DON'T BE A CLAM.

AT BURSK'S.

WHEN THE COWS OUBE HOME. when the cows down hingle, way down the dusky disgle,
'way down the dusky disgle,
The cows are coming home;
Now sweet and clear, and faint and low.
The airy tinklings come and go,
Like chimings from some fat-off tower,
Or patterings of an April abover
That makes the dalsies grow;
Ko-ling, kolang.

Ko-ling, ko'ang, Ko-ling, ko-lang, ko inglelingie 'Way down the darkening dingle The cows come slowly home;
And old-time friends, and twilight plays,
Ands arry nights, and sump days,
Come trooping up the misty ways
When the cows come home.

With jingle, jangle, jingle,
Soft times that sweetly mingle,
The cows are coming home:
Malvine, and Fearl, and Fiorims!,
De Kamp, Edrose, and Gretchen Schell,
Quen Bess, and Sylph, and Spangled tue—
Across the fields I hear her lococo,

Across the fields I hear her 100-00,
And clang her silver belt;
Go-ling, go-larg,
Go-ling, go-larg,
With faint, far sounds that mingle
The rows come slowly home;
And mother-songs of long-gode years,
And boy joys and childish tears,
And youthful hopes, and youthful fears,
When the cows come home.

With ringle, rang'e, ringle, By twos and threes and single, The cows are coming home; Through violet air we see the town, And the summer sun a slipping down; The maple in the haz sliglade Throws down the path a longer shade, And the bills are growing brown;

To-ring, to-rang, To-ring, to ring, to inglelingle, By threes and fours and single The cows come slowly home; The same sweet sound of worldless pealed the same sweet June-day rest and calm, The same sweet scent of bud and baim. When the cows from home.

With tinkle, tankle, tinkle. Through fern and periwinkle.
The cows are coming home; lottering in the checkered stream. Where the sun rays glance and gleam, Clarine, Peachbloom, and Plobs Phylli-Stand knee deep in the cre my il les

In a drowsy dream ; To-link, to-lank, To-link, to-lank, to-link leiinkle, O'er banks with butter-cups a-twinkle
The cows come slowly home;
And up through Memory's deep ravine
Come the brook's old song and its old-tim

And the crescent of the silver queen, When the cows come home.

With klingle, klangle, klingle, With loo-oo, and moo oo, and jing'e, I he cows are coming home ; And over there on Merlin Hill Hear the plaintive cry of the Whip-poor-will;
The dew-drops lie on the tangled vines,
And over the poplars Venus shines,
And over the stient mill;

Ko-ling, ko-lang, Ko-ling, ko-lang, kolinglelingle, With ting a ling and lingle
The cows come slowly home;
Let down the bars; let in the train Of long-gone songs, and flowers, and rain, For dear old times come back again When the cows come home.
