

THE LANCASTER DAILY INTELLIGENCER, SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1888.

WITHIN ONE POINT.

The Lancaster Mennerchor Come Very Near capturing One of the Prizes.
On the notice on Friday of the return of the Mennerchor and Leiterkraus singing contest from Baltimore no special notice was made of the contest for singing honors made by the Mennerchor. It was almost universally conceded that the Mennerchor should have had one of the prizes. The States-Echo, in New York, placed them first in rank, and added: "the Baltimore Americans decided the Mennerchor should be a prize, and the Sues and other groups equal in the highest terms of their singing; and the official judges placed them within one point of winning. The same two sang for the prize were 'Die Lied kann nicht enden' and 'Wald-Almdechein.' These pieces were sung in concert with some of the best singing societies in the United States having a much larger membership than the Mennerchor. The first prize was awarded to the Krewe Quartet of New York; the second prize to the Einheits of Newark, New Jersey; and the Quatette club of Philadelphia got the third prize, the Mennerchor being a single point behind them, having 65 points out of a possible 80.

After the contest was over the Mennerchor sang "Heimat" chorus, and solo by H. Dreher.
The Mennerchor, who were the guests of the Baltimore Germans, say they never before had so cordial an entertainment as was extended to them by that society.
More Fete Premiums.
In addition to the liberal premiums for the county fair herefore announced the necessary-to-day reports that a suit of fine clothing from Wanamaker & Brown, Philadelphia, is offered for the best bushel of wheat grown in Lancaster county; Mrs. E. M. Woodward, 265 East King street, offers a large oil painting "Angels' Heads," for the best cake by young lady of twenty years or under.

The following articles will be given to the winning babe in the contest inaugurated by Mr. J. Harry Widmyer: Messrs. Kirk Johnson & Co., a fine violin; Messrs. Keeler & Kiehl, a fine gold necklace; Messrs. Shaub & Burns, a pair of fine shoes; Mrs. E. M. Woodward, a hand-knit shawl; Aldus C. Herr, an ornamental tray, with accompanying plate, cup, knife, fork and spoon.

Lancaster Pedestrians.

Coh. Wm. D. Stauffer, Maj. Charles F. Rogers, Willie Stauffer, Freddie Rengier, Carl Rengier, Jr., and Harry Krampf, who had visited Gettysburg to take part in the great 4th of July celebration, left that town Friday morning and walked to York. They took a train on the Narrow Gauge road to Fishing Creek Fork, at which point they hired three teams and drove to York Furniture, where they spent the night. This morning they left York Furnace about six miles from York Harbor, and will arrive in Lancaster this evening. An advance courier, who came on by rail, says the party have had a jolly time and have borne the pedestrian part of their journey through the broiling sun without flinching, the youngsters vying with the elders in making good time.

Almost Ran Herself to Death.

From the New Holland Clarion.
On Sunday morning Mrs. John Smith, living north of Churchtown in the forest country, missed her boy and thought he was lost. She became excited and ran from house to house to hunt him until she was so exhausted and overcome that she became insensible, and has remained so the greater part of the time since, and but slight hopes are entertained of her recovery. The boy was not lost, but had wandered away with another child and returned in the evening all right.

LOCAL CRIMES.

E. A. Wallen was arrested in Harrisburg last evening, on a warrant from Lancaster, charged with defrauding a hotel.
John M. Pickel, of Bart, has been granted a pension.

The College Association of Pennsylvania is about to meet again after deciding to change its name to the College Association of the Middle States and Maryland, and to meet next year on the Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving.

The Officers Resigned.

E. N. Winowier, district deputy state councillor, last evening installed the officers of Empire Council, No. 120, Jr. O. U. A. M. The report of the trustees was read, showing the council to be in good condition; there are 163 members and the council is worth $3,750. The representatives to state council are J. P. Winowier and J. R. Shello.

The Folding Bed.

From the New York World.
The folding bed is a great convenience. But it receives a set back from foolishly closing up with an old lady at Fayette, in this state, a few weeks ago and holding her a prisoner while, in his rage, who would not have more sleep, gave her a dangerous condition from the shock. Such tricks as that will bring a very useful article of furniture into disrepute.

Festival at Lancaster's Park.

This popular resort at Reading is the place for the excursion under the auspices of St. Anthony's church of this city, will visit on Monday, July 15. The excursion rates are very cheap, and there will no doubt be a train full of people leave the outer station on Monday a week.

Sale of a City Property.

The property of George Breidenbach, deceased, at corner of Love Lane and Union street, fronting 210 feet on Union street and extending in depth 194 feet, was sold by Auctioneer Haines on Friday evening. Mrs. Margaret Reichenbach purchased the property for $750.

Prosecution Withdrawn.

The suits for surety of the peace and assault and battery against George Shay, performed by his wife, were withdrawn this morning at the office of Alderman Bar upon the payment of the costs by Shay.

General Sheridan's Condition.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Col. Sheridan telegraphed to Col. Blunt, at army headquarters to-day that the general was doing as well as could be expected. The General, he stated, would anchor off New London, Conn., to-night, and would be at Nonquitt at noon to-morrow.

The Question Stated.

From the Duluth Paragraph.
It isn't so much a man's constitution as his bile laws that are infringed by rum guzzling.

To Picnic at Little Springs.

Christ Lutheran Sunday school will go to Littleton on Tuesday, July 17. As usual the school will have a big picnic.

Plain as a Pikestaff.

From the Columbia Herald.
It is plain to be seen that we can elect Cleveland and Thurman without the aid of Pennsylvania.

Big Field of Strawberries.

J. H. Warfel, at Mohrstown, raised 4,000 quarts of strawberries on three-quarters of an acre and sold them at an average price of nine cents a quart, or $37 for the lot.

A Student of the Game.

From the New York Sun.
"Well, young man," said a sporting goods dealer, "what can we do for you?" "How about books on base ball?" "Yes."

"Off me 'The Rose an' Fall of the Roman Empire."

A Good Bill.

The proprietor of Mennerchor garden has given a bill of fare to the public lately, but the bill that is now given each evening is the strongest yet. The Kropp family of musicians remain and in addition Mr. Pacific has secured Prof. Alex. Davis, the celebrated ventriloquist, magician, singer and comedian. He is one of the leaders in his line.
