WM. ROTE'S LOSS.

WM. ROTE'S LOSS. A Woman Appropriates a Pecketbook Con-ruining $45 and Ships. This morning William Rote, the well. known huckater, made a purchase at Dr. Herr's drug store. He put his pocketbook on the counter and forgot it when he left the store. Shortly after he left a Garman woman, a poddler by occupation, made a purchase at the same store and as she was leaving Mr. Harry Herr, thinking the pocketbook was hers, told her she had bet-ter take it along as she might need it. She replied, "I nearly forgot it ;" walked to the RawLINSVILLE, July 23.-B. F. Arm-strong, who oversees the Steinman farm, met with a serious acoldent recently. His men had been fauling in hay, and unload-ing with fork and pulleys. Mr. Armstrong had been on the mow operating the fork. After the wagon was emplied the fork re-sumtd its position overhanging the mow. When the teamster backed the wagon out, the hand rope which worked the pullys ought in the singletree, which started the fork in its descent. Mr. Arm-strong's wife, who happened to be present, warned him of the fork failing. Mr. Arm-strong threw himself back ward. The fork struck him in the right log, making a dan-gerous and painful wound which will dis-able him for a long time. The fork would have struck him upon the head had not ble replied, "I nearly forgot it ;" walked to the counter took the pecketbook, pieced it in her pocket and left the store. Mr. Herr thought no more of the lacident until Mr Rote came back to the store and asked if his pocketbook had been seen. Mr. Herr gave him a description of the woman who had his money, but a diligent search has thus far failed to find her.

Hart in Jamping From a Train. Danlei E. Stauffer, who drives the wagon of Krauskop's elgar box manufac-tory, met with a sorious accident yesterday. He left this city at 12:33 for Penryn park to stiend the picate. At Manbelm he should have changed cars, but, instead of doing this he remained on the Reading train. When he found out his mistake he ran to the platform of the car and jumped off. The train was running fast at the time and Stauffer was thrown vio lently to the haid ground. He stunk on his face, which is so badly cut up that his nearest friend would scarcely be able to recognize him. No bones were broke After the accident Stauffer walked all the way to Mt. Hope, a distance of six miles on the railroad track, and he was taken thence to the park on a freight train.

Tasy to Out for a Good Time on Saturday Night and Come Home Boaring.

EFHRATA, July 24 -On Sunday evening the central portion of town was aroused by the disgraceful language that came from the participants in a fistic fight. This con duct has become quite frequent. It is also becoming a practice for the young men o town to go in crowds to our neighboring towns on Saturday evenings for "fun" as they term it, and return on Sunday morn ing and arouse the peaceful slumberers from their rest by singing the most dis graceful songs. It is high time this should top, and the law-abiding citizens declare they will seek the law for protection ild it continuo much longer.
