and measure its contents You will find it to hold 100 teaspoonfuls. Now read the directions, and you will find that the average dose for persons of different ages is less than a teaspoonful. This is certainly conclusive and unanswerable evidence of the peouliar strength and economy of HOOD'S Sarsaparilla in our "We began using Hood's Sarsaparilla in our
