An Orator's Teeth Drop. From the Baltimore Sun. When a statesman with false teeth gets up in Congress and undertakes to deferd the false pretensions of the Republican party on the internal revenue question, he should proceed with due caution, and not grow too demonstrative in his gesticulations. A Western Republican was pisced in a rather embarrassing position to-day through over exertion in the cause he was advocating. He was proceeding to defend the Republican party against the charge of favoring iree wiffaky, and in the middle of his percoration, while struggling with a jaw-breaking adjective, two of his front teeth fell out, and so his remarks terminated. party on the internal revenue question, he

Not Overcrowded. The last "bulletin" of the American Geographical society quotes M. Ganeval as showing that the world is not yet over-crowded. Allowing five acres to each inhabitant, he finds that Europe has room for an additional population of 115,000,000.

Africa for 1 336,000 000, Asia for 1,402,000,000. Arrica for 1 333,000 000, Asia for 1,402,000, 000, Oseania for 515,000,000, and America for 2 000,000,000. The freeze regions of Asia and Europe are deducted from the available space, but Arotic America is somewhat hastliy assumed to be fit for cultivation. "M. Ganeval's calculation," says the investign in the correction. "bulletin," "are open to correction on some points, and they do not take into secount the forces that work against multiplication, but they suggest the probability that no one nation has yet done its best with the resources of its own soil." A Judge Says Ginger Ale is an Intoxicant A dispatch from Waterloo, Iowa, says: Judge Couch has dicided that ginger ale "must go" in the cases of certain saloon keepers in Buchanan county who have been seiling ginger ale, which contains 3 per cent. alcohol. It was claimed that the drink contained so little alcohol that a healthy man would have to drink a large quantity to become drunken. The judge holds that if there is any mait in the coverage and it would produce intoxication if taken in any quantity it comes under the ban of the law. This decision knocks the last prop from under the salcon interests in this district. The court granted a perpetual injunction against the buildings and salconmen, and ordered the sheriff to proceed at once and close the salcons and sell the fixtures to meet the costs. been seiling ginger ale, which contains 3
